

Christian Endeavorers Hold Convention at Lebanon

Two Counties Send Delegates, Name Officers

Lebanon—The annual convention of the Willamette Christian Endeavor union, held at the Lebanon Church of Christ over the weekend, was attended by approximately 100 delegates from Christian, Evangelical, United Presbyterian and Presbyterian churches of Linn and Benton counties.

The following were named new officers in the business session held Saturday afternoon: Carl Larson, Lebanon, president; Ladd Howard, Albany, vice-president; Viola Williams, Orleans, secretary; and Arlene Sportsman, Sweet Home, treasurer. The invitation of Sweet Home to hold the next convention there was accepted.

Rev. Walter Flacus, of Northwest Christian college in Eugene, was guest speaker, and he gave talks Saturday afternoon and evening and on Sunday evening. The theme of the parley was "Christ Calls".

A feature of the conference was a program of music and talks given by six students of the Eugene college at the banquet Saturday evening.

Honor Roll Pupils
Lebanon—Fifty-three students of Lebanon high school received grades for the past nine weeks that were high enough to place their names on the roll of honor recently issued. Such honor implies that the student has received grades of either 1 or 2. The roll follows: Halie Ashton, Doris Ayers, Ila Bahrick, Charlotte Bohle, Dorothy Bohle, Marcell Bohlen, Dorothy Burton, Vonda Char-traw, Marguerite Crane, Louise De-viney, Barbara Devay, Nora Dryer, Connie Elliott, Patricia Forrey, Beatrice Gentry, Jean Gephord, Homer Goulard, Delbert Hammett, Marie Hunt, Helen Jones, Daisy Kaufman, Beverly Keebler, Bernice Kerr, Lyle Lanning, Lyon Lawrence, Margery Leech, Dale Long, Marjorie McEl-hiney, Reid Merrill, Harry Miller, Richard Owen, Olive Owens, Alta Paetsch, Jeanette Pape, Don Pen-ford, Daren Pierce, Jean Post, Florence Ray, Patricia Reeves, Shirley Reeves, Pauline Sanders, Joan Schenk, Carl Smith, James South-wick, LaVerne Stewart, Fay Stur-veant, Doris Tancre, Patricia Tweed, Kathryn Voegelin, Lucille Warnke, Ramona Warnke, Marybeth Whet-stone and Betty Whitcomb.

Woman Fined in Stayton Court

Stayton—Mrs. A. A. Curtis of Aumaville appeared before Justice of the Peace Walter Bell in Stayton Thursday and pleaded guilty to a petit larceny charge and was fined $25 and costs. She was arrested at the J. L. Jordan produce company. After several packages of meat that had been prepared for the cold storage lockers were missed several marked packages were placed which later appeared in her locker.

Sheridan PTA President Kept

Sheridan—The Parent-Teacher organization held its monthly meeting in the high school auditorium, Mrs. George W. Censky, who was president last year, again accepted the presidency upon the resignation of Mrs. C. E. Morgan and presided during the business session. Mrs. Floyd Matthews, secretary, was present. Principal Hulce of the grade school reported on the method used and the finances concerning the present serving of hot lunches to the grade school pupils. Ten dollars were voted by the organization toward the hot lunch fund for this month.

Mrs. John Hendricks, chairman of the finance committee, reported that an "amateur hour" was planned to help on finances. Mr. Mor-risey, treasurer, reported that the cook books put out last year were still not all sold and were available. O. Beach Patton reported for the vocational guidance committee the progress made in the contemplated purchase of vocation leaflets for the library. Mrs. Roy O. Malo reported plans for an Americanization meeting in the near future.

Mr. Harris of the grade school, chairman of the program committee, announced the grade school opera for December 1 and introduced two members of the cast, Lila Lee Morris and June Syron, who sang numbers from the production. E. J. Pedgion of the fourth grade delighted the audience with two recitation numbers. The girls' glee club of the high school sang two numbers. Miss Helen Knight led the audience in a community sing with "Over the Rainbow". The program was followed by a pie social. Dr. Goodall being auctioneer. Pie was then sold by the piece in the Home Economic department with free coffee. Mrs. Hendricks had charge of the refreshments. A December meeting will be held in the grade school auditorium.

Withers Addresses Home Planning Class

Mt. Angel—Members of the home relation class, taught by Miss Lud-milla Seidl, heard a talk on the planning and building of a house by Lee Withers, building and supply dealer in Mt. Angel and Wood-burn.

The speaker told the students that the Cape Cod style house is the one most preferred by the Northwest home builders. The modernistic trend is gaining favor.

Among the phases of building covered by Withers was the selecting of the best time economically in which to build, the choosing of a site, consulting of the architect, contractor and retail lumberman. He discussed the various features of the P.H.A.

The U. S. home-builder has a wider choice in materials than builders in any other country, the local business man stated.
