Visitor in Monmouth
Monmouth—Minnie Kerns of Oakland, Calif., is a house guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Keeney. Before arriving in Monmouth the visitor's journey included a trip to Los Angeles, Boulder Dam, Albuquerque, N. M., Denver, Colo. and Portland.

On account of the shortness of time and conflicting dates the Cherrians have postponed the Nancy Thielsen concert, which was to have been held next Wednesday at Leslie auditorium.

The Carnation club will meet Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Gladys Zoff, 226 Union street.

Campus Chatter

University of Oregon—Back to the campus again after a strenuous vacation on the part of most students rose early to walk to the crowded MacArthur court for registration. Harriett Minturn was noticed waiting to see her advisor, and in the long line to pay her fees was Bertha Mae Woodage. At the Co-op was Frances Roth buying supplies. A touchy subject to many, a high grade point average is still a main objective in college, and scholastic recognition has been won by several Salem students. Jack Powers received a straight A report, while Elizabeth Steed and Bill Reason both boast better than a B.5 average.

Winter term rushing for sororities ended Saturday night. Jean Burt has pledged Gamma Phi Beta, and Barbara Williams is a pledge to Chi Omega. Both girls lived in Hendricks hall last term.

Outstanding in the news has been Verdi Sederstrom, who is head of the winter term ASUO card drive. His appointment was won through his successful efforts in previous drives.

Working with Verdi in the intensive campaign, Jean Kneass acted as secretary for the sales and also as house agent for Gamma Phi Beta.

Noticed on the sidelines at the Oregon-Washington State basketball games in MacArthur court this week-end was a trio of Salem boys, Emory Hobbs, Harvey Quistad and Bob Picketts. Bob and Emory are alumni of Phi Delta Theta.

Don Stubberville, former Salem high school student and member of Delta Tau Delta at Oregon State, was seen talking to David Compton outside the gym at half time.

Checking tickets at one game was Jim Pickett, who wore his white Skull and Dagger sweater.

Earl Maynard was busy last week planning for a dinner at the chapter house in which Sigma Chi underclassmen invited their dates Saturday night. Gupta Barbara Miller was the guest of Oliver Mackay, Sigma Chi pledge.

Campus awnings gathered at Geringer hall after Friday's game for the "Hobson Hobbes," a dance directed by Verdi Sederstrom to honor Coach Howard Hobson and the university basketball team.

Among the familiar faces seen throughout the evening were Betty Buchanan and Jim Pickett. Also present at the term's opening social event were Geneva Selander and Jean Hurley.

Helen Wiedmer and Joe Devers were noticed in the same group at the dance with Mary Frances Henderson and Chuck Phillips.

Zollie Volchok completed requirements for graduation last term and has resigned his position as educational activities manager to begin work for a Portland theatre. During his stay at the university Zollie has been active in promotional and publicity activities.

After Saturday's game Mary Yeager and Betty Hamilton danced at Willamette park. Chuck Pallette was noticed talking to Salem friends there, and Doris Drager came to the park with Jim Nicholson.
