

Street and Sidewalk Project Launched at Lebanon

Men Employed To Be Doubled By Contractors

Lebanon—The street and sidewalk project was launched as scheduled yesterday with 10 men employed on the initial phase of the $50,000 WPA program. The project was started on sidewalk construction on Carolina street in both directions from the intersection of Grove. Employment was expected to be doubled today.

City Recorder C. H. Witman reported property owners had made formal application asking that more than 10,000 feet of sidewalk be paved. Others were making application hourly and the recorder estimated the total number of linear feet which would be so improved would amount to better than 20,000 feet.

City officers predicted fast progress would be made on the project if the splendid weather conditions present yesterday continued.

Errecting Two Dwellings

Lebanon—Two dwellings are in the course of construction here for Elmer Fitzgerald, local business man, one a five-room residence with basement located on Grove between Carolina and Isabella streets and the other at the east end of Grant street. The latter place will be occupied by Ralph Blyeu and family who have formerly lived in a house near the site of the old shingle mill. The Grove street house will be used for rental purposes by the builder.

Noon Luncheon Success

Lebanon—Unusual success attended the Methodist church luncheon served at the Methodist church yesterday at the home of the spouses of those in charge. Proceeds of the event will be used by the guild for general church and organization expense.

Miss Calahan Honored

Lebanon—Miss Florene Calahan, who was a weekend guest at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Calahan, and returned to her position in Portland Sunday, was complimented at a birthday dinner at the Calahan home Sunday. Covers were laid for Miss Calahan, the host and hostess, Mrs. Lida Fisher, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Fisher and Fred Van Loh.

Returns From Seattle

Lebanon—Mrs. Irene Parton returned to her home here last evening after a visit of two weeks with friends at Bucoda and Seattle, Wn. In Seattle she met her son Bruce, who left there for a season in Alaska on Monday.

Playground Tagging; Club Changes Date

Hayesville—Due to the absence of President Robertson, Vernon Clark had charge of the March meeting of the Hayesville Community club.

The committee on playground equipment was held over with instructions to have definite arrangements by the next meeting.

A change in the date of the April meeting was agreed on. The date being set for the second Friday instead of the third Friday. The 4-H clubs will have charge of the program with exhibits and demonstrations being shown by the club members. Mr. Moor will have charge of the program.

Motorcycle Rider Injured on Jaunt

Silverton—Russell Aycock came home with a deep gash cut in his leg and his motorcycle slightly damaged when he chose a three-foot ditch instead of the rear of a car that stopped suddenly in front of him on the Detroit-Mill City highway, Sunday, on a sharp blind curve.

With the aid of his five motorcycle companions, the Aycock machine was brought to the road and the group continued on their Sunday jaunt past Idanha through Hogg Pass.

Young Grangers Busy

Silverton Hills—The YGA members of the grange will present several program selections on the visitation of the local organization to Butterville, March 27. Mrs. James Bonner has offered the hospitality of her home to the members for their social night of April 14. Eighteen members of the YGA were present at the C. V. Murray home Friday night when plans for a skating party at Salem were made and costumes for their drill team decided upon.

Forum Will Elect

Independence—The Chamber of Commerce will hold its semi-monthly meeting Tuesday evening in Campbell's hall. Dinner will be served by the Boosters' club of the Methodist church. Election of officers will occupy a part of the program. Mrs. Blyeu of Dallas will be a dinner guest.

Mt. Angel—The K. of C. will hold the regular meeting in the club rooms Tuesday night. All new members are expected to attend.

Crawfish and Prawns Ordered by Carload

Silverton—In the brief business meeting of the American Legion Monday night, the place of the annual crawfish feed was announced as changed from the Eagles' hall as previously reported to the building on the corner of South First and Lewis streets, formerly occupied by the Tom Anderson Motor company. The city's mayor, Mrs. Zetta Schloder, accompanied by the city council president, John H. Porter, will give the address of welcome to the guests. Four hundred dozen crawfish and 1,000 prawns are ordered for the affair of April 1, when the biggest crowd ever to attend the "feeds" is looked for.

A favorable report was made of the newly formed citizenship class that meets each Friday evening.

The flag pole for the new school building will be officially placed during the early summer.

Sheridan Eastern Star Chapter is Hostess

Sheridan—Sheridan chapter, Order of Eastern Star, entertained Newberg chapter and Electa chapter of Dayton at the regular communication. Mrs. Walter Wiese, worthy matron, presided during the chapter meeting with Clifford Coon, worthy patron, at her left.

About 65 members and guests were present. The most distinguished guest was Frank S. Baldwin, past grand patron of Newberg, Oregon. Other special guests were Dr. I. R. Root, worthy patron of Newberg chapter; Miss Lena Stillwell, worthy matron, and John G. Park, worthy patron, of Electa chapter.

Vandals Make Another Call On Print Shop

Silverton—Some merry-maker seems to have a queer sense of humor if such is in pure fun.

Three window panes in the door of the Al Schroeder Print shop were smashed late Sunday night or early Monday morning with the glass scattered entirely over the inner portion of the shop and doing much damage to the set-up work. No attempt was made to enter the shop as the damage was done to the upper part of the door.

On another occasion a few weeks ago, the shop was entered and a small amount of money taken but no damage done to the building.

The glass in the side door of the Arlie Anderson department store has been smashed several times similarly to the damage done in the Schroeder shop. No arrests have been made.

Hayesville Keeps All Its Teachers

Hayesville—At a recent meeting of the school board of district No. 99 it was voted to re-elect the same four teachers for the 1939-40 school year who are now on the teaching staff.

J. W. Kennedy will act as principal again teaching the seventh and eighth grades. This new school year will be his fifth year with the district. Mrs. Cleora Parkes, who will serve her sixth year at the school, will have the third and fourth grades; Mrs. Olive Potter, instructor of the fifth and sixth grade students, will begin her second year in the fall. Mrs. Lillian Shiner, the veteran of the teaching staff, will continue her seventh year with the primary department.

Silverton Woodmen Lebanon Visitors

Catholic Seal Sale Progresses

Stayton—The sale of Catholic Centennial souvenir buttons is well under way in the Willamette valley communities and throughout the state of Oregon this week. The button has a white background with golden letters on the outside circle reading, "Catholic Centennial, May 9 to 11." In the center the papal flag and the United States flag are crossed with "Oregon-1859-1939" in blue.

A state-wide distribution of these buttons is now in progress through the Knights of Columbus councils and the Holy Name society units. Proceeds are to be, first, for the erection of a suitable memorial, including a plaque, crucifix and frontpiece for an altar, to be erected at the place in St. Paul where the first holy mass was celebrated in Oregon by Father F. N. Blanchett, later archbishop, on January 6, 1839. The memorial is to be dedicated on May 11.

Part of the proceeds of the buttons are to be used also for payment of awards in the centenary essay contests now being conducted in the Catholic colleges and high schools in Oregon and the northwest.

Distribution of the buttons is being conducted by State Deputy Edward J. Bell of Stayton, Ore., who is also secretary of the Willamette Valley Holy Name league.

Mill City Host Teacher Institute

Mt. Angel—An interesting and well-informed speaker, Miss Lorraine Meusey of Salem, has been obtained by the intermediate section for the Teachers' Institute at Mill City next Saturday. She has chosen as her subject, "English Activities."

The intermediate association of Marion county has enjoyed a very active, interesting and worth while year so far. Several meetings have been held during which the members of the group exchanged thoughts and helpful suggestions for teaching. The next meeting of the organization will be held in the very near future at one of the Salem schools. Miss Mabel Straw of Woodburn is leader of the group.

Churches of Christ Holding Convention

Stayton—Members and friends of the Marion county Churches of Christ are looking forward to the "First Marion County Convention of Churches of Christ" to be held in the Silverton church March 28.

A special program has been prepared with "Evangelism" as the theme. Special music and prominent speakers are featured on the program.

A no-host Fellowship dinner will be held at noon and a young people's no-host supper at 5:30 o'clock. Rev. Melvin P. Traxler, Stayton, is general chairman and O. J. Hull, Salem First church, is to be the song leader.

Future Farmers Holding Banquet

Silverton—The annual FFA banquet will be this evening beginning at 7:15 o'clock at the Knights of Pythias hall with Leonard Hudson, Smith-Hughes instructor, official host.

Parents of the boys will be honored guests with more than 160 to be present.

Rex Putnam, state superintendent of public instruction, is to be the featured speaker. Supplementary selections of music will be given.

The boys of the Smith-Hughes department furnish the material for the banquet, and the girls of the home economic classes under direction of their teacher, Miss Lois Metcalf, are preparing and serving the banquet.

Work Progressing Upon PWA Projects

Albany—Three local PWA projects are reported making rapid progress in their respective constructions, according to local building officials. One is the near completion of the new $15,000 state highway commission building, erected with cooperation of PWA and under the supervision of George Waale.

The other two projects in which work is progressing in rapid fashion are the county courthouse, which will see the beginning of the third and top story soon, and the heating plant for the municipal swimming pool, completion of which is awaiting a technical readjustment in the final approval sheets.

Riverside Youngster Careless with Axe

Silverton—The C. E. Higinbothams have received word of an accident in the loss of two fingers to their nephew, Maurice Kelly, 11-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Kelly (Margaret Serfling) of Riverside, near Seio.

Maurice had been confined at home with an attack of the measles and on the first day of his release was getting some kindling wood when the axe slipped and severed the two front fingers of the left hand. An effort is being made to save the second finger by a special operation but no attempt was made to save the first finger. Miss Margaret Higinbotham is assisting at the Kelly home for the week.

The Kellys are well known here from their frequent visits with relatives.

Gervais Men Jailed

Silverton—Two young men, giving their names as Jesse Belcher and Jess Wilhoit, both of Gervais, were in the city jail Saturday night and Sunday in lieu of being able to furnish bail. Night Officer Harry Wheeler made the arrests on drunk and disorderly charges.

Legion Chaplain Main Speaker For Silverton

Silverton—Department Chaplain S. J. (Jimmy) Osborne of the McMinnville Christian church was the speaker Monday night at the celebration of the 20th anniversary of the founding of the American Legion, in the joint session of the post and unit following the separate business meetings of the two groups.

Rev. Osborne, in his talk on "Why the American Legion?" condoned and condemned the urges of the day in an outline of five points as reasons for work of the Legion. He advocated national defense as a peace measure.

Other reasons for the Legion program included the care of war veterans and providing adequate care for their families without making it necessary for signing the dotted line of pauperism by members of a soldier's family.

With Mrs. J. J. Lewis leading and Mrs. Pearl Davenport at the piano, numerous songs of 20 years ago were sung by the group around the banquet tables.

George Manolis, commander, introduced the speaker, his past commanders and Mrs. Sam Lorenzen, unit president, who in turn presented the past president who had been specially complimented in the separate meetings and were given places of honor at the tables.

Hubbard Man Is First to Fly For Aero Club

Hubbard—Willis Berkey of Hubbard is the first member of the Woodburn Aero club to take a solo flight. Berkey took his first student solo Sunday at the Salem airport where the Woodburn plane is quartered. A large number of students are taking lessons and plans are under way by the club to establish a private airport on the Virgil Wells property at West Woodburn.

Laymen's Retreat Scheduled for Year

Mt. Angel—Four retreats for laymen will be held at St. Benedict's abbey during the course of the year, according to Rev. Alcuin Heibel, O. S. B., spiritual director of the Laymen's Retreat Guild in Oregon.

Spiritual exercises for young men will be conducted from Thursday to Saturday of Holy Week, April 6-8. The second retreat for young men will probably be June 23-25.

June 16-18 is the date for the men's first retreat and the second one will be held in August.

Council Rites Are Bestowed On Candidates

Mt. Angel—Twelve new members were inducted into the Mt. Angel council of Knights of Columbus at special initiation ceremonies Sunday in St. Mary's school, and three members were reinstated. Gene McEntee of Portland was in charge of the floor work.

The new members include Gregory Frank, Francis Hamstreet, Walter Hassler, Joseph Lebold, Raymond LeDoux, Chris Lucas, Anton Penka, Hubert Saalfeld, Joseph Schaffers, Charles Wagner, Emil Wolf and Urban Wrobel. Reinstatements were Joseph Holland, Henry Humpert and William Harrahill.

Following the ritualistic work the new members were honored at a banquet in the school dining hall. W. D. Harris was toastmaster for the occasion and introduced the following speakers: Gene McEntee of Portland, past state deputy; John Beyer, grand knight of the Mt. Angel council; C. A. Suing of Salem, district deputy; Rev. John Cumiskis, O.S.B., assistant pastor, and Edward Bell of Stayton, state deputy. Miss Pauline Saalfeld and
