

Winter Sports Organization Launched at Lebanon

East Linn Ski Boosters are Area Boosters

Lebanon—The East Linn Ski club, a winter sports organization whose rolls are open to either sex and all ages, was organized here Wednesday evening and Dick Reeves of Lebanon was named president. The first meeting was held by a small group of enthusiasts at the Lebanon hotel.

Although such a club has been often discussed here since the highway has opened up good ski fields, actual organization was undertaken at the request of Bud Burgess, district ranger at Cascadia, that this vicinity be represented in an advisory body which will cooperate with the forest service in working out plans for the bow in the Cascades.

In addition to Dick Reeves, the club elected Earl Williams of Sweet Home, vice-president; R. M. Handen of Lebanon, secretary; Had Irvine of Lebanon, treasurer, and Harry Miller, delegate to the advisory council. A membership committee consisting of John Summers, Jr., of Lebanon, Jack Gilbert of Sweet Home and Dr. Ralph Herron of Brownsville and Percy Strunk of Sile was appointed by President Reeves and will immediately begin to contact new members.

The organization here will be conducted along lines of similar bodies and will have an active interest in the development of the Santiam winter sports area and later will bring membership advantages such as free instruction. Erection of a shelter will also probably be undertaken and the club will be active in tournaments and arrange for trips to ski fields.

Membership dues are set at $1 for adult and 50 cents for juniors.

Mr. Isenburger, seen explaining its operation to Orchestra Leader Andre Kostelanetz, believes his X-ray is the only one practicable for field work. The interest of Mr. Kostelanetz can be traced to his enthusiasm for aviation; he holds a pilot's license.

Parking Gives City Councilmen Big Headache

Woodburn—The parking problem is still worrying the members of the city council. No relief has yet been obtained from the double parking of stages on the highway. No reply has been received to the letter written two weeks ago to the Bonneville administration asking for a speaker to come here and tell of the power situation with reference to Woodburn.

The council has agreed to have the necessary work done to install the Woodburn neon sign at a new place. The recorder has also been authorized to invite the dog catcher to Woodburn.
