May 2nd Is Date Set For Benefit

Salem society is kept astir these days attending benefit affairs which are marked on the calendar as among the most important events of the season.

May 2 is the date chosen by the Salem Junior Women's club for its annual card benefit and play is being arranged for both afternoon and evening at the Woman's clubhouse in North Cottage street. Bridge, pinochle and "500" will be in play.

Mrs. Raymond Warner will serve as general chairman of the benefit. Mrs. Kenneth Barker will make arrangements for the afternoon and Mrs. Joseph Tompkins for the evening. Others serving on the executive committee are Mrs. George Fletcher, Mrs. Ray Lafky, Miss Rosamond Peterson, Miss Esther Collison, Miss Helen Thompson, Miss Marjorie Knox, Miss Beth Holcomb, Miss Eileen Mock, Miss Helen Way, Miss Betty Taylor, Miss June Jackson and Miss Ruth Nelson.

Arranging the afternoon affair, directed by Mrs. Barker, will be Mrs. Scott, Mrs. Ray Rhoten, Mrs. Harold Dunsmoor, Mrs. Frank Kraeger, Mrs. Evelyn Akers and Mrs. Alan Hubbard.

Mrs. Lewis Stanley Thursday Hostess

Presiding at a smart affair Thursday afternoon was Mrs. Lewis Stanley who invited a group of friends to her home for dessert and bridge.

White and lavender lilies formed the decorative note. Mrs. Webster Ross was honored during the afternoon in observance of her birthday anniversary. An additional guest was Mrs. J. S. Lochard.

Ann Judson Circle Has Spring Tea

Saturday afternoon the Ann Judson Mission circle of the First Baptist church sponsored a Spring tea in compliment to the senior women and friends of the church. Approximately 60 women of Salem and Eugene were in attendance.

Mrs. Roy Cates, Mrs. Glen Newland, Mrs. Clyde Crawford, Mrs. Homer Blum, Mrs. J. G. Nash and Mrs. Wilson Witt comprised the hostess group while Mrs. Irving A. Fox, Mrs. Albert Ramseyer, Mrs. Stanley Morris and Mrs. Marion Curry poured tea.

The Misses Ellen Morley and Mabel Elizabeth Fox presented each guest a tiny bouquet. The lace covered table was decorated with tulips and yellow tapers and the room was Spring-like in wild currant, Oregon grape, apple blossom, spirea and flowering almond.

The afternoon's program included pipe organ selections by Miss Minnie Miller, a group of songs by a trio which included Misses Betty Clark, Mabel Elizabeth Fox and Mary Copley, and solos by Miss Helen Dean, student at Willamette university and Mrs. Marvin Roth.

Campus "Y" Groups Hold Annual Election

Willamette University Campus "Y" organizations chose their leaders for the coming year at their annual elections held Wednesday.

During April she has visited a number of clubs in the state, among which were the Monmouth Woman's club, Rainier Woman's club, Woodburn Woman's club and Woodburn Junior club.

On April 29 she will preside at an all day meeting of the board of the state federation to be held in the Congress hotel in Portland. The executive committees meet in the morning and will be joined at noon for a luncheon by the chairman of departments and divisions. Followed by a business session.

Children's Welfare Concern of Auxiliary

Interest of the American Legion auxiliary's one-half million members is being centered on the welfare of American children during April, according to Mrs. Onas Olson, child welfare chairman of the Capital unit of the auxiliary here.

April is child welfare month in the auxiliary's calendar of activities, when special emphasis is given to the organization's child welfare work and when plans are developed for the year's efforts in behalf of needy children.

The auxiliary's efforts are being centered on three subjects this year, namely:

1. Conservation of the child's own home for the child, through improved use of the aid to dependent children under the social security act.
2. Eradication of congenital (Concluded on Page 11)

How Women in Their 40's Can Attract Men

Here's good advice for a woman during her change (usually from 36 to 40), who fears she'll lose her appeal to men, who worry about lost beauty, loss of pep, dim spots, upset nerves and moody spells. Just get more fresh air, 5 hrs. sleep and if you need a reliable "WOMAN" tonic take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made especially for women. It helps Nature build up physical resistance, thus helps give more vivacity to enjoy life and assist relieving jittery nerves and those disturbing symptoms that often accompany change of life. Pinkham's is WELL WORTH trying.

Smart Dinner Party Calendared for Tonight

A charmingly arranged dinner will be given this evening at 7 o'clock at the Salem General hospital with members of the nursing staff acting as hostesses for the affair. A green, orchid and yellow color scheme will be used in the decorations, combined with attractive arrangements of Spring flowers. Miss Marna Moberg will serve as toastmistress and Miss Elizabeth Smith will give a reading.

A highlight of the evening will be the showing of motion pictures of India by Dr. W. Weils Baum, who recently returned from an extended stay there.

Hill-Billy Dance Attraction Tonight

Of much interest this evening is the "Hill-Billy" barn dance to be given by Englewood Parent-Teacher association for the benefit of the Salem Federal Art Center. The dance will be held in the school and those attending are requested to wear old clothes.

Mr. Jaquith has arranged for the Mitchell orchestra to play and Mrs. George Stephens will be in charge of the game room.

Others serving on committees are Mrs. Glen Hoar, Mrs. L. B. Farnam, Mrs. Ethel Randall, Mrs. Carol Blake, Mrs. Dorothy Middleton, Mrs. Dorothy Dougherty and Mrs. L. Elbert. Mrs. Blanche Gentzenberg is general chairman.
