Schroeder, Richard Yates, Frank Rape, John Grout, Helmar Haraldson and G. C. Moir.

A.W.S. Sponsor Stage Show Soon

Monmouth—One of the outstanding features each year at Oregon Normal school is the stage show sponsored by the Associated Women students. This year the show will be held on the evening of February 22 in Campbell hall, starting at 8 o'clock. In keeping with the season of the year it has been called "Rain Revue."

A large black umbrella, shimmering cellophane rain and the pastel colors of a rainbow will provide the background for the umbrella man. Vance Smith of Independence, another local member will be a ballet by Martha Blair of Monmouth. The men of West House are going to present a chorus girl act. Lorna Barnham, called the nightingale of O. N. S., will sing. La Danza club will appear in a modernistic dance and the male quartet will add a note of variety in song. Ed Miller is master of ceremonies. There are but a few of the attractions which will be presented in "Rain Revue." The proceeds from the ticket sale will be used in furnishing the student room. The public is invited.

25th Anniversary Is Celebrated

Dallas—Congratulations were in order for Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Rowell when they celebrated their silver wedding anniversary February 18 with a number of relatives and friends from out-of-town points present for the occasion.

The group enjoyed a wedding dinner Sunday and Mr. and Mrs. Rowell were the recipients of many lovely gifts. The table was centered with a large wedding cake flanked by daffodils and tall yellow tapers and places were set for Mr. and Mrs. Rowell, Mrs. Muriel Hughes and Allen Rowell of Camas, Wash., Mr. and Mrs. G. E. McLain, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. McLain and Frank Rowell of Portland, Mrs. Lucille Wilmot, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Meyers and son, Richard, and Miss Violet Meyers of Salem, Mr. and Mrs. C. Walker of Yamhill, Mrs. G. V. Gentry of Vernonia, Herbert Kurze of Klamath Falls, Arthur Larson of Independence, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Cooper, Aldeen, Sumner, Donavan, Ruby and Myrtle Cooper, Miss Doris Paulk, Miss Phyllis Howard, Ted, Eugene, Maxine and Junior Rowell of Dallas.

Mrs. Ida B. Knight Is Feted Guest

Aurora—Mrs. Ida B. Knight, grand treasurer of the Rebekah assembly and member of the Canby Rebekah lodge, was honored during the past week for her past years of service. There were over 70 members and visitors present besides dignitaries of the lodge.

Those introduced as worthy of special recognition included Mrs. Alma Henderson of Salem, vice president of the Rebekah assembly; A. H. Knight, Canby, grand treasurer of the campment; Paul Schneider of Needy, grand patriot; Mrs. Ethel Meldrum of Milwaukie, past president of the Rebekah assembly; Bob Henderson of Salem, past grand representative, and James Shannon of Oregon City, past grand patriot. Mrs. Knight was presented many gifts, including one from Kirk Rebeck lodge, the P.N.G. club, and personal friends. The presentation was preceded by a flower drill put on by 10 members attired in formal of pastel shades, who presented Mrs. Knight a bouquet of American Beauty roses. At this time, a vocal solo, "For You a Rose," was sung by Mrs. George Gabriel, accompanied by Mrs. George Pope. A program of readings, music and songs followed. Refreshments were served.

SENATORIAL JOB has certain advantages, admits Sen. John H. Overton, Democrat from Louisiana, as he chats with an attractive southern girl, Marjorie Gauthier, and gives her some congressional pointers. Miss Gauthier hails from Lafayette, La., and helped the senator pass time pleasantly during an interlude at a dinner-dance of the Louisiana state society at Canby.

Church Wedding Event of Tuesday

Mt. Angel—Miss Marguerite Perayn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Perayn, became the bride of William Blem, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Blem at a pretty ceremony solemnized at St. Mary's Catholic church on Tuesday at 8:13 o'clock. Rev. Akutin Heibel, O.S.B., officiated at the high mass and read the nuptial vows before a large number of relatives and friends. The high altar was beautifully decorated with yellow roses and white candles in tall candelabra, and the sanctuary was attractively decorated with large baskets of wine colored rosebuds and laurel.

The processional and recessional wedding marches were played by the Rev. Francis Faera, O.S.B., who also presided at the pipe organ during the mass. The St. Mary's choir sang the high mass with Mrs. Clara Schroeder of Silverton singing the "Ave Maria" at the offertory, and Miss Pauline Saalfeld, "Mary at Thy Feet I'm Kneeling," after the service.

Mr. Perayn gave his daughter in marriage. The bride was lovely in her wedding gown of heavy white satin, styled on princess lines, long sleeves pointed at the wrist, petal shaped neckline, a Queen Elizabeth stand-up collar, and a long court train. She wore a long lace edged tulle veil caught about her head with a tress of seed pearls and orange blossoms, and she carried a bridal bouquet of gardenias, Joanna Hill roses, sweet peas and freesia. Mrs. Delbert Haener, the former Madeline Perayn, was her sister's only attendant. Her gown of wine colored tulle was made with fitted waist, a full three tiered bouffant skirt, rounded neckline, and short puffed sleeves. She wore a gardenia in her hair and carried an arm bouquet of Joanna Hill roses, sweet peas and freesia.

Best man for his brother was Gordon Blem. The wedding breakfast served to the bridal party followed the church ceremony at the home of Dr. and Mrs. R. O. Appleby.

At 12:30 o'clock a banquet was served at the Mt. Angel hotel with covers placed for 35 guests. A large decorated wedding cake flanked by lighted tapers and sprays of roses, freesia and sweet peas formed the centerpiece for the bride's table. A reception for members of the two families and close friends was held at the home of the bride's parents following the dinner.

Following the reception the couple left by motor on a short wedding trip. Upon their return they will live in their home in Mt. Angel. For her going away outfit the bride wore a dark green wool suit with wine accessories, a corsage of gardenias and a fox fur.

Out-of-town guests at the dinner were Mrs. and Mrs. Owen Lamm of Stayton, Mr. and Mrs. J. Haener and Alfred Haener of Independence, Miss Ruth Ketchum, University of Oregon, Eugene, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Barrett, Miss Gladys Lieda, Miss Patricia Miller, Miss Elizabeth Carter, and Miss Marie Person all of Portland, and Mrs. Bertha Dirvick of Banks, Mr. and Mrs. William Bean of Oregon City, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Kern and daughter, Helen, of Vancouver, Wash., Mr. and Mrs. E. Knapf of Salem and Lester Blem of Gaston.

Mt. Angel—Tonight the American Legion auxiliary will sponsor a card party. The proceeds will benefit the public library at Mt. Angel parish. Playing will begin at 8 p. m. in the school auditorium. Supper will be served and prizes awarded.

Aurora—Aurora post, No. 110 American Legion, went on record as favoring an auxiliary unit at the last meeting held in the K.P. hall. Plans are being made to entertain the wives, mothers, daughters and sisters at the next meeting Thursday night, February 23, when the state president of the auxiliary and other state and district officers are expected to be present to explain in detail the purpose and benefits of such a unit. It is planned to have a no-host supper preceding the meeting. All eligible members are urged to attend.

Woodburn—Mrs. A. P. Zuber was hostess at Sunday dinner for Mr. and Mrs. G. Hunt and sons, Kenneth, Alfred and Mike Hunt, Mr. and Mrs. William Thomas and Margaret Miller of Salem, Frank Kirsch, Jr., and Magdaline Koch.

Silverton—The V.F.W. Auxiliary is putting on a benefit entertainment Wednesday evening at the Armory with the public being invited to help. The proceeds will be used towards the Veterans' hospital.

Silver Cliff—The Silver Cliff Woman's club entertained with a Chinese party Tuesday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Fox. The hosts and their guests were dressed in Chinese costumes and the evening was spent in playing Chinese checkers. The rooms were lighted with Chinese lanterns.

Present were Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Krenz, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Hubbard, Mr. and Mrs. G. Towe, Mr. and Mrs. Winnie Tate and Marjorie, Mr. and Mrs. Millard Shelton, Mrs. Carrie Townsend, Miss Alice Stone, Ronald Heater, Mrs. Arthur Heater, Melvin Heater, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Fox, Floyd Fox, Jr., and Frances Fox.

Silver Cliff—Mrs. Carrie Townsend entertained the women of the Silver Cliff Woman's club Thursday afternoon. The time was spent in playing "500." The club will meet with Mrs. Paul Jaquet March 2 for its next regular meeting.

Mt. Angel—A crowded auditorium, in the Student Union building, greeted Albert Creitz, violinist, and associate concert master of the Portland Symphony orchestra, and Harry Van Dyke, accomplished pianist and instructor at Pacific University, Friday afternoon, when they gave a concert.

The concert was sponsored by Mt. Angel Academy and Normal and Mt. Angel college, and Mt. Angel orchestra, instructor in music and director of the Mt. Angel orchestra, was instrumental in bringing the artists here.

Falls City—John Qualley and Mrs. Agnes Peery were married at the Christian church parsonage at Dallas February 13 at 10:30 o'clock. Rev. O. D. Harris performed the ceremony. Guests were Mrs. E. La Duke, mother of the bride, and Mr. and Mrs. Brunwell of Eugene, cousins of the bride.

Stayton—Mrs. Vera Leach of Toledo, Wash., and Mrs. Roy Hughes and Maynard Hughes of Seattle, daughters and grandson of Mrs. Carter, returned to their homes Thursday after a week's visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ira Carter. Mrs. Carter celebrated her 80th birthday anniversary February 18.

Mt. Angel—Tuesday Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Stolle entertained at dinner for Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Masonic of Salem.
