"Whip Whitman" Is Theme of Banquet

Willamette University Campus — "Whip Whitman" will be the motto of the Willamette university students tonight when they gather at the Salem high school cafeteria for their annual banquet preceding the Willamette-Whitman game, which will be played Thursday in Walla Walla.

Cardinal and gold will be the color scheme used in the decorations which will carry out the football motif, with football helmets and small goal posts and footballs placed on the long tables at which the students and guests will be seated.

Walter Erickson, former football player and the first Willamette football player to receive all-American mention, will be the speaker for the occasion, and Dayton Robertson, president of the student body, will act as toastmaster. Other speakers will be Prof. W. C. Jones, who originated the Whitman banquet, Coach "Spec" Keene, Assistant Coach Howard Maple and representatives of the football team. The Willamette band will play a group of numbers and students will sing a number of school songs, led by Miss Carol Reed, the song queen.

MUSCULAR BACKACHE - SORENESS - STIFFNESS PAINS-ACHES

If first good rubbings with soothing, warming Musterole don't bring you glorious relief from those torturing muscular aches and pains—due to cold—by all means see your doctor. But Musterole usually DOES THE WORK—Musterole gives quick relief because it's MORE than "just a salve." It's a wonderful soothing "counter-irritant" which penetrates the outer layers of the skin to help ease local congestion and pain. Used by millions for over 30 years! 3 strengths: Regular, Children's (mild) and Extra Strong, 4oz.

Miss June Brasted is in general charge of the banquet and is assisted by Miss Betty Anusien, Dayton Robertson, Miss Elizabeth James and Miss Nadine Orcutt.

A.A.U.W. Branch Hears Miss Arbutnot Speak

Miss Katherine Arbutnot of Monmouth was speaker at the luncheon of the American Association of University Women Saturday at the Marion hotel.

Miss Arbutnot was introduced by Mrs. J. Lyman Steed, program chairman. Embarking from San Francisco, Miss Arbutnot's first stop was in Honolulu, where the tourists dined at a sugar cane plantation. Four days later the ship docked at Pango Pango, Samoa, and the passengers visited the tomb of Robert Louis Stevenson and saw his home, now occupied by the governor general of the island.

Suva, capital of the Fiji Islands, the travelers found to be a modern English city. In Auckland, New Zealand, the "Venice of the South," the season was spring, and Miss Arbutnot's party found it much like the Willamette valley in climate. The ship was docked at Sydney, a city with a wonderfully beautiful harbor, guarded by two giant sentinal rocks. The bridge, a scenic attraction, is said to be the most beautiful in the world.

Melbourne, Sydney's rival city, is built in low marshy land in contrast to the beautiful hills and harbor, but the homes are beautiful. Miss Frances Virginia Melton presided at the business meeting. Mrs. Phillip Barrett gave a report of the fellowship fund.

Mrs. A. W. Wolf, chairman of the Moosehaven committee of the Women of the Moose, has invited all the members of the chapter and their friends to her home Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock for a handkerchief shower. The kerchiefs are to be sent to Moosehaven, the home of aged Moose members, which is in Florida. The evening will be a social one with refreshments served by the Moosehaven committee. Mrs. Otto Mehlhoff, Mrs. Stuart Johns and Mrs. Verne Ostrander will have charge of the refreshments November 28 at the fraternal temple.

Auxiliary of the Disabled American Veterans of the World War is sponsoring a benefit Thanksgiving dance at the Eagles hall, Commercial and Chemeketa streets, Friday night, November 24. Committee in charge includes Mrs. W. Ripley, William Reid and Verne Ostrander. The public is invited.

Koyle-Carter Vows Said in New York

On Friday was solemnized the marriage of Miss Alice Rounsaville Carter, daughter of Mrs. F. M. Carter of Eugene, to Frederick Turner Koyle, the ceremony being held in the All Saints chapel of the Church of the Ascension in New York City. Dr. Donald Aldrich officiating.

The bride was given in marriage by her cousin, Max G. Carter, who is attending Harvard medical school. She wore an afternoon dress in winter blue with hat to match and with black suede accessories. Completing her costume was a corsage of orchids.

Miss Phyllis Russell of Boston was maid of honor and Edward Sanders of New York City was best man. Miss Russell wore a rose dress with corsage.

Following the service the couple greeted those attending the wedding at a brief reception in the church chapel.

Mr. and Mrs. Koyle have gone to the Pocono mountains and will be at home after December 1 at One University Place, New York City.

The bride is the younger daughter of Mrs. F. M. Carter of Eugene and is a graduate of the University of Oregon, where she is a member of Pi Beta Phi sorority. She has a wide circle of friends in Salem. Mr. Koyle, a nephew of Mrs. Maude McDowell Koyle of New York City, is a graduate of New York university.

Mrs. Necla Buck, state president of the W.C.T.U., will be guest speaker for the South Salem union when it meets for a no-host luncheon with Mrs. Alma Barkus, 890 Saginaw street, at 1 o'clock Friday. This will be the annual roll call luncheon. Assisting hostesses are Mesdames Mattie Tucker, Gertrude Lobdell, Kate Pemberton, Addie Taylor and Ethel Miller.

Mrs. Charles Heltzel was a Portland visitor Saturday.

Mrs. Russell Catlin and Mrs. Frank H. Spears were visitors in Portland Monday.

Church Ceremony Evokes Interest

Maclay — Miss Marian Perry, daughter of Mrs. Celia Perry, became the bride of Harold Halfman, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Halfman, at a simple ceremony at the Shaw Catholic church this morning in the presence of relatives and immediate friends.

The bride, who was attended by her sister, Miss Jean Perry, wore a black suit with black accessories. Her attendant wore a tweed suit with wine accessories.

Lester Perry, brother of the bride, acted as best man for Mr. Halfman.

Following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Halfman left for a short wedding trip after which they will be at home in the Shaw community. Both Mr. and Mrs. Halfman are members of the Maclay Grange and prominent in Grange activities. Mrs. Halfman is a graduate of the Aumsville high school and attended St. Vincent's nursery school in Portland. Mr. Halfman attended the Sublimity schools.

Detroit — Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bynon of Salem were guests at the Detroit hotel Friday night. While here Mrs. Bynon made plans for the Red Cross drive here and at Idanha. Conducting the drive will be Mrs.

Frank B. Thraikill, Mrs. C. E. Westberg, Mrs. Earl Parker and Mrs. Alexander J. McCannel.

Mrs. C. A. Lyle will entertain the Salem Writers' club this evening at her home, 1130 Marion street.

Silverton — Mrs. N. A. Hall, now of Salem, and a resident of the Brush Creek district for many years, is celebrating her 84th birthday anniversary today.

Mrs. Hall is the mother of Lewis Hall of the Silverton Hills. She makes her home with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Hall, 1570 Market street.

Silverton Group Has Business Session

Silverton — The American Legion auxiliary went on record Monday evening at its regular meeting as favoring the nomination of Mrs. Lewis Hall, a past president and otherwise prominent in the work of the unit, as president of the Marion county assembly for the ensuing term.

Mrs. Sam Lorenzen will be hostess to the sewing club Wednesday evening, December 13, with her co-hostesses Miss Ruth Lorenzen, Mrs. Carl Lorenzen and Mrs. T. P. Hedenstrom.

A National News benefit party is to be held at the home of the National News chairman, Mrs. Al Lercfeld, Wednesday, November 29, proceeds used for subscriptions to the official national publication of the auxiliary. This scheme was instigated last year by Mrs. Otto Alm, chairman, and was the means of securing the largest subscription list in the history of the local unit.

Mrs. C. J. Towe will entertain the past president's club Monday evening, November 27, at her South Water street home.

Appointments made by Mrs. Clifton Dickerson, president of the unit, included delegates and alternates to the Marion county assembly for the coming year, Mrs. Lewis Hall, Mrs. Del Barber and Mrs. C. E. Jaqua as delegates, and Mrs. Glenn Price, Mrs. E. A. Kern, Mrs. F. M. Powell, Mrs. Ernest Starr and Miss Janet Comstock as alternates. To be in charge of the refreshment hour for the month of December will be Mrs. Lewis Hall, Mrs. Carl Haugen and Mrs. Arthur Gottenberg. To serve on the apron sale are Mrs. Del Barber, Mrs. Otto Alm, Mrs. Glenn Price, Mrs. A. G.

Titus and Mrs. S. A. Pitney. A brief memorial was observed in honor of a Gold Star mother, Mrs. J. M. Nicholson, who passed away recently. A card of appreciation was read from the Nicholson family.

Among the activities of the Junior auxiliary girls, reported by Evelyn Hall, past president, were $8 realized from the Saturday candy sale, a Thanksgiving basket with a week's supply of food to a deserving family, and completed plans for a gift shower at the next meeting in two weeks for the general child welfare work. A part in Armistice day school patriotic programs was taken by the juniors.

The auxiliary tabled the final action to be taken in respect to the efforts to obtain an art center for Silverton. Six dollars are to be contributed to the bassinett fund for the nursery of the Silverton hospital. Mrs. J. J. Lewis, local music chairman, announced the acceptance of the unit to contribute to the KSLM program, which is heard the second and fourth Mondays of each month at 9:30 p.m. The apron sale committee urged all members to have their contributions ready for the sale not later than the next sewing club session. Around 70 members of the auxiliary and post heard Miss Olivia DeGuire give a travel talk on her summer's stay in educational work in South America, with refreshments served following the program. Mrs. J. J. Lewis gave two vocal numbers assisted at the piano by Violet Byberg and with Irene Morley-Franke playing a violin obbligato.

Roberts — Mrs. Harry Usul and daughter Michiko sailed on the Higawa Maru Friday, from Seattle to Yokohama, Japan, where Mrs. Usul will visit sisters and brothers who live there; also in Fukuoka and Tokio. They expect to return March 4. Mr. Usul accompanied them as far as Seattle.

Yamhill Pioneer III — Dayton — John Arms, almost 81 years of age, pioneer realtor of Dayton, was taken to the Mc-Minnville hospital Monday morning suffering with bronchial pneumonia. He is under the care of Dr. M. E. Reitzel.

How Thousands Coast to Coast

Judge Whiskey Value on Taste and Quality Alone!

By Switching to Rich Old Quaker—Now 4 Years Old—They've Discovered a Smooth Whiskey that Satisfies New Standards of Quality, Yet is Available to the Average Man

In whiskey the average man knows what he wants. He wants taste. So when thousands switched from other fine whiskeys to rich Old Quaker, we wanted to know why. Was value the important thing? Or was it flavor? Trained investigators covered 12 states, 46 cities and asked. Result: It is our belief that 8 out of 10 men who actually sample Old Quaker, keep on buying it—on taste alone.

Try It Yourself
