Mrs. Gladys McIntyre Thomas, accompanied by Mrs. Gordon Finlay, will sing a group of numbers.

Mrs. R. S. Prister is serving as general chairman of the affair.

Miss Eve Knower will again review several interesting books at the Salem Woman's club book review section at the public library Wednesday afternoon. Her selection this week includes "Queen Victoria's Daughters," by Betson, Woolf's "Three Guineas," and "Our Lives Have Just Begun," by Myers.

Silverton—Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Larson entertained Sunday at a squab dinner at the Larson home. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Merl Larson of Salem and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Larson.

ARIAS seem far from the mind of shapely Lily Pons of the Metropolitan opera, vacationing at Miami Beach, Fla. She wears a moire silk taffeta suit with heart-shaped bodice. The twisted chiffon turban is in a hunter's green hue.

Comic Opera to be Presented Soon

Preparations for the comic opera, "H. M. S. Pinafore," are rapidly taking shape at Salem high school for the final production March 3. Seventy students from the opera classes will be appropriately costumed for the event. These will be assisted by a select group from the first year classes in giving balance of parts. There will be adequate instrumental accompaniment to provide color and variety.

"Pinafore" is one of the best known of the Gilbert and Sullivan operas and abounds in humorous situations and peculiar situations. The music is catchy and maintains a refreshing character throughout the entire opera. Of particular interest are the character and lines of Dick Deadeye, the villain, and the interpretation this year promises to be novel.

Miss Ola Clark is to serve as faculty manager. Warren Carlin is student manager and in charge of the advertising.

Mr. and Mrs. John Withycombe of Arlington were recent visitors in Salem.

Mrs. W. C. Franklin Hostess to Group

Wallace Road—Monday Mrs. W. C. Franklin was a charming hostess at a social afternoon given for the February meeting of the Sweet Briar club. Mrs. C. C. Chaffee presided at the brief business meeting.

Woodburn—Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Woodfin announce the engagement of their daughter, Helen Dorothea Woodfin, now of 2855 West 59th street, Los Angeles, to Charles Wilkie of St. Louis, Mo.

Mr. Wilkie is a graduate of Washington university of St. Louis and a member of Kappa Alpha fraternity. He is connected with a Los Angeles business concern. They expect to be married in June and reside in Los Angeles where Miss Woodfin is furthering her music studies. She attended Willamette university.

St. Joseph's Church Is Scene of Vows

A pretty wedding occurred at St. Joseph's Catholic church Saturday morning at 9 o'clock when Miss Betty Jane Briens, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry H. Briens, became the bride of John Francis Malone of The Dalles.

Rev. Father Bernards read the impressive service. Miss Aline Bremmer played the wedding march and Mrs. Ronald Saunders sang.

Miss Margaret Malone, sister of the bridegroom, was the bride's only attendant, and Francis Brogan, cousin of the bridegroom, acted as best man.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a floor-length dress of Eleanor blue crepe with a corsage of pink roses and pink bouvardia, and a coronet of corresponding flowers.

The bridesmaid wore rose colored taffeta with corsage of deep red roses. A wedding breakfast for the bridal party and the two immediate families was served at Godfrey's, followed by an informal reception at the home of the bride's parents at 1118 Oak street. Miss Lenore Mickel of Portland cut the bride's cake and Miss Margaret Nathman presided at the urns.

The bride was graduated from Oregon State college with the class of 1931 and has been her father's assistant in the Crown Drug store for several years.

Mr. and Mrs. Briens entertained.
