87th Birthday Is Celebrated

Last Friday, December 29, was the 87th birthday of Rev. George Chapman, of Englewood, and the members of the adult Bible class of the United Brethren church school, which he conducts, gave him a surprise the evening of his birthday.

Rev. Chapman was pastor of the United Brethren church for a number of years and on his retirement from the ministry, with his wife, he settled near the Englewood church where he still takes an active part in church work.

The members of his class assembled at his home and, after greetings and an evening of visiting, refreshments were served.

A check-up of the guests and host showed their combined ages to be over 1000 years. Guests present were Mr. and Mrs. Kernes, Mrs. Loder, Mrs. Olsen, Mrs. Galloway, Mrs. Green, Miss Bertha Van Cleave, Mrs. W. R. Palmer, Mrs. Eva Taylor, Ed Olsen, Mrs. Hannah Yarnell and Rev. and Mrs. Chapman.

Miss Dorothy Friesen Weds Martin Berg

Monmouth—A wedding of interest to local folk was that of Miss Dorothy Friesen, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Friesen of Monmouth, and Martin Berg of Portland.

The ceremony took place December 16 at 2:30 o'clock in the Good Shepherd Episcopal church in Portland. The ring ceremony was used and the bride was given in marriage by her father, Miss Stamborg, a fellow nurse in Emanuel hospital, sang "I Love You Truly." Miss Brook, a roommate of the bride when both attended the nurse's school at Emanuel hospital, was maid of honor and Emil Berg served as best man for his brother.

The church was beautifully decorated with palms and chrysanthemums. Following the wedding ceremony a reception was held in the parlors of the church. The couple left for a short wedding trip along the Oregon coast.

The bridegroom is employed in an automobile upholstery shop in Portland. The bride is a graduate of local schools and attended Oregon Normal school. She entered Emanuel hospital for training three years ago and has just received her state diploma as a graduate nurse. Mr. and Mrs. Berg will be at home to friends at 1106 S.E. 13th avenue, Portland.
