Red Sox to Meet Albany for Semi-Pro Ball Pennant

Oaks Eliminate Hills Creek in Semi-final Mix

Silverton's undefeated Red Sox, who moved into the final bracket of the state semi-pro tourney under way at McGinnis field, will face the Albany Oaks, their most feared opponent, for the meet title tomorrow night.

Roy Helser, one of the leading chuckers of the tournament, probably will be on the hill for Silverton with Del "Squeak" Wilson doing the tossing for Albany.

The Oaks moved into the final bracket last night by taking the Hills Creek aggregation into camp by an 8 to 2 score. The semi-final contest found the Hillbillies playing the worst brand of ball they have exhibited all tournament and it came at a time when Elliott, on the mound for Albany, was particularly "hot." The Oak's chucker whiffed 15 of the Hillbillies. The losers booted four afield which counted for several of the Albany scores.

Sox Castoffs Hit Fast Pace

By Bill White
(Associated Press Sports Writer)

Wonder what kind of Super-Ethyl gas Jimmy Dykes is using in that White Sox machine of his?

The Chicagoans, in case you've been busy watching the Yankees, have won 15 of their last 19 games, have risen from the depths of fifth place to a challenging position in what is left of the American league race, and are just three and one half games back of the runner-up Boston Red Sox.

Until two days ago the Sox hadn't been able to shut out an opponent but now they are boasting about a pair of whitewashing jobs.

The second consecutive one came yesterday and the Red Sox were the victims by a 4-0 score as Thornton Lee turned in a nine-hit job that was backed up by four neatly executed double plays. Red Ruffing's four-hit pitching, for his 13th win of the year, was more impressive than the fact the Yanks got 13 hits and threatened to bust loose any minute.

Bobby Estalella helped Washington to an 8-7 victory and a sweep of the series over the Detroit Tigers when he banged a home run in the eighth with a mate aboard. Four-base blows by Hank Greenberg, Earl Averill and Roy Cullenbine couldn't match, in effectiveness, the Estalella round-tripper.

In the other American league tussle, Mel Harder of Cleveland had to pitch himself out of a lot of trouble before he came up with a 3-2 decision over the stubborn Philadelphia Athletics.

The National league had only two games to offer but both were important in the general scheme of things.

The Pittsburgh Pirates, not feeling a bit sorry for the battered Giants, jumped from sixth to fourth place by virtue of their 8-4 victory over the taped-up terriers. That shoved the New Yorkers down to fifth place, just a game and a half out of sixth.

Elbie Fletcher of the Pirates homered in the seventh with two on base. The defeat was the New Yorkers' sixth straight, their longest losing streak of the campaign.

The Boston Bees offered an unbeatable combination in stopping the Cubs again, this time 2-1

Tiger Club Recalls Freddie Hutchinson

Detroit, July 21 (AP)—Walter O. Briggs, Jr., vice-president of the Detroit baseball club, announced today Freddie Hutchinson had been recalled by the Detroit Tigers and would report next Monday.

The Tigers purchased Hutchinson from the Seattle Pacific Coast league club at the end of last season and after a brief introduction to major league baseball he was farmed out to Toledo to regain his control. He won nine and lost eight while playing with the tail end American Association team.

The free press story said Hutchinson would be used as a starting pitcher upon his return to the Tigers.

Pheasants vs. Corvallis.

Lead in the softball tangle, which has remained in the undisputed possession of the Square Deal aggregation since the start of the season, will be decided Monday night when the radiomen meet the oncoming Waits club, now tied for first place. The meatmen moved up in the standings last night when they defeated the Kennedy Cleaners by a 10 to 3 count. While Waits were moving up into a tie with the leaders, the defeat shoved the cleaners into a cellar tie with the Papermakers.

The nightcap of the card at Sweetland field last night found the Pade-Barrick girls on the long end of a 12 to 3 count in the battle against the WOW team of Portland. After the visitors tallied a single in the first the local lassies came back with an eight run barrage on seven hits in the home half. They tallied in all but the fifth inning.

Waits was lagging at the start when the youngsters scored two counts in the second inning, bunching three bingles off the delivery of George Roth. The meatmen came back in the third, however, scoring three times and added pairs in the fourth and fifth and topping off the evening with three more in the seventh.

Coos, Douglas Best Fishing

Portland, July 21 (AP)—Coos and Douglas counties were the favored lands in Oregon for fishermen this week-end, according to the game commission's weekly prospectus.

Angling was fair throughout the state.

Linn county—Fishing good in most streams, fair catches made in Santiam and Calapooya rivers, limit takes in Quartzville fork of Santiam on salmon eggs. Clear, Parish and Daly lakes all excellent.

Curry—Salmon trolling on Rogue improving slightly, trout fishing fair. Trout biting well in other streams with the Chetco a favorite. Steelhead not yet taking flies.

Douglas—Diamond lake yielding limit catches on flashers and worms as well as flies. Steelhead fly fishing reaching its summer peak on North Umpqua, South Umpqua low and poor. Fish and Buckeye lakes yielding excellent catches.

Jackson—Bait fishing in Upper Rogue and tributaries very good. A few salmon and steelhead taking spinners. Small trout and occasional steelhead taking flies near Grants Pass.

Klamath—Crescent lake fair, Miller lake poor. Stream trout taking flies well.

Baker—Fishing good in all sections, with Eagle creek and West Eagle lake yielding excellent catches.

Oregon Stars Annex Honors In 2 Classes

Veterans showed the way to youngsters in the opening 200 target 16 yard event at the Ninth Annual Pacific International Trapshoot and World's handicap at the Salem Gun club yesterday. The young champions, however, gave notice they will be keen competitors for the world title event today.

Helen Odell, of LaGrange, Cal., youthful California women's champion, was the only one of the younger shooters to come through for wins on the opening day. She totaled 174 targets, shooting in a brisk wind, to capture both the Class D and the women's championship events. She was crowded for the honor however, by Shirley Nusom, of Quincy, Oregon.

S. G. Mendenhall, of Grants Pass, picked off the main trophy of the day when he defeated Ernest Carstens, Sr., of Camino, Cal., in the shootoff for first place in the opening 200 target 16 yard event. Both shooters finished the regulation rounds with scores of 198 and both broke 25 birds in the first shoot-off but Carstens droped one target in the second 25.

In defeating Carstens for the honor, Mendenhall posted the highest unbroken run with 178 targets. Carstens, who is the father of the present world champion, broke 116 straight for the second highest run and Earl E. Troeh, capturing the high professional score, cracked 113 straight.

G. P. Stone, of Modesto, Cal., grabbed the top honors in the Class B division with a score of 196 and W. H. Wolf, of Salem, gained first place in the Class C event with a mark of 191 to give Oregon its only other division title.

Low Score Wins Washington Cup

Tacoma, July 21 (AP)—Stan Leonard, Vancouver, B. C., professional, won the Washington Golden Jubilee open golf tournament yesterday by covering 36 holes in seven under par for a score of 133.

He was four strokes ahead of Emery Zimmerman, Portland pro, who fired a 137 over the Allenmore course.

The Rev. Fr. James A. Hamilton, assistant pastor of a Tacoma Catholic church, who plays golf only occasionally, won the amateur title and tied for third in the open play with a score of 139. He shared third honors with Chuck Congdon, Tacoma, defending professional champion.

Harold West, Chehalis pro, and two amateurs, Bon Van De Mark of Tacoma, and Bud Haskell of Olympia, tied for fourth with cards of 140.

Three tied for the amateurs' low net prize at 132 strokes—Van De Mark, Larry Stanley of Seattle and Max Jensen, Tacoma.

Harry Givan, Seattle, defending amateur champion, came in with a 146.

New Zealand now has 25 aerodromes.

Bearded Stars To Battle Sox

Silverton—Beginning in a lighter vein following the rather nerve-tensed wind-ups of the semi-pro tourney of the past two and a half weeks, will be the appearance on McGinnis field Tuesday, July 25, of the Bearded House of David opposing the Silverton Red Sox, in a night game beginning at 8:30.

The Davidites are the greatest traveling team touring the United States with the same "pepper game" trio, Tucker, Tally and Anderson, which is well worth the price of admission.

They also play a bang-up game of baseball and are beaten very seldom, having met the best of amateur and professional ball clubs in the United States and Canada.

The elongated John Tucker, with his big mitt, is still playing first base in major league style and has been with the House fo David club for 16 years. Andy Anderson, who plays third base, has 12 years' service, and "Doc" Tally has spent 26 years with the organization.

Most of the Davidites wear long beards and some of them have hair that reaches to their waists. The club is no doubt the greatest baseball attraction of all with its comic antics, good sportsmanship and big league style of playing.

The House of David team was here two years ago and drew the largest crowd in the state and will really put on a night open-air show that is well worth seeing.

Harry Todd Favored In Big Golf Match

Colorado Springs, Colo., July 21 (U.P.)—Harry Todd of Dallas, who a week ago entered the western amateur golf tournament as a dark horse but won the championship today, was favored to annex the 39th annual trans-Mississippi title.

He faced Ray Lowell, Jr., of Colorado Springs who yesterday eliminated hard-shooting defending champion Ven Savage of Salt Lake City.

Ed Kingsley of Salt Lake City meets John Barnum of Edinburgh, Texas. Don Schumacher of Dallas survived the third round with an easy four and three victory over Don Kennedy of Stanford and today meets Chick Harbert of Battle Creek, Mich.

Record Crowd Helps Seattle

(By Associated Press)

A crowd of 16,780 paying customers, a record in Seattle baseball history, watched their hometown Rainiers cling to a game and a half lead in the Pacific Coast league race by nosing out Oakland in the 12th inning last night. The Rainiers beat the sixth-place Oaks, 3 to 2, as Catcher Gilly Campbell cracked a line drive into right field to score Shortstop Alan Strange in the third extra frame.

The big feature at the Seattle park was Al Schacht, the major league comedian, and thousands were turned away before game time.

San Francisco's Seals, meantime, climbed back into their usual third-place berth by beating San Diego, 7 to 3, at San Francisco, as Sacramento was dropping a 4 to 3 decision to Los Angeles at the Angels' park.

Win Ballou, the Seals' veteran curve-ball artist, kept the Padres under control throughout, giving up only seven hits. It was the first start for Ballou this season. He is ordinarily used in a relief capacity only.

Back on the mound after a three-weeks' layoff because of injury, Julio Bonetti, the league's leading pitcher, twirled his 13th victory against two defeats as the Angels stopped the rampant Solons.

At Portland, Manager Bill Sweeney won a ball game for his last-place Beavers, singling with two out in the ninth to score Eddie Wilson with the run that gave them an 8-7 win over Hollywood.
