Detectives Work To Segregate Loot

Portland, July 21 (AP)—Detectives who arrested three young men and a girl for robbery worked with coats off Thursday to segregate scores of articles for persons who said they were victims of about 20 pillowtop robberies.

The articles—household goods, sports equipment, clothing, radios, clocks and a wide range of miscellaneous items—were recovered at a southwest Portland house where Lewis LaFollett lived alone.

An 18-year-old girl, Frances Lewis, Eugene Kingsley, 19, and Leroy Dolson, 18, were held with LaFollett on burglary charges. Police accused them of raiding homes and carrying away articles in pillowtop.

Deputy District Attorney Tom Work filed complaints against LaFollett, Dolson and Miss Lewis after their arrest Wednesday. De-
