

Rainbow Girls Seat Officers Before Public

Dallas—Open installation of officers of the Rainbow Girls, Order of Rainbow Girls, could not take place in the Masonic hall Saturday evening in the Masonic hall with Miss Martha Jean Kurre, worthy advisor, in the chair.

Miss Betty Smith was crowned worthy advisor by Miss Elveng Helgeson, who, because of attending school in Portland, could not take the office. Following the crowning ceremony, Miss Smith relinquished her crown to Miss Helgeson for the evening as an honorary gesture.

Other officers who were installed included Betty Denton, associate worthy advisor; Bonnie Grow, charity; Naomi Hayes, hope; Florence Elliott, faith; June Dunn, recorder; Anne Craven, treasurer; Martha Jean Plummer, chaplain; Phyllis Dickey, drill leader; Patricia Erickson, inner observer; Sue Hamilton, outer observer; Ruth Van Orsdel, musician; Betty Auer, choir director.

The color stations are represented by: Confidence, Ruth Denton; Loyalty, Naomi Hayes; Hope, Florence Elliott; Faith, June Dunn; Recorder, Anne Craven; Treasurer, Martha Jean Plummer; Chaplain, Phyllis Dickey; Drill Leader, Patricia Erickson; Inner Observer, Sue Hamilton; Outer Observer, Ruth Van Orsdel; Musician, Betty Auer; Choir Director, Betty Auer.

Martha Jean Kurre was installing worthy advisor; Patricia Erickson, chaplain; Elveng Helgeson, recorder; Maxine Helms, marshal; and Marguerite Welgant, musician.

Miss Kurre presented a gift from the assembly to Mrs. Norris Rockwell, out-going mother advisor, and also to Mrs. Himes, associate mother advisor, in appreciation of their work during the past year.

The girls also presented Morris Laing, a Mason, with a pin to denote how much they appreciated the work he has done for the assembly and also in appreciation of his Christmas gift of $20, which he gave them.

Swegle Community Loses Its Store

Swegle—Mr. and Mrs. Carl Walker and three children, Donald, Ralph and Caroline of Dallas, Ore., visited Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Becker Sunday.

Mrs. Grace Teller of Mill City visited her mother, Mrs. Elsie Porter, Sunday.

The seventh grade girls of Swegle school went to the home of Mrs. Caroline Heller for their 4th cooking club. A discussion was held on how to make soups. A few songs and yells were enjoyed. A taffee pull was then the spotlight.

The Swegle community stove operated by Mr. and Mrs. Nelson is vacant now, as they moved Monday noon into Salem.

Saturday at 8:30 o'clock, the Swegle PTA-Community club chicken dinner will be served.

West Stayton Youth Shot Through Leg

West Stayton—Keith Wilkinson was seriously injured Sunday when he and his brother, Kenneth, were hunting on their place. A gun was accidentally discharged, shooting him through the leg, the shot entering the leg above the knee, going out the back part of his leg. He was taken to the General Hospital in Salem suffering from loss of blood.

An aunt in Portland had the only type of blood necessary for a transfusion which was given immediately. Henry Hughes and Douglas Wilkinson will also donate blood for transfusion. There are hopes of his recovery unless complications set in.
