Miss Barr Honored at Dinner Party

Visitors continue to be the incentive for much informal entertaining in Oregon's capital. Miss Ruth Moore entertained with a smartly arranged dinner at the Golden Pheasant last night honoring Miss Marjory Barr of Petaluma, Calif. Miss Moore and Miss Barr met several seasons ago on an Australian cruise.

The attractive table was centered with an arrangement of hydrangeas, Coral Bells and larkspur. Australian and American flags were placed at either end of the table.

Covers were placed for Miss Barr, the honored guest, Miss Ila Austin, Mrs. Susan Varty, Mrs. Mona Yoder, Miss Velma Taylor, Miss Edna McElhaney, Mrs. B. L. Bradley, Mrs. Arthur Moore and the hostess, Miss Ruth Moore.

Later bridge was in play at the Moore apartments with honors going to Miss Austin and Mrs. Bradley. A guest prize was presented Miss Barr.

Barbara Anderson Announces Betrothal

One of the delightful surprise events of this week was the affair at which Miss Barbara Anderson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William B. Anderson, of Salem, announced her engagement to William G. Neuschwanger, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Neuschwanger, of McMinnville.

Miss Frances Wichert and Miss Nedra McCall were hostesses for the party which was given at the home of Miss Wichert in McMinnville. The announcement of the coming betrothal was cleverly concealed within the individual cakes served at the close of the evening. No date was disclosed for the wedding.

The invitational list included Misses Golda Atkins, Wilma Russell, Grace Layton, Alice Schaeffer, Alene Boswell, Irene Vaughn, Muriel Stoutenberg, Sigrid Heinonen, Catherine Anderson, Janet Anderson and Naomi Hyder.

Miss Amanda Schwabbauer is entertaining Mr. and Mrs. Mike Sampson of Fort Dodge, Iowa, as her house guests.

Edwin Minneman to Marry Miss Ella May Morris Sunday

Willamette University Campus—Of much interest to the college circle is the approaching marriage of Miss Ella May Morris, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George J. Morris of Medford, and Edwin Minneman, son of Rev. and Mrs. Amos E. Minneman of Salem, which will be an event of Sunday at 12:15 o'clock at the Christ Lutheran church. The ceremony will be performed before an altar banked with white gladioli and flanked on either side by tall candelabra with white candles, with Mr. Minneman's father, Rev. Amos E. Minneman, officiating.

Miss Morris has asked Miss Stella Minneman, sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Elsie Sharp to be her attendants, and John Voss will act as best man for Mr. Minneman. Ushers will be Mr. Minneman's brothers, John Minneman and Amos E. Minneman, Jr.

The bride, who will be given in marriage by her father, will wear a white georgette gown with a square neckline and fashioned with sheared bodice and sleeves and full skirt with a short train. Her long tulle veil will be caught with a coronet of rose blossoms and she will carry a bouquet of light pink rosebuds and lilies-of-the-valley.

The bridesmaids will wear matching dresses of sheer pink fashioned with a tight bodice with a square neck, full sleeves and full skirt. They will wear Juliet caps of pink velvet ribbon and carry nosegays of pink roses and white sweetpeas.

The bride's mother will wear a dusty rose lace dress with darker rose accessories and Mrs. Minneman will wear a blue print dress with navy accessories.

Immediately following the wedding ceremony a wedding breakfast will be held at the Argo hotel with the wedding party and immediate members of the family in attendance after which the couple will leave for a wedding trip up the Oregon and Washington coasts.

For going away the bride has chosen a dark grey tailored suit with a white lace blouse and white accessories.

Following their wedding trip the couple will make their home in Yakima where Mr. Minneman is branch manager for the Oregonian.

Both Miss Morris and Mr. Minneman are graduates of Willamette university, where they were prominent in student activities.

Miss Morris was a member of the Beta Chi sorority and a member of Little Theatre.

Mr. Minneman was assistant editor of the college paper and a member of Tau Kappa Alpha, Theta Alpha Phi and Blue Key. Last year he studied at the Harvard Divinity school where he was awarded a scholarship.
