

Church Groups Protest Sale Of Beer at Park

Silverton—The Trinity Lutheran and the Immanuel Lutheran church congregations expressed themselves in a resolution at each of their annual sessions Wednesday, in a request to the local authorities to prohibit the sale of beer or other intoxicants at the ball grounds.

Officers elected at Trinity are: recording secretary, Tom Anderson; financial secretary, Martin Hattberg; assistant financial secretary, Arthur Gottenburg; treasurer, Dr. H. E. Johnson; auditors, M. G. Gundersen and M. C. Storror; Sunday school superintendent, Henry Torvold; assistant Sunday school superintendent, Mrs. Carl Carlson; head usher, Tom Anderson; caretaker, Carl Johnson; organist, Peggy Goplerud; assistant organist, Mrs. W. C. Larson; member cemetery board, M. C. Storror; member church board, W. C. Larson; board of education, Rev. M. J. R. Fair, pastor; the Sunday school superintendent and the assistant Sunday school superintendent.

The building of a new parsonage for the Trinity group was definitely talked. The sum of $2,000 is to be raised by popular subscription before further plans are devised and the parsonage home is not to exceed $6,000 in cost. On the parsonage building board are L. H. Meyer, Jalmer Refeland and Lawrence M. Larson.

In addition to the resolution asking no beer or intoxicants to be sold at the ball grounds, a resolution was passed asking no Sunday sale of intoxicants in Silverton.

West Salem Grange Obligates Couple

West Salem—The West Salem Grange met in the city hall for a covered dish dinner. After dinner the new master, Theo. Burns, called the meeting to order. The third and fourth obligations were given to Mr. and Mrs. Ray Seyman.

January birthdays were given Brown, William Moss, Layton Dastick, Mrs. Merl Phillips, Mrs. Robert Pattison, Mrs. Lela Kuhn, and Mrs. Theo. Burns. The H.E.C. held a benefit card party Friday night.

Installation Held By Rebekah Lodge

Hubbard—Thalia Rebekah lodge No. 191 held installation of officers at its regular meeting Tuesday night in the I.O.O.F. hall with William Leffler, district deputy, as installing officer. She was assisted by Rilla Zeek as marshal and Esther Moon as pianist.

Officers installed were Verna West, noble grand; Mae West, vice grand; Meta Friend, secretary; Ora Soderholm, financial secretary; Wilma Leffler, treasurer; Mary Hoyt, warden; Grace Devine, conductor; Catherine Hawk, chaplain; Edna Morrison, inside guard; Elizabeth Vredenburg, outside guard; Edith Painter, R.S.N.G.; Ava Malone, L.S.N.G.; Ada Kinzer, R.S.V.G.; Emma Grimps, L.S.V.G.; Esther Moon, musician.

No-host lunch and social hour followed the installation.

Silverton
Call
Capital Journal
Main 3

Silverton—Mrs. A. J. McCannel (Helen Comstock), Detroit correspondent for the Capital Journal, and Mrs. Russell Hammond of Detroit spent the day with the Seyven Ethoies and Mrs. McCannel with her mother, Mrs. S. J. Comstock.

Earl Hartman was re-elected as fire chief of the volunteers at the annual meeting this week.

Lester A. Wilcox of the state department of education spoke to the members of the Silverton Hills school districts at the community hall last night assisting in the move toward consolidating four school districts, Porter, Davis, Mountain View and Hill.

C. L. Bonney, president of the only saw filers union in the United States, is announcing a meeting, the second since organization a few months ago, at the Portland labor temple Sunday. Eligible from Silverton to be members are Mr. Bonney and his two helpers, James and Edson Mulkey. The union is an affiliation of the A. F. of L. and received its charter through the machinists.

No definite plans of the disposition of the funds received from the sale of the old I.E.U. hall to Ray Dullum have yet been reached by the members as disclosed at last night's meeting in their new quarters, the WOW hall.

Dance TONIGHT TOP HATTERS
Haunted Mill
Kickstart 25c

New President — Walter Smith, new president of the Mt. Angel Fluxarians, who took office this week. (Courtesy Oregonian.)

Readers' List Still Gaining

Silverton—Twenty-six new readers were added to the public library reader's list in December, according to reports submitted Monday night to the city council, which is the most who have registered in any one month since August, 1938, when 29 registered. Total circulation was brought up to 1313, which is slightly above that of November.

In the reference department 200 questions were cared for. This department has steadily grown more popular with the aid of the two national youth girls, Miss Minnie Mire and Miss Annabelle Jensen, who spent considerable time assembling the information asked.

Also through the aid of the national youth help, a large number of books has been delivered about town to business people who could not get to the library during library hours, and to others who were injured or otherwise unable to come for the books.

Tappan's "Book of the American Flag," "How to Conduct a Meeting," and Robert's "Rules of Order" have been popular non-fiction books in December.

Stalin's "Grapes of Wrath" is still most in demand on the fiction shelves, with Godden's "Black Narcissus" and de Donato's "Christ in Concrete" running not far behind.

Nineteen new books have been purchased during December and 22 received as gifts.

Donors during December were Althen Meyer, Orin Smith, Scott McPike, O. K. Cole, Mrs. H. J. Iverson, Bonnie Jean McPike and O. E. Lee.

Woodburn Juniors Chose Play Cast

Woodburn — "Comin' Thru the Rye" is the catchy title of the junior class play, a three-act comedy by Charles George, which will be presented at Woodburn high school February 23. Rehearsals will get underway this week under the direction of Miss Vera Hicks, who has chosen the following cast:

Silas Stonebaker, Jerry Koesse; Harvey Keyser, George Beaman; Jessie Weatherby, Donna Gene Ernest; Sheriff Haskins, Edgar Schlittenhart; James Kearney, Jerry Krupleka; Mrs. Humphrey Mearson, Dorothea Koehn; Rosamond Mearson, Patti Sims; Ronald Tanner, Frank Beck; Monica Morrison, Doris Jones; Trixie Angel, Anita Haefler; Rosalie Reed, Caroline Schroeder; Libby Stonebaker, Corinne Gill; Lillie Turber, Marguerite Gagner.

Triple Link Club Plans Card Party
Silverton—The Triple Link club met at the home of Mrs. Al Lerfald in Pine street Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Clare Heinke and Mrs. Del Barber assisting hostesses. Mrs. Barber, president of the club, was in charge of the business session.

HOME OWNED HOLLYWOOD 15¢
2 FEATURES
Last Times Tonight
Charles Starrett in "Grand Jury Secrets" with "The Thundering West" John Howard
Also News and Colored Cartoon
Starts Tomorrow
Continuous Tomorrow, 1 to 11

Church Pastor Makes Report On Past Year

Silverton—Rev. J. M. Jensen, pastor of Immanuel Lutheran church, based the theme of his annual address to the members of his congregation on the text from Matt. 5:14-16, with his topic, "Let Your Light Shine," just preceding the noon hour of the all-day meeting Wednesday in the church. The women of the Guild were in charge of the noon dinner with Mrs. Henry Alm, Miss Bertha Loe, Mrs. O. G. Ellerton, Mrs. George Anderson and Mrs. A. Aarhus as hostesses.

The pastor's report revealed 45 sermons preached in the English language; twenty-three Norwegian services and conducting a Norwegian Bible class each Sunday; two periods of evangelism which were in charge of guest ministers, Rev. M. L. Nevgit, city missionary of Seattle, and Rev. and Mrs. O. P. Stavens, missionaries from Madagascar. The pastor conducted 29 afternoon mid-week services in the Norwegian language. Two hundred communion at eight services. There were 15 admitted to the church by baptism. A class of 13 was confirmed. Eight funerals and three marriages were reported.

The time of the annual meeting was changed from the date until the evening thus giving those of the congregation who are employed, the opportunity of having a part in the meeting.

Officers elected for the year were: Trustees, Harold Raters, Alfred Lee and Anton Dahl to fill the unexpired term of H. Campbell, moved to Eugene, Geocon, Jonas Byberg, assistant organist, Inga Thorslund, Mrs. Arthur Dahl and Miss Ardis Aarhus; Sunday school superintendent, Miss Hasmah Olson; assistant Sunday school superintendent, Mrs. J. M. Jensen; cemetery board member, Oscar Johnson; revision committee, Mrs. Stanley Swanson, Mrs. Oscar Johnson and Bert Rue.

Linn Republicans Plan Annual Dinner

Lebanon—Linn county republicans will hold their annual Lincoln day banquet February 12 in Albany. It was announced by Roshal Groves of Lebanon, who is chairman of the Linn county republican central committee.

Groves has appointed the following committee to take charge of the event: Robert Marks, chairman; Mrs. Edna R. Lewelling, vice-chairman; William Balne, Mrs. Walter Kropp, Melvin Goode and Mrs. Della Kendall.

Tryphena Rebekahs Install Officers

Silverton — Tryphena Rebekah lodge No. 38 held a short session before the installation of officers in a joint session with the I.O.O.F. lodge officers Thursday night. All this meeting announcement was made of the "Old Maid's Convention," a comedy skit by Salem Odd Fellows that will be given here Thursday, January 25.

Next Thursday evening will be the official visit of the assembly president, Alma Henderson, of Chemawa. The team has reorganized and is practicing for the exemplification of the degree at this meeting. After installation Jessie Rainis, in behalf of the lodge, presented Mrs. Rebekah Barber with a past noble grand pin. Refreshments were served by Pleeta Bonliksen, Ruth Lorenzen and Bruce Bennett.

Palls City—Mrs. Anna Fabrique and daughter, Lella, have moved to Beaverton to make their home.

Early Organization Of Clubs Wanted

Albany—Nine-four 4-H clubs with a total enrollment of 999 have been organized in Linn county, it was reported by O. E. Mikesell, county club leader. The projects include cookery, clothing, home-making, forestry, woodworking, livestock, health and art.

The club agent is recommending that additional clubs in cookery, clothing, home-making, forestry, woodwork and art be organized at an early date so that work may be completed by May 15.

Monmouth Sees New Building

Monmouth—Building permits and repair permits totaling $12,000 were issued in Monmouth the past year, an announcement from the city recording office indicated.

This includes the Dr. J. F. Santee modern five room dwelling in South Cottage street; a four room cottage at the Mrs. Frank Robinson poultry plant at North East street; Monmouth cooperative warehouse remodeling, $1,000; J. E. Rabe dwelling in Bentley street, remodeling $1,000; Van Crider store, remodeling and new front; Ed Sehorn, dwelling remodeling; L. A. Moore, dwelling remodeling; P. H. Johnson, apartment house remodeling; Mrs. Jesse Nowowiejski furniture store remodeling, and a number of small improvements adding to a number of homes.

One building permit this year is for a new six room, story and a half house erected by Frank Moore at the corner of Ackerman and Whitman streets. The structure will face Ackerman street. Cecil Price is the contractor.

Forum Selects New Directors For Woodburn

Woodburn — Don Grilley, John Ramage and Henry Miller were elected as directors of the Woodburn Chamber of Commerce to serve for a term of three years at the annual meeting held Thursday night in the Legion rooms at the city hall.

J. Melvin Ringo was elected for two years to serve the unexpired term of T. J. O'Connor. Directors holding over are J. F. Lacey, Fred Hecker, H. M. Austin, Gerald B. Smith and Winston Hunt. A meeting of the directors will be held within the week to elect new officers.

The annual report was read by Secretary Winton Hunt, showing receipts and disbursements of $410.42 and no cash on hand.

J. P. Lacey, the retiring president, made a short talk, urging the budget plan of operation and the employment of a part time paid secretary.

R. H. Kipp, secretary of the Willamette valley project committee, was the speaker of the evening and talked on flood control. Musical entertainment was offered by the "Sophistocrats," Nick Wayne and Verne Hanson of Hillsboro.

Dinner was served at 6:30 o'clock by the American Legion auxiliary with covers for about 70.

Church Sisterhood Meets

Perrydale—The Sisterhood of the Perrydale Christian church met at the home of W. H. McKee Thursday afternoon. A business meeting was held. Those attending were: Mrs. Mattie McKee, Mrs. G. W. Woods, Mrs. S. Van Staaveren, Miss Doris McKee, Mrs. Esther Beverley and daughters LaVerne and Loriena, Mrs. L. H. Conner.

Officers Are Kept By Phone Patrons

Stayton—At the annual meeting of the Stayton Mutual Telephone company all officers were re-elected as follows: president, H. J. Rowe; vice-president, C. P. Burmester; secretary-treasurer, E. D. Alexander; directors, E. C. Downing and Grant Murphy. Murphy was chosen to represent the company in the Switchboard association. The treasurer reported the finances of the company in good condition.

College Fee Members Meet

Oregon College of Education, Monmouth—Special meetings of the inter-institutional fee committee and the inter-institutional dormitory committee were held at the Oregon College of Education campus in Monmouth this week. Representatives from Eugene were: Mrs. Genevieve Turnipseed, director of dormitories of the state system of higher education; Charles D. Byrne, secretary of the state board of higher education; Dr. Earl M. Pallett, registrar and executive secretary, University of Oregon; W. A. Zimmerman, acting budget director, state system of higher education; J. O. Lindstrom, business manager of the University of Oregon.

From Corvallis were: Miss Melliss Hunter, director of dormitories, Oregon State College; H. A. Bork, controller, state system of higher education; E. B. Lemon, registrar, O.S.C.; W. A. Jensen, executive secretary, O.S.C.

Raolph Couch, secretary, University of Oregon medical school, came from Portland.

Eastern Oregon College of Education sent President R. J. Maaske of La Grande, President C. A. Howard, Ellis Stebbins, registrar, and Miss Hilda Swenson, director of dormitories, represented O.C.E. at all the meetings.

Euclid Chapter Seats Officers

Jefferson—Installation of officers was a feature of the regular meeting of Euclid chapter No. 70. O.E.S. Mrs. Vivian Hoeltje of Mill City was installing officer. Mrs. Hazel Kelly acted as installing marshal and Mrs. Elmira Thurston, retiring worthy matron, was installing chaplain.

The new officers are: Mrs. Lillie Wilson, W. M.; Roland Wall, W. P.; Mrs. Joy Kelly, A. M.; John C. Terhune, A. P.; Mrs. Fae Smith, secretary; Mrs. Ina Thomas, treasurer; Mrs. Esther Hartley, conductor; Mrs. Leona Miller, A. C.; Miss Josephine Getchell, chaplain; Mrs. Edith Wall, marshal; Mrs. Cora Apperley, organist; Miss Virginia Kelly, Adah; Mrs. Ella Johnston, Ruth; Mrs. Virginia Dolezal, Esther; Mrs. Thelma Terhune, Martha; Mrs. Neva Kester, Electa; Mrs. Hannah Wright, warden; Rex Hartley, sentinel.

Mrs. Ruth M. Anderson was admitted to membership.

Visitors were Mrs. Vivian Hoeltje, and Mrs. Mildred Allen of Mill City; Mrs. Pearl Gilbert and Mrs. Carrie Thomas of Turner; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sprungman of Stayton, and Mrs. Myrtle Dawson of Albany.

Methodist Circle Busy With Sewing

Dallas—Mrs. T. G. Richmond was at home Wednesday when members of Circle Two of the Methodist church held a covered dish luncheon preceding their regular business meeting.

Polk Farmers' Union Elects

Dallas—A large attendance was present at the annual Polk county Farmers' union meeting which was held Wednesday at the North Dallas school house. Representatives from all twelve locals of the county were present.

Reports were given by Peter Zimmerman of Yamhill county, national delegate, at the annual meeting which was held in Omaha last fall; Senator Deean Walker of Independence discussed state finances; G. W. Potts of Jefferson, past state president, spoke on cooperation; and W. C. Leth, Polk county agent, talked on the changes in cash agricultural crops for Polk county in the past few years.

Election of officers was held with the following being elected: L. H. McBee, Liberty Bell, president; Ammon Grice, Orchard Heights, vice-president; Eben Ray, Valley Junction, secretary-treasurer; Cliff Hill, Ballston, conductor; Orval Wells, Beuna Vista, doorkeeper; and executive committee, R. W. Hogg, Greenwood, Emmett Staats, Lucklamute, and Jake Sears, Perrydale.

HELD OVER
The life of Stephen C. Foster becomes the Great American Motion Picture!... A picture as big as America's heart!

SWANEE RIVER
Don Ameche • Andrea Leeds • Jolson
Photographed in TECHNICOLOR

GRAND
CONTINUOUS SHOW DAILY

WARNER'S ELGINORE SALEM'S LEADING THEATRE
5728

Starts Sunday - Two Features
Midnight Prevue Tonight at 11:30

Paramount's Lyrical, Laughable, Lovable Epic of Lilliput Land!
"GULLIVER'S TRAVELS"
A Full Length Cartoon Motion Picture IN TECHNICOLOR!

AMUSING, ASTONISHING, AMAZING ADVENTURES with Gulliver among the droll, delightful, devastatingly comical inhabitants of Lilliput... 25,000 of them. It's a never-ending parade of laughs... thrills...

Companion Feature
Thrills on an Arizona Horse Ranch!
"Two Thoroughbreds"
Jimmy Lydon - Joan Brodel

LAST TIMES TODAY KAY KYSER - ADOLPH MENJOU in "THAT'S RIGHT—YOU'RE WRONG" Plus "Meet Dr. Christian"

Last Day
Joe E. Brown
Martha Raye
"1000 TOUCHDOWN"
and
Lynne Overman
"DEATH OF A CHAMPION"
Midnight Show Tonight

STATE THEATRE PHONE 3721
15¢
CONTINUOUS SHOWS DAILY • MAT. I.P.M.

STARTS TOMORROW
HUN U-BOATS IN AMERICAN WATERS.....
86 SHIPS TORPEDOED.....
U. S. SEA FIGHTERS MAN SUICIDE FLEET...

WALLACE BEERY
THE UNDER-AFLOAT
CHESTER MORRIS ★★ VIRGINIA GREY
Allen Jenkins - Marie Wilson - Johnnie Davis
"SWEEPSTAKES WINNER"

WARNER'S CAPITOL TWO BIG HITS 25¢
3050
STARTS TODAY CONTINUOUS TODAY 2 TO 11:15 P.M.

● Tough as they come... afraid of nobody... with a fist like a five-ton bomb! But so finicky he won't have a gun around him. "They're messy," he says. When he smashes a guy it's quick, and final! He likes things smooth, sleek and shiny... that's why they call him "Silky the Sybarite"...

ASTONISHING! THRILLING!
ROBERT Montgomery
"The EARL OF CHICAGO"
with EDWARD ARNOLD • REGINALD OWEN • EDWARD GWENN
COMPANION FEATURE

THE MYSTERY MAN THE MASKED RIDER
COWBOYS from TEXAS
THE 3 MESQUITEERS
BOB LIVINGSTON
RAYMOND HAZELTON • DONALD HENNING • CAROL LEAND • CHARLES WOODRUFF