

W.C.T.U. Convention Comes To Close at Banquet Friday

The 58th annual convention of the Oregon Woman's Christian Temperance Union came to a close last night in the First Methodist church after a four-day session in Oregon's capital city.

She will give the following program: Chorus from Orationa... Bestiario "The Mount of Olives"...

Salem Boy Draws Fine Comment

Byron Randall, Salem boy who has "made news" in eastern art circles, is the subject of an interesting article in the October 16 issue of Newsweek.

In the spring Randall headed east by bus with a letter in his pocket from Mr. Clear to Duncan Phillips, director of the Phillips Memorial gallery in Washington.

K. C. K. T. Club Is Entertained

Mrs. Hattie Given entertained Thursday afternoon for members of the KCKKT club. Halloween decorations were used.

Anniversaries are Celebrated Recently

Monmouth—Mrs. W. C. Hill and Mrs. Fred Vaughan entertained Tuesday evening at the Vaughan home in West Main street.

Woodburn Juniors Elect Delegates

Woodburn—A social meeting and Halloween party were held Wednesday night by the Junior Women's club.

Guest night will be observed at the next meeting, November 1 and the committee in charge includes Helen Muller, program chairman; Marjorie Paulson, hostess chairman; assisted by Marie Strike, May Breed and Mary Jackson.

Oak Point—The Independence Rural Women's club will meet at the home of Mrs. E. O. Brown Tuesday afternoon.

Bib 'n' Tucker

(Continued from Page 5)

requesting that bouquets be attached to their umbrellas. . . . Others want matching corsages on their fur bonnets or on the broad shoulder lines of their swaggy fur coats.

As to the future of the temperance campaign, Mrs. Smith declared that "unless we rise now to attack the liquor trade, it will grow ever stronger. The ballot is our great weapon, but we must continue the program of education to the last day."

Mrs. W. A. Barkus was general chairman of the convention and assisting her on the hostess committee were Mrs. A. W. Metzger, Mrs. B. E. Olsen, Mrs. Mason Bishop, Mrs. C. W. Stacey, Mrs. Fred Toose, Jr., Mrs. J. J. Nunn and Mrs. Lena Lisle.

Play Chosen For Homecoming

Willamette University Campus—"The Arms and the Man," a satire by George Bernard Shaw, is the play chosen by Theta Alpha Phi, national dramatic organization at Willamette.

Mrs. Anna Scholl Hostess Thursday

Hubbard—The Pink and Lavender club met at the home of Mrs. Anna Scholl Thursday afternoon. The quiz was won by Mrs. E. S. Wolfer and the bingo game by Mrs. Joe Jacoby.

V. F. W. Auxiliary Visits Silvertown

The district meeting of the Veterans of Foreign Wars auxiliary was held in Silvertown Wednesday, October 18. Those attending from Salem were Mrs. Leon Hansen, Mrs. Axel Jacobsen, Mrs. Clyde Crawford, Mrs. Onas Olson, Mrs. Bertina Clark, Mrs. Elvira Beard, Mrs. Edie Wetzel, Mrs. Mary Ringwald, Mrs. Zoe McCormick, Mrs. Ora Furlough, Leola M. Dumas, Mrs. Ellen Goodman, Mrs. Ward Wolfe, Mrs. William Rust, Mrs. Caroline Free, Mrs. Charles Norton, Mrs. Lester Davis, Mrs. Gerald Gullion.

20th Anniversary Is Celebrated

Mt. Angel—Mr. and Mrs. Paul Simon were honored on the occasion of the 20th anniversary of their wedding when a large number of relatives and friends gathered at their home for an evening of cards, followed by a supper.

Reception Held At Lebanon

Lebanon—A stellar social event of this week was the reception at which the members of the Fellowship Guild entertained in honor of women of the faculty, wives of faculty members and wives of board of education members at the home of Mrs. J. Harold Irvine Wednesday afternoon.

Mehama Club Sponsors Tea

Mehama—The Mehama Woman's club sponsored a silver tea at the home of the president, Mrs. Ercelle Wilson, Wednesday afternoon. Members called from the Lyons and Howell Beaches clubs.

Present for the meeting were Mrs. Rex Kinney, Mrs. Ed Burgess, Mrs. Ira Kirsch, Mrs. Eilwyn Erickson, Mrs. William Evans, Mrs. Charlie Crook, Mrs. Elizabeth Hughes, Mrs. Giles Wagner, Mrs. Russell Wilson, Mrs. Frank Dako and Mrs. Ercelle Wilson.

National Sorority to Hold Convention Here

Willamette University Campus—Delegates from five chapters of the Delta Tau Gamma sorority will be guests of the Willamette chapter next week-end when the group gathers on the Willamette campus for its ninth annual national convention.

Presides At Session—Miss Virginia Bendiksen, national president of Delta Tau Gamma, national sorority for independent women, who will preside at the national convention to be held on the Willamette university campus October 27-28.

Marriage Saturday Of Interest

Miss Mildred Leighton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Leighton, became the bride of Henry Query, son of Mrs. C. D. Query, at a ceremony solemnized at 7:30 o'clock last Saturday evening at the Nebraska street residence of the bridegroom's brother, Floyd Query.

The altar was graced with white dahlias and cathedral tapers. Immediate members of the two families witnessed the service.

Cheerio Bridge Club Honored

Mrs. Walter Nelson entertained Thursday evening for members of the Cheerio Bridge club. Prizes for high score went to Mrs. Albert J. Walker and Mrs. Everett Anderson.

Mrs. Query is a graduate of Oregon College of Education and Willamette university. She is a member of the Grant school faculty. Mr. Query is a graduate of Salem schools and is now connected with the Oregon state highway department.

Altruistic Club At Sibley Home

Dallas—Members of the Altruistic club were entertained at the home of Mrs. J. R. Sibley Wednesday evening when the Halloween theme was used in the decorations about the guest rooms where the business meeting was held followed by several hours of cards. Mrs. Mary Starr was assistant hostess.

Mrs. Don Teal Hostess to Group

Dallas—A social club, the T.G.T. club, was organized by several members of the William T. Sherman G.A.R. circle Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Don Teal.

Reception Held At Lebanon

Lebanon—A stellar social event of this week was the reception at which the members of the Fellowship Guild entertained in honor of women of the faculty, wives of faculty members and wives of board of education members at the home of Mrs. J. Harold Irvine Wednesday afternoon.

Mehama Club Sponsors Tea

Mehama—The Mehama Woman's club sponsored a silver tea at the home of the president, Mrs. Ercelle Wilson, Wednesday afternoon. Members called from the Lyons and Howell Beaches clubs.

Present for the meeting were Mrs. Rex Kinney, Mrs. Ed Burgess, Mrs. Ira Kirsch, Mrs. Eilwyn Erickson, Mrs. William Evans, Mrs. Charlie Crook, Mrs. Elizabeth Hughes, Mrs. Giles Wagner, Mrs. Russell Wilson, Mrs. Frank Dako and Mrs. Ercelle Wilson.

Campus Chatter

by Frances Roth

University of Oregon—In spite of making more contacts than an aviator's assistant, the majority of co-eds were glad to close the doors on "open house" Saturday night, after a fatiguing evening of dancing.

Seen "sitting one out" were Jean Kneass and Dale Shepherd while Bill Mudd danced with Peggy Myll. Plans for homecoming are under way and George Arbuckle has been appointed fraternity chairman for the noise parade and hopes to start things out with a bang.

The Saturday morning business session will open with a breakfast for all Delta Tau Gamma members and alumnae at Schmieder's Coffee shop. The group will then adjourn to Lausanne hall for a business session and Saturday noon they will be guests of the Delta Tau Gamma Mothers' club at a luncheon at Chresto Cottage.

The final social event for the entertainment of the guests will be the formal banquet and dance in the Mirror room of the Marion hotel for all members of Delta Tau Gamma, alumni of the sorority, members of the Mothers' club and patronesses of the sorority.

Mrs. Dick Tatro, president of the Willamette chapter, will be toastmistress for the dinner and Miss Mary Mahoney of Portland will be the main speaker. Other numbers on the program will include a violin solo by Miss Carol Johnson, a group of songs by a trio composed of Miss Barbara Jones, Miss Ruth Jones and Miss Gertrude Cannell and short talks by the national officers of the sorority.

Miss Rosella Kielber Honored at Party

Members of the Allen Cannery staff entertained with a surprise shower Thursday evening honoring Miss Rosella Kielber, whose marriage to Steve Washburn is an event of today. The party was given at the home of the bride-elect in Nebraska street.

Those present were Miss Kielber and her mother, Mrs. J. Kielber, Mrs. W. G. Allen, Mrs. Mae Abbe, Mrs. Tiny Hams, Mrs. Helen Schroeder of Dallas, Miss Dorothy Williams, Mrs. Gayle Redmond, Mrs. Ellen Hart, Mrs. Agatha Hale, Mrs. Margaret Rice, Mrs. Polly Perkins, Miss Violet Kielber, Mrs. Clarence Disney, Mrs. Ray Porgy, Mrs. William Thompson and Mrs. H. K. Kelly.

Woodburn Garden Club Meets Monday

Woodburn—A. L. Peck, head of the landscape department of Oregon State college, will speak to the Woodburn Garden club at its regular meeting Tuesday evening at the library club rooms. He will also show his colored slides of European gardens.

There will also be a chrysanthemum display by the club members and any one having chrysanthemums is invited to bring them for display whether or not they are members of the club. Roll call will be answered with "musts for fall gardening."

Hostesses will be Mrs. Jeanette Zimmerman, Mrs. James Livesay and Mr. and Mrs. George Jones.

Keizer Garden Club Honored

Keizer—The Garden club was entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Irvine on Thursday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Cummings assisting hosts. In the absence of the president, Mrs. M. S. Bunnell, Mrs. Curtis Cole presided during the business meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Baxter of the Beacon Bulb Farm, exhibited many varieties of beautiful dahlias and Mr. Baxter spoke concerning their culture. After his lecture, he and Mrs. Baxter graciously presented the flowers to the club members.

During the social hour, refreshments were served by Mrs. Irvine and Mrs. Cummings, with Miss Betty Irvine and Mrs. H. M. Broadbent and Mrs. David Saucy assisting. Mr. and Mrs. Joe Bartruff invited the club to meet at their home in November.

Lyons—Mrs. Charles Johnston entertained a group of young people with a dinner party in honor of her daughter, Rena, on her 18th birthday anniversary. Covers were placed for Miss Rena Johnston, Miss Zola Surry, Miss Cieta Crabtree, Miss Virginia Johnson, Arthur and Earl Bassett, all of Lyons, Bob and P. D. Van Ausdell and Hiram Amick of Salem, and Frances Boteker of Mill City.

Turner—Mrs. Frances Bell Delzell, who lived for many years on the farm now occupied by Gordon Hann southwest of town, announces her marriage October 10 to I. L. Mirels. The couple will make their home in Fullerton, California, for the present.

Catholic Daughters Have Fine Session in Eugene

Court of the Catholic Daughters of America, Court Capital City, No. 245, was well represented in Eugene last Sunday, October 15, when Court Oregon, No. 118, celebrated its 30th anniversary and honored Mrs. Nellie Franzwa, who is spoken of as the "Mother of the Courts west of the Rockies," for her zeal and influence in the early days in starting the Order in Oregon and her untiring interest in its progress in the last thirty years.

A luncheon was served in the parish rectory at noon for the visiting ladies from Portland, Salem, Mt. Angel and Klamath Falls, presided over by Rev. F. P. Leipzig. The afternoon was spent in receiving a large class of candidates into the order, followed by a banquet at 6:30 o'clock in the Osburn hotel. An interesting program was given under the direction of Rev. D. P. Curley, toastmaster.

Speakers for the evening were Mrs. Mary Costello, Grand Regent of Court Oregon, No. 118, who expressed the greetings of her court to the guests present; Mrs. Nellie Franzwa spoke on the Catholic Daughters of Yesterday; Mrs. Clara Brabee, state regent, outlined the activities of the Catholic Daughters of Today, followed by closing remarks by Rev. F. P. Leipzig. Music was furnished by St. Mary's String ensemble, harp solos by Charles Granzer and vocal solos were rendered by Dale Cooley.

Those motoring from Salem to attend the celebration were Mrs. Clara Brabee, state grand regent, Mrs. Maude Roque, grand regent of Court Capital City, No. 245, Mrs. Anne Merten, Mrs. Margaret Diemer, Mrs. Frances Mahala, Mrs. Margaret Innocenti, Mrs. Olga Hargrave, Mrs. Philippa Kreiter and Mrs. Mary G. Rademacher. They were accompanied by Mrs. Ottilia Zollner, district deputy, and Mrs. Mary LeDoux of Mt. Angel.

Refreshments will be served by the fifth grade mothers with Mrs. L. J. Sparks and Mrs. C. Ward Davis in charge.

Englewood P.T.A. Meets Tuesday

Englewood Parent-Teacher association will meet Tuesday evening at the school. Rooms will be open at 7:30 o'clock and the business session will start at 8 o'clock with L. L. Moore presiding. Walter Snyder, curriculum coordinator for the Salem public schools, will be the speaker. Watson Dutton will give vocal numbers, accompanied by Miss Olive Clemes.

Radio Programs Listed Today

A variety of splendid radio entertainment is billed for the week-end pleasure of radio listeners. Of particular interest are the programs listed below:

7-8-30-NBC Symphony. Arturo Toscanini, conductor; soloists, Mischa Mischakoff, violinist, and Frank Miller, cellist. Classical. Mrs. O. Prokofiev. Prokofiev Double Concerto for Violin and Cello. Brahms. Strone. Sunday KOIN.

Salem Golfers Meet Friday

Mrs. Sphus Starr was awarded first place in A class and Mrs. Milton Parker, Mrs. Kenneth Potts and Mrs. Ed Gillingham tied for first place in B class Friday morning during regular Women's Day play at the Salem Golf club.

Harry Patton Feted Recently

A surprise birthday party for Harry Patton was given at his home in Lee street Saturday night by a group of friends. The rooms were decorated with autumn leaves and fall flowers.

Keizer Garden Club Honored

Keizer—The Garden club was entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Irvine on Thursday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Cummings assisting hosts. In the absence of the president, Mrs. M. S. Bunnell, Mrs. Curtis Cole presided during the business meeting.

Altruistic Club At Sibley Home

Dallas—Members of the Altruistic club were entertained at the home of Mrs. J. R. Sibley Wednesday evening when the Halloween theme was used in the decorations about the guest rooms where the business meeting was held followed by several hours of cards. Mrs. Mary Starr was assistant hostess.

Mrs. Don Teal Hostess to Group

Dallas—A social club, the T.G.T. club, was organized by several members of the William T. Sherman G.A.R. circle Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Don Teal.

Reception Held At Lebanon

Lebanon—A stellar social event of this week was the reception at which the members of the Fellowship Guild entertained in honor of women of the faculty, wives of faculty members and wives of board of education members at the home of Mrs. J. Harold Irvine Wednesday afternoon.

Mehama Club Sponsors Tea

Mehama—The Mehama Woman's club sponsored a silver tea at the home of the president, Mrs. Ercelle Wilson, Wednesday afternoon. Members called from the Lyons and Howell Beaches clubs.

Musicians Gather on W. U. Campus

The music section of the Oregon State Teachers' association will hold its annual fall meeting at Willamette university Friday evening and Saturday, October 27 and 28. An invitation is extended to teachers of all subjects to attend.

Friday evening's program will be highlighted by the appearance of Dr. Theodore Kratt, new dean of music at the University of Oregon, who will speak. Melvin Geist, dean of music at Willamette university, will sing during the program. His selections will include "Ode mio amato ben," by Donaudy, "O Lieb-liebte Wange" by Brahms and "The Low-Backed Car" arranged by Hughes. Ruth M. Geist will serve as accompanist.

Saturday Waldemar Hollensted, of Lincoln high school in Portland, will give a demonstration of high school chorus procedure. Luncheon will be served at noon at the Marion hotel and Miss Lillie Darby of Klamath Falls, president of the state association, will preside.

Englewood P.T.A. Meets Tuesday

Englewood Parent-Teacher association will meet Tuesday evening at the school. Rooms will be open at 7:30 o'clock and the business session will start at 8 o'clock with L. L. Moore presiding. Walter Snyder, curriculum coordinator for the Salem public schools, will be the speaker. Watson Dutton will give vocal numbers, accompanied by Miss Olive Clemes.

Radio Programs Listed Today

A variety of splendid radio entertainment is billed for the week-end pleasure of radio listeners. Of particular interest are the programs listed below:

7-8-30-NBC Symphony. Arturo Toscanini, conductor; soloists, Mischa Mischakoff, violinist, and Frank Miller, cellist. Classical. Mrs. O. Prokofiev. Prokofiev Double Concerto for Violin and Cello. Brahms. Strone. Sunday KOIN.

Salem Golfers Meet Friday

Mrs. Sphus Starr was awarded first place in A class and Mrs. Milton Parker, Mrs. Kenneth Potts and Mrs. Ed Gillingham tied for first place in B class Friday morning during regular Women's Day play at the Salem Golf club.

Harry Patton Feted Recently

A surprise birthday party for Harry Patton was given at his home in Lee street Saturday night by a group of friends. The rooms were decorated with autumn leaves and fall flowers.

Keizer Garden Club Honored

Keizer—The Garden club was entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Irvine on Thursday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Cummings assisting hosts. In the absence of the president, Mrs. M. S. Bunnell, Mrs. Curtis Cole presided during the business meeting.

Altruistic Club At Sibley Home

Dallas—Members of the Altruistic club were entertained at the home of Mrs. J. R. Sibley Wednesday evening when the Halloween theme was used in the decorations about the guest rooms where the business meeting was held followed by several hours of cards. Mrs. Mary Starr was assistant hostess.

Mrs. Don Teal Hostess to Group

Dallas—A social club, the T.G.T. club, was organized by several members of the William T. Sherman G.A.R. circle Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Don Teal.

Reception Held At Lebanon

Lebanon—A stellar social event of this week was the reception at which the members of the Fellowship Guild entertained in honor of women of the faculty, wives of faculty members and wives of board of education members at the home of Mrs. J. Harold Irvine Wednesday afternoon.

Mehama Club Sponsors Tea

Mehama—The Mehama Woman's club sponsored a silver tea at the home of the president, Mrs. Ercelle Wilson, Wednesday afternoon. Members called from the Lyons and Howell Beaches clubs.

Specials

"Life"—$3.50 per yr. until Nov. 11, 1939. "Harper's Bazaar"—$2.50 per yr. to College Girls Only. "Town and Country"—$2.00 for 8 months, also Booklet "Canapes and Tipples" FREE. Call me regarding the special on "House Beautiful" for Garden Club Members Only. I am arranging private showings of my Personal Stationery and Christmas Cards. Stationery—with or without name and address or with Monogram 200 sheets and envelopes for $2.00 and up. Christmas Cards—with or without name, 50 for $1.00 and up. Consult me for photographic studies on your intimate Christmas Cards. Call evenings for appointments Mrs. Marshall E. Ransdell 329 So. 14th St. Salem, Oregon Phone 5467

OREGON STATE COLLEGE 1939-40 CONCERT SERIES

FIRST ATTRACTION Marjorie Lawrence, Soprano Metropolitan Opera SUNDAY, OCT. 22, 3:00 P.M. Reserved Seats $1.50 and $2.00 - General Admission 75c

Season Tickets at $5 include also: EFREM ZIMBALIST, world-renowned violinist Dec. 10, 3 p.m. ARTUR ROBINSTEIN, distinguished pianist Jan. 14, 3 p.m. LINA FAGLUGHI, coloratura soprano Feb. 4, 3 p.m. BARRERE LITTLE SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA Mar. 26, 8 p.m. JOHN CHARLES THOMAS, world-famous baritone Apr. 21, 3 p.m.

For Reservations Write or Phone Percy Lacey, Mgr. Educational Activities Board Oregon State College, Corvallis

Jane Logan School of Fencing of Portland, Ore. announces Fencing Classes THURSDAY AFTERNOONS and EVENINGS Register Now at Barbara Barnes Studio Phone 3535

