College Publicist Passes Away

Santa Monica, Calif., Dec. 21 (AP)—William C. Marsh, veteran Pacific coast newspaperman who for the past 10 years was in charge of the University of California at Los Angeles news bureau, died of pneumonia at his home in Westwood yesterday. He was 52 years old.

He published a weekly at Wallowa, Ore., at one time and worked on the San Francisco Chronicle, the old Los Angeles Express and the Santa Monica Outlook before taking up his duties at U.C.L.A.

Marsh was born in Iola, Kans., and was graduated from Whitman college, in Washington. His widow and two sons, Edward C. and William H., survive.

High School Students See Christmas Program

Mt. Angel—High school students of Mt. Angel academy enjoyed a Christmas program by the senior class at the high school assembly Tuesday. The main numbers were a play and a crib scene in tableau. Featured in special numbers in the play were Virginia Meek, Mt. Angel, Bernadette Harold, Portland, Margaret Kastigar, Silverton, and Rozella Bell, Stayton. The program was followed by a Christmas treat.

Airlines Defend Livermore Suit

Spokane, Wash., Dec. 21 (U.P.)—Attorneys for Northwest Airlines attempted Tuesday to develop a theory that Joe Livermore was lured to his death two years ago by the glow of a sawmill fire at Elk River, Ida., which he might have mistaken for the lights of a town.

Mrs. Livermore is suing the airlines for $75,000 damages, claiming her husband died as a result of the company's negligence in allegedly not warning him of a storm.

VOTE ROUND-UP time has returned for William Hale "Big Bill" Thompson (above), Chicago's three-time mayor who's campaigning for GOP mayoralty nomination at Feb. 20 primary. He promises to lead the city to prosperity.

TO GOD a "worrying world" should turn, advises William Cardinal O'Connell of Boston who, at 80, is dean of American members of college of cardinals.

Jews Happy at Canadian Welcome

Vancouver, Dec. 21 (AP)—The people of Canada have given a "wonderful welcome" to a party of 115 Jewish refugees from Germany, en route to new homes in Australia, members of the group said on arrival here Tuesday.

"For the first time in nine months we are happy," the wife of a Jewish lawyer said. The party was met by about 200 members of Vancouver's Jewish colony.

"Yes, we are a free people again," her husband added. "The welcome we have received from people right across Canada convinces us we still have many friends.

"We love your country, but it is much too empty," he said. "If only you could let our people come here and develop it for you, what a fine thing that would be."

The refugees sail for Australia tomorrow aboard the Canadian-Australasian liner Niagara.

Workers Reduce Own Pay Schedule

Pittsburgh, Dec. 21 (U.P.)—A 15 per cent wage reduction affecting approximately 1,500 steel workers has been voted voluntarily by employes of the Follansbee Brothers company, with plants in West Virginia and Ohio, it was announced Tuesday.

Office workers and executives also will be affected by the wage cut. The company is being reorganized under section 77-B of the national bankruptcy act.
