

A Near-Record Crowd Roared Its Approval yesterday of the Robert Taylor hit now playing at the State. "The Crowd Roars" brings Robert Taylor and Maureen O'Sullivan, the two sweet-hearts of "A Yank at Oxford," together again in a pulsating, red-blooded story of a prizefighter who wins fame and romance against overwhelming odds. Also in the cast of the new picture, currently showing at the State theatre, are Edward Arnold, Frank Morgan, William Gargan, Lionel Stander and Jane Wyman.

Turner Offers Church Safari

Turner—In recognition of World Fellowship week Rev. Willis Douglas, pastor of the Turner Methodist church, assisted by Mrs. Douglas, has led the congregation and its friends through a series of meetings commencing with the special service held a week ago Sunday. A safari of the church was held at the parsonage with luncheon served. The program consisted of inspirational information regarding the American Bible society; Wesleyan foundation as established in 26 colleges throughout the United States; the work being done by the Methodist deaconesses at home and abroad on the demoralizing effects of alcoholic liquor upon the nation, and group singing.

The men's fellowship dinner held at the H. S. Bond home was attended by Rev. W. J. Douglas, Charles Douglas, Harvey Bond, host, C. A. Bear, Earl Bear, Arthur Edwards, Sr., John Mickey, Rev. Pemberton, P. L. Downing, Mr. Dirks, Mr. Hann, Mr. Endicott, Karl Duncan, Mr. Colcomb, Fred Gunning, Mr. Whipple. Mrs. Bond was the hostess and was assisted by Mrs. Douglas, Mrs. Dirks and Mrs. Hann and Mrs. Endicott.

Sunshine Sewing Club Has Election

Monitor—The Sunshine Sewing club met at the home of Mrs. Edna Willis Thursday afternoon with 15 present. New officers were elected and plans made for the year. The new officers are Edna Willis, president; Grace Foltz, vice-president; Pearl Hammond, secretary-treasurer. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Polz December 1.

Book Week Observed By Salem Heights

Salem Heights—The Parent-Teacher association held its regular meeting at the school house this week with President Averett presiding. Songs and readings were given by Mrs. Booth's room. Honoring "book week" guessing games on authors and books were played. Mrs. Bina Stagg winning a book as the prize. It was decided to have a shadow social soon. Refreshments were served.

Hearing Tests Held

Jefferson—Hearing tests were conducted in the Jefferson schools recently by the Marion county health department. All children in the county in the fourth grade and above are being given the tests. There were 122 tested here with nine to be given individual tests. The tests were supervised by Mrs. Keller from the county health offices and Miss Kelly, county nurse in this district.

Geology Study Revived

Jefferson—The geology class sponsored by the Jefferson Parent-Teacher association, under the direction of Rev. E. C. Alford, will meet for organization in the science room of the high school Monday night. Anyone interested in this study is invited to join.

Potter Will Fill Xmas Tree Order

Silverton—H. M. Potter has received an order for 5,000 12-foot Douglas fir trees to be shipped to Douglas fir trees to be shipped to Los Angeles and San Francisco for Christmas holiday decorations and 2,000 smaller trees for other southern California cities. The trees are being shipped from the Potter 1,000 acre ranch on the coast.

Suver Community Club Hears Program

Suver—There was a good attendance at the regular meeting of the community club, a program consisting of three short plays, reading and singing was enjoyed, after which the remainder of the evening was spent in playing games. At the close of the evening the committee served refreshments. Vice-President Mrs. J. W. Kerr presided at the business meeting and appointed the following committees for the December meeting: Program, Mrs. Wesley Kester, Mrs. E. G. Harris, and Mrs. H. F. Couey; Refreshments, Mrs. Walter Vandepool, Mrs. Spencer and Mrs. John Riddler.

Quilt and Knitting Occupies Club Women

Clear Lake—The Ladies Improvement and Knitting club met at the church dining room. Mrs. Eck Dutoit's birthday was celebrated and a cake was baked by Mrs. Amos Smith for the occasion. The morning was spent quilting a club quilt and in the afternoon knitting was in order.

Historical Oregon Sites are Visited

Mt. Angel—Upper grade pupils of Mt. Angel Academy received a practical lesson in Oregon history when they visited four important historic sites of Oregon. The tour was supervised by Sister M. Germaine, O.S.B., and Miss Frances Nowak. The students visited St. Paul, St. Louis, Champeog, and Oregon City. Interest in these points has been greatly stimulated by the approaching centennial celebration of the coming of the first Catholic missionaries to Oregon.

Smaller payments on your CAR

Would smaller Car payments reduce your worries? Then come arrange them through us! We will Re-Finance your car-balance—relieving you of payment-blues! We've changed worry to happiness. For many other car buyers. Come in, ask us to show you. "How?"

WILLAMETTE CREDIT CO.
512 GUARDIAN BUILDING
TELEPHONE 1877

Advanced Club Members Meet

Bethel—Advanced 4-H club members of Marion county met at the Chamber of Commerce for the first meeting of the club year. Wayne Harding, county agent, exhibited the scrap books which were shown in the national contests. Meetings were planned for the year, including a Christmas, Valentine and skating party. January is to be the deadline for new members joining the club, and initiations were planned.

Harding assisted the boys sign up projects and hold election of officers. Mrs. Carmelite Weddle assisted the girl and the following clubs were formed: Cooking club, officers: Freda Bucureneh, leader; Wanda Froehlick, president; Faye Clodfelter, vice-president; Hulda Beckley, secretary. Room Improvement club, Verlie Duke, leader; Carolyn Kaufman, president; Werna Froehlick, vice president; Jean Gorton, secretary. Homemaking club, Hulda

SMITH BROS. COUGH DROPS
TRADE MARK
CONTAIN VITAMIN A

WE PRESENT
FLORAL FRAGRANCES
BY LUCIEN LELONG

"Les Fleurs de Lucien Lelong" are frankly young and unsophisticated—yes, and a little sentimental and romantic. You'll feel that you are walking among blossoms. Just look at their names: Mimosa, Lilac, Honeysuckle, Sweet Pea and Magnolia. In a flower-garden package.

Prices' Shoe Store

Hartley Heads Ankeny Grange

Sidney—Ankeny grange held election of officers Saturday night with reports given by those attending the National grange at Portland. A Marion county Pomona banquet was given Friday evening for the state master and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Richardson. Pomona Master J. O. Parr presented a myrtle wood tray to the honored guests and Pomona Treasurer Rex Hartley give a short history about the trees from which it was made.

Those attending the session and taking the seventh degree from Ankeny were Mr. and Mrs. Rex Hartley and Mrs. Edna Reeves, Mrs. George Henderson and Walter Wulff, Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Parr, having taken this degree in 1921, were in attendance most of the week.

The following officers were elected: Master, Rex Hartley; overseer, C. F. Johnson, lecturer; Leone Henderson; chaplain, Lella Cole; secretary, Louise Johnson; treasurer, Edwin Swartz; steward, George Henderson; assistant steward, Walter Wulff; cress, Edna Reeves; Pomona, Ethel Blinston; Flora, Margarita Marlett; gatekeeper, Jake Gilmore; lady assistant steward, Esther Hartley.

It was decided to invite neighboring grangers to join for installation. Lunch was served at a late hour by committee, Mr. and Mrs. Al Cole and Jake Gilmore.

Brooks Ladies' Aid Makes Bazaar Plans

Brooks—The Brooks Ladies' Aid society met in the church Wednesday afternoon. Plans are being completed for the bazaar which will be held in the near future. A play will be presented. Those present were Mrs. M. F. Day, Mrs. Wilma Vinyard, Mrs. Orval Otto and daughter, Maxine, Mrs. C. A. Bailey, Mrs. Monroe Ward, Mrs. C. V. Ashbaugh, Mrs. C. E. Watts, Mrs. Mary E. Jacobs, Mrs. A. Streeter, Mrs. Cora Wilkinson, Mrs. Jay Bartholomew, Mrs. Sidebottom, Mrs. Harry Bosch and Mrs. Roy Reed.

Enthusiasm Shown By Club Workers

Dallas—During the past week L. J. Allen, assistant state club leader, W. C. Leth, county agent, and Josiah Willis, county school superintendent, visited a number of schools throughout the county in the interest and enthusiasm at all of the places contacted. The schools visited were Airie, Buena Vista, Oak Point, Blush College, Bethel, Perrydale, Valley Junction, Gold Creek and Buell.

The annual achievement day for clubbers in the county, sponsored by the local chamber of commerce, will be staged December 3. At a noon luncheon winners of the various awards, with their parents, will be guests of the chamber to all 4-H club boys and girls who have successfully completed their work.

Bazaar Boosts Hot Lunches

Aumsville—The Parent-Teacher association held the annual bazaar in the high school gymnasium. The proceeds from the bazaar are used to serve hot lunches to the students.

The kitchen committee, serving both dinner and supper, turned in the largest amount of money which amounted to $75.

A program was held in the evening as follows: Songs, by the trio, Fern Lewis, Virginia Darby and Eleanor Davidson, accompanied by Violet Perkins; a reading, by Leonard McCoy; two songs, by the club, accompanied by Violet Perkins; saxophone solo, by Allan Gordon, accompanied by Neva Harri; a reading, by Virginia Darby; a solo, by Fern Lewis; solo, by Virginia Darby.

Evangelical Church Homecoming Attracts

Jefferson—Many out-of-town friends of the Evangelical church attended the homecoming. The list included Miss Gertrude Rehfeld of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. P. R. Koup and Beverly, and Mr. and Mrs. I. A. Welewick, Janet and Bobby of Oregon City, Rev. and Mrs. E. G. Hornschuch, Mr. and Mrs. Willard Hornschuch, Miss Grace Klampe and Velmore Klampe of Lash, Mrs. E. S. Bower, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Davidson, and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lemon of Salem, and Rev. Herbert Bennett of Corvallis.

Wood Working Club Formed at St. Louis

St. Louis—A wood work club was organized by the St. Louis teacher, Miss Richards, which any boy from 10 years of age up to the 8th grade may join.

The boys elected officers as follows: Club leader, Billy Aumand; president, Charles Ronge; vice-president, Allen Newcomer; secretary, George Rostkyus; reporter, Jean Marks; yell leader, Gene Stuser. They chose as the name of their club, the St. Louis Wood Cutters.

Kidneys Must Clean Out Acids

Excess Acids and poisonous wastes in your blood are removed chiefly thru a million tiny delicate Kidney tubes or filters. And functional disorders of the Kidneys or Bladder may cause Getting Up Nightly, Nervousness, Leg Pains, Circles Under Eyes, Dizziness, Backache, Swollen Ankles, or Burning Passages. Help your kidneys purify your blood with Cystex. Usually the very first sign starts helping your kidneys clean out excess acids, and this soon may make you feel like new. Under the money-back guarantee Cystex must satisfy completely or cost nothing. Get Cystex (also-see) today. Only so a dose at drugstore. The guarantee protects you.

BULLSEYE
The Best Entertainment.... At a Lower Price....

Motion Pictures Are Your Best Entertainment
The only theatre in town that can show you these pictures at such a low price.

New STATE LOOK Coming Soon
All the Big Hits from MGM, 20th Century Fox, United Artists, Warner Bros.

"Alexander's Ragtime Band"
with Tyrone Power, Alice Faye, Don Ameche

John Barrymore
Marjorie Jack Joan Weaver Haley Davis

'Hold That Co-Ed'

Jane Withers in "Keep Smiling"

Laurel and Hardy "Block Heads"

"ALGIERS"
Chas. Boyer, Hedy Lamarr, Sigrid Gurie

"3 Loves Has Nancy"
Janet Gaynor, Franchot Tone, Robt. Montgomery

Wallace Beery "Viva Villa"

"Mutiny on the Bounty"

"Dead End"

"San Francisco"

"David Copperfield"
The State theatre in a sincere effort to bring you the best entertainment world has to offer, appreciates your suggestions. Your request for booking of favorite stars and pictures is a great help in our attempt to bring you the pictures you want to see.

Sonja Henie "My Lucky Star"

Warner Baxter "I'll Give a Million"

Spencer Tracy Mickey Rooney "Boys' Town"

NORMA SHEARER TYRONE POWER "Marie Antoinette"

Clark Gable Myrna Loy "Too Hot to Handle"

MICKEY ROONEY "Hoosier School Boy"

Robert TAYLOR "THE CROWD ROARS" with Maureen O'Sullivan - Lionel Stander - Edward Arnold AND

"CITY GIRL"
Phyllis Brooks-Ricardo Cortez

SALEM'S STAR THEATRE STATE THEATRE

Continuous Shows SATURDAY, SUNDAY And HOLIDAYS — Matinee Daily 1:00 P. M.