Flag Day Ceremonies At Champoe

Flag day will be observed by the Daughters of the American Revolution with a picnic at the memorial cabin at Champoe Wednesday.

A business meeting, conducted by Mrs. Gilbert E. Holt of Pendleton, state regent, will be held at 10 o'clock, attended by board members from many parts of Oregon.

The program which will follow has been arranged by Mrs. William Campbell, state chairman of the committee for the correct use of the flag. Reports of the national society's continental congress held in Washington, D. C., in April will be given.

At the close of the program the board members will attend the dedication ceremonies, at which Champoe chapter of Newberg will mark the grave of Ewing Young, first American settler in Yamhill county.

Mrs. V. E. Newcomb is in charge of transportation for Salem members. Those wishing transportation should call her at 5252.

Felicitations are being extended to Mr. and Mrs. Norval Edwards upon the birth of a son, Berton Varley Edwards, at the Bungalow Maternity home Tuesday, June 13. Mrs. Edwards will be remembered as Roberta Varley. The little boy weighed eight pounds.

Brown Family at Dinner Party

Mr. and Mrs. Lott Brown of Baker, formerly of Salem, were honored at dinner last night when their daughters, the Misses Margaret and Helen Brown, entertained.

Other guests were daughters of the honored guests. It was the first time in five years the family has been together.

Covers were placed for Mr. and Mrs. Brown, Mrs. Edward Geiser of Jordan Valley, Mrs. Clifford Jenkins of Klamath Falls, Miss Beverly Brown of Portland and the hostesses, Miss Margaret and Miss Helen Brown.

Couple Returns From Honeymoon

Being warmly welcomed are Mr. and Mrs. Paul N. Gibson of Salem, who have returned from a week's honeymoon in San Francisco, where they visited the Exposition and other points of interest.

The couple was married at an impressive service held at the Immanuel Lutheran church in Portland at 8 o'clock the morning of June third in the presence of the two families. A wedding breakfast was served at the Heathman hotel and later the couple left by plane for the south.

Mrs. Gibson was Miss Ellen Polson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Polson of Portland, preceding her marriage. Mr. Gibson is the son of Mr. and Mrs. V. L. Gibson of Salem.

The couple is at home for the summer at 735 North Commercial street.

Arvella Kubin Honored Sunday

Mr. and Mrs. Fred W. Kubin surprised their daughter, Arvella, last Sunday when they entertained at a dinner at their home in her honor.

The rooms were decorated with yellow and red roses. The centerpiece was of pink roses flanked with white tapers in crystal holders.

Places were laid for Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Horky of Albany, Mr. and Mrs. William A. Cladek, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Stevens of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Edles and daughters, Corabelle and Diana Mae, of Lebanon, Mr. and Mrs. George Patney and daughters, Carolyn and Betty Anne, of Seilo, Miss Jeanne Cladek, Miss Gladys May Horky, Miss Mary Dale Cladek, Miss Arvella Rose Kubin and Mr. and Mrs. Fred W. Kubin.
