

Central Howell Farmer Union Workers Chosen

Central Howell — The Central Howell local of the Farmers' union met at the school house, President Frank E. Way presided. All officers were present with the exception of Alvin Krug, a member of the executive board, W. A. Gatchet of the executive board, and a member of this local. He was formerly a member in the Mt. Angel local, and moved to the south, and upon his return signified a desire to join with this local.

A meeting of the representatives of the local who are members of the state warehouse association received notice of a special meeting of that body for January 19 at Salem. Earl DeSart, representing this local, will attend and report at the next meeting. Oscar Johnson of last year's agriculture committee reported for that committee, telling of the report on agriculture given by Peter Zimmerman at the recent county convention at Gervais. Joe Schuller of the same committee also told of attending the meeting in Salem pertaining to the raising of hybrid corn. Mrs. Earl DeSart gave her annual report for the flower committee. Alice Mathy and Frank E. Way reported on the county convention, and Mrs. Johnson explained some of the resolutions passed by that body.

Committees for the new year were appointed as follows: Combined good of the order and reception committee, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Torvend, vice-president, chairman; Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Krug and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Beutler; agriculture committee, Silas Torvend, chairman; Joe Schneider and John Moe; livestock committee, A. R. Mathy and Earl DeSart; legislative and resolutions committee, Ernest Werner, chairman, John Tweed and A. O. Lee; a new committee, the lecture committee will have Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Johnson in charge; sick committee, Mrs. Earl DeSart; building committee, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Beutler, chairman, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Pooler, Mr. and Mrs. E. Kuenzel and Mrs. Earl DeSart; refreshment committee, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Manley; musician, Mrs. Frank E. Way; junior leader, elected by the membership, Mrs. Earl DeSart. Dr. O. A. Olson, of Salem, a member of the Marion county P. U. D. committee, spoke on behalf of the work of that committee and told of the progress made. Ernest Werner, also a member of that same committee, was also present, and spoke briefly. Mr. Rinner, secretary of the Bethel local, was present and introduced.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Mantle, Mrs. O. G. McClough-Akers.

Benedict Bares Hands to Catch Unwelcome Fox

Silver — A fox was caught here by Steve Benedict with his bare hands. He went to the sheep barn up on a hill on the Hamilton place to look after some missing ewes and found the barn empty except for a grey fox which was curled up on some hay in one corner of the barn.

He ventured as near as he thought he dared, and then threw a stick at it, but it ran out only to come back into the barn. Benedict gave chase around the barn and managed to catch it by the tail. He put his foot over its body and hit it on the head with a stick. This is the second grey fox to be killed in this vicinity this winter. The other was shot Thanksgiving day by Harry Phelps, along Soap Creek.

New Officers Direct Stars

Silverton — Ramona chapter of the Order of Eastern Star met Tuesday evening with the newly elected officers, Mrs. Dorothy Scarth, worthy matron, and W. P. Scarth, worthy patron. In charge, and their corps of assistants, Alice Tomlinson was installed as chaplain.

Illness Hits People Around Middle Grove

Middle Grove — Mrs. Mary Herndon has returned to her home in this community after a six months absence in Monmouth, where she assisted in the care of Grandma Mulkey, grandmother of Mrs. Edward Bartruff. During her absence the family home was occupied by her daughter, Mrs. Daphne Randall, who will remain with her mother for an indefinite period. As a surprise to Mrs. Herndon, her children had the home wired for electric service during her absence.

Miss Olive McAninch is recuperating at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William McAninch, following a minor operation suffered recently.

Mrs. H. Wackon and daughter Mildred are spending several weeks as the guests of Mrs. Wackon's sister, Mrs. Elmer Minch, south of Salem.

Miss Freda, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Olive Hansen, was removed to Salem general hospital recently following a relapse. She suffered a severe attack of scarlet fever early last fall and has not recovered from the effects of that illness. She is a sophomore at Salem senior high, but has been unable to resume her studies since the scarlet fever attack. Mrs. Leonard Winthors, another daughter of the Hansens, is also ill at the family home.

Century Club Goal Boosts Membership

Stayton — At the second large class initiation within a six-month period for the Knights of Columbus of St. Anthony council, comprising the parishes of Sublimity, Stayton and nearby communities, an increase of 33 new members, by initiation and re-initiations was shown. By these additions this council has now 71 members towards its goal of the century club, and with another class being planned in the spring, without a doubt will make possible the reaching of this goal, which has not been shown by any subordinate council of the Knights in Oregon for many years.

The first and second degrees were exemplified by the local council officers under the direction of Grand Knight Chris E. Netting, and the major degree was in charge of State Deputy Edward J. Bell, of Stayton, assisted by District Deputy C. A. Suling of Salem and S. J. Merton of St. Paul. Following the degrees a banquet was served to 176 at the Stayton parish hall by the ladies of the parish. Rev. William Caughlan of Bend, acted as toastmaster.

The principal address of the evening was delivered by past State Deputy George J. Wilhelm of Eugene. Other speakers on the program included Rev. George Schneider of Stayton, Rev. Joseph Scherbing of Sublimity, and chaplain of St. Anthony council, C. A. Suling of Salem. Mrs. Clara Brabec of Salem, state regent of the Catholic Daughters of America; Leonard Thomas, chairman of the membership committee of the local council; Chris E. Netting, grand knight, and State Deputy Edward J. Bell. Accordion selections were rendered by Elmer Eisel of Stayton, and Mrs. Marie Hottlinger, accompanied by Miss Josephine Brand, sang several numbers.

Tuesday evening will be the regular meeting of the Knights at Sublimity, which is the regular "smoker" of special interest to the new members.

State Deputy Edward J. Bell announced another large class initiation for Sunday, Jan. 14, at Verbena, Ore., made up of candidates from the Hillsboro and Oregon City councils, which are under direction of District Deputy A. H. Abts, Hillsboro.

The newly initiated members of St. Anthony council are John Nuttman, Marcus Lambrecht, Anthony Ziebert, Walter Hafner, Sylvester Eikel, Omer Roberts, Jr., George Butler, John Ziglinski, Frank Kerber, Albert Halsbacher, Ernest Riestler, Norbert Eitel, William Roberts, William Poulet, Ray Eulinger, John Ferry, Omer Roberts, Sr., and John Blischoff. The committee in charge of the arrangements on Sunday was Leonard Thomas, Clarence Hendricks, Clarence Eck, Clyde Boyer, Raymond Kauter, Lawrence Kerber, J. E. Jungwirth and Andrew Slavakovsky.
