Conference Opens Here Friday Night

The annual State High School Girl Reserve conference will open in Salem Friday with over 225 out-of-town girls expected to be in attendance, according to Miss Helen Becker, local Y.W.C.A. secretary. The sessions are to be held at the First Methodist church, opening with a banquet Friday evening at 7 o'clock, following registration.

Dr. Bruce R. Baxter, president of Willamette university, will be the principal speaker. His topic will be "Choices." Conference leaders will be introduced and an interesting ceremonial is being arranged by the Hillsboro Girl Reserves, who are in charge of the banquet.

Saturday morning Miss Grace Lowers of Portland will speak on "Ways by Which We Grow." Astoria Girl Reserves will be in charge of the worship service.

Discussion groups will be led by Mildred Bartholomew, Geraldine Williams, Rosa Speers, Mrs. James McVey, Frances Maeda, all of Portland, and Sybil Tucker of Corvallis.

A tour of the state library and luncheon at the capital will be enjoyed later in the morning and during the afternoon a song fest and club clinic will be featured. Miss Gertrude Eakin of the Portland Y.W.C.A. will give the concluding address.

Junior Women Accept New Members

The Salem Junior Woman's club accepted three new members, the Misses Susan Walery, Jane de Freese and Daisy Martin, at its regular meeting in the Woman's clubhouse Monday evening. Mrs. Carlton Roth presided.

Prof. W. C. Jones of Willamette university was the principal speaker. He chose "Democracy" as his topic.

Miss Helen Way was appointed a director to replace Miss Marjorie Knox. The philanthropic work of the club is continuing and among the new projects is the purchasing of shoes for needy children, clothing for a student at the blind school. Additional silverware for the club is being purchased.

A reading plan, suggested by Hugh Morrow of the Salem public library, was considered by members at last night's session.

An interesting session will be held by the Salem Council of Women's organizations at the Salem Public Library Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Gerald Mason will speak on "Youth and Our Responsibilities."

Lions club auxiliary will gather at Godfrey's for luncheon Thursday at 1:15 o'clock, followed by an informal afternoon at the home of Mrs. Kenneth Murdock.

Guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Black Sunday were Amos Sonner and his son, Leonard Black, Jr., came from Corvallis, where he is attending Oregon State, to spend the week-end. His father, who underwent an emergency appendectomy Friday, is recovering satisfactorily.

Recent Bride Honored Guest

The Butteville schoolhouse was the scene of a delightful bridal shower honoring Mrs. Carol Scheuderman (Myrtle Martin), Saturday. Mrs. Leslie Eppers and Mrs. Grace Jones were joint hostesses for this affair.

The decorations were pink and white streamers leading from a white umbrella dripping with rain. A long table was centered with a bouquet of pussywillows, flanked by pink and white candles. The color scheme was repeated in the refreshments.

Those assisting with the serving were Mrs. Eugene Cole, Miss Marjorie Jones, Miss Dorothea Dentel, Miss Ann Gearn, Miss Marjorie Herr and Miss Gayle Dennison.

Beard - Shinkle Rites Are Read

Knight Memorial church was the scene of a beautiful wedding at 5:30 o'clock Saturday evening when Miss Mary Alice Shinkle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Solon L. Shinkle, became the bride of Raymond Pearce Beard, son of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Beard. Rev. H. C. Stover officiated.

Lawrence Dineen of Portland sang "Ave Maria" before the ceremony and "Because" during the reception. Donald Allison played the wedding marches. Miss Eleanor Parks lighted the tapers just before the ceremony.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a gown of white satin and a long veil of white tulle. She carried a shower bouquet of pink roses, bouvardia and fern.

The maid of honor, Miss Margaret Hucklestein, wore a model of sea green taffeta and the bridesmaids, the Misses Alene Beard and Pollyanna Shinkle, wore pastel frocks made in similar fashion. They all carried arm bouquets of roses, sweetpeas and freesias.

Martin Fenden, Jr., served as best man for Mr. Beard. Lee Nelwander and Robert Welns were the ushers.

A large reception followed the ceremony with friends and relatives greeting the couple. Mrs. H. C. Stover presided at the urns and Mrs. B. P. Shannon cut the bride's cake. Assisting about the rooms were Mrs. August Hucklestein, Jr., Mrs. Saul Janz and Miss Irene Purnell.

Mrs. George Jaeschke Elected President

Silverton—Mrs. George Jaeschke was elected president of the Silverton Woman's club Monday afternoon when the group met at the Methodist church social rooms for their annual tea, program, business session and election of officers. Mrs. Jonas Byberg is the retiring president. The new officers do not assume their duties until the first meeting of the club in the autumn.

Assisting officers are vice-president, Mrs. R. A. McGlanathan; secretary, Mrs. A. B. Wiesner, and treasurer, Mrs. Helmer Brodke.

In a setting of Valentine motif amid huge baskets of japonica and pussywillows, the hostesses were gowned in early pioneer costumes, and the speaker, Claire Warner Churchill, popular author and supervisor of Oregon writers' project, gave a talk on early Oregon folk lore in speech, songs and customs. Accompanying Mrs. Churchill was Mrs. Adah Losh Rose, director of pageantry of Oregon tradition and history.

Mrs. Floyd Ellefson, program chairman, presented the guest speakers who in turn introduced Mrs. Rose.

Hostesses were Mrs. George Hubbs, chairman, Mrs. W. R. Tomlinson, Mrs. Joe Kircher, Mrs. Ed Heald, Mrs. Harry Buckley, Mrs. Lee Haskins and Mrs. Charles Hoyt.

Supplemental program numbers were two poems, "I Haven't Time," and "If We Understood," by Mrs. Floyd Ellefson, and two vocal selections, "In My Garden," and "Smilin' Through," by Mrs. W. P. Scarth with Mrs. Irene Morley Franke at the piano.

Mrs. P. Glenn McDonald announced the fashion tea, a costume pageantry, to be sponsored by the Junior Woman's club with a complimentary committee from the Woman's club to include Mrs. McDonald, Mrs. Charles Hoyt, Mrs. Dale Lamar, Mrs. C. J. Titus, Mrs. Ernest Starr, Mrs. George Anderson, Mrs. A. P. Solle, Mrs. B. Renwick and Mrs. H. Alm, named by Mrs. Byberg.

Sigma Kappa alumnae will entertain their husbands and friends with a no-host dinner Thursday evening at 6:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Luther Jensen, 930 Hood street.
