er, privet berries and Cryptomeria. Mrs. William Busick arranged a spray of wild apples with red and black berries in a red bowl.

Exquisite was the buffet arrangement designed by Mrs. Carl Nelson, which displayed a white mandarin, pine cones against a golden background, a snowberry wreath, white tapers and holders. Mrs. Walter Smith executed a table featuring Scotch broom, red candles in brass holders, and gilded cones, bordered with cedar.

Another feature of the show is the collection of Christmas drawings and posters by Salem school children. A collection of fine religious features also called up much comment from those attending the event.

Vows are Said At Vancouver

Lebanon—Hereafter, the Women's Relief Corps of Lebanon will meet twice a month instead of the one time at the first of the month, according to the decision made last Friday. Renewed interest in historical and patriotic activities has prompted this additional time. The second and fourth Fridays are the dates set.

At the meeting last Friday the initiation service was held for four candidates, Mesdames Couey, Eskeldsen, White and Hardy. Four more will be received into the corps at the next meeting.

A special holiday party will be held at the home of Mrs. F. A. Sikes on Monday, Dec. 18, according to present plans.

Monmouth Civic Club Has Program

Monmouth—The Monmouth Civic club was hostess to the people of Monmouth in a pleasantly arranged Christmas party in the city hall Friday evening.

A program of Christmas music prepared by Miss Blanche Cohen was presented during the event which this year was in the nature of a reception between the hours of 8 and 10 p. m.

The display of pictures pertaining to Christmas, mostly reproductions of the old masters, were loaned by the Salem Art Center and the art department of the University of Oregon.

The hall was harmoniously decorated with Christmas greenery. Refreshments were served. Mrs. Thomas Gentile was chairman of arrangements and to Mrs. Gentile and her staff of workers goes credit for sponsoring a pleasant evening.

The regular session of the club was held Thursday afternoon with Mrs. L. E. Forbes in the chair. Hostesses were Mrs. Delmar Dewey, Mrs. Donald Seating and Mrs. A. C. Powers.

Following the business routine Mrs. J. S. Landers, chairman of the Monmouth city library board, took charge of the meeting which featured the annual library tea. Proceeds will be utilized for the purchase of books for the Inez Church Memorial shelf in the library. Musical selections made up the program. The hall artistically reflected the yuletide season.

Fairfield—The home of Mr. and Mrs. Mike Mahoney was the scene of a delightful surprise party Saturday evening, given by Mrs. James Mahoney and Mrs. Ward Lundy, honoring Mr. and Mrs. Mahoney on their 20th wedding anniversary. Cards were in play during the evening with high scores going to Mrs. J. B. Stusee and Ward Lundy, second high to Dorothy Lundy and Euclid Gagner. A late supper was served.

Present were Mr. and Mrs. M. Mahoney, the honored guests, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Stusee, Mr. and Mrs. M. Lundy and Dorothy, Mr. and Mrs. E. Lina Gagner, Mr. and Mrs. L.
