

Dave Beck In Address Assails Isms

Seattle, Feb. 21 (AP)—Declaring he was speaking first as an American citizen and secondly as an official of the Teamsters union, Dave Beck, west coast union leader, said in a National Defense week address last night that "nothing but communism with its neck washed."

"No intelligent working man believes that communism offers anything but destruction for the wages and working conditions," he said in emphasizing that his union permits no communist to be a member.

He continued: "The communist campaign of hatred is skillfully directed at capitalism, which, unquestionably has many faults and weaknesses. But while the communist seeks openly to destroy capital, he works just as hard, but secretly, to destroy labor."

"Communism, fascism or any other kind of dictatorship means nothing more nor less than the nationalization of both capital and labor. It means that everybody would work for the politician in control, under whatever terms and conditions the politician imposes. And any man who maintains his right to strike loses his right to live. They simply kill him off."

"So, when we defend the capitalist system, we defend the right of labor to demand just wages, reasonable hours and healthy working conditions. We also defend the right to strike, to educate our children, put money in the bank and improve our economic condition to the limit of our capacity to earn or create."

Beck appealed for the deportation of "alien agitators" not only from the ranks of labor but from business, industry or "wherever else we find them."

Members present were Mrs. Edna Dickey, Mrs. William McKinney, Mrs. J. C. Courtnier, Mrs. John Olson and Marilyn, Mrs. Austin Carter, Mrs. Milton Steward, Mrs. Lyle Custer, Mrs. Myra Hendricks, Mrs. Stuart Johns, Mrs. John St. Clair, Mrs. Curtis Odenborg, Miss Mary Annette Courtner and the hostess, Mrs. C. D. Courtner.

Mrs. Alma Dickey will entertain the group at her home March 1.

Miss Anna Mae Lips Weds Hugh Mandigo

The marriage of Miss Anna Mae Lips, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Lips of Bismarck, N. D., and Hugh Mandigo, son of Wellington Mandigo of Braddock, N. D., was solemnized last Sunday, February 18, at 3 o'clock at Jason Lee Methodist church in Salem with Rev. Smith officiating.

A small group of relatives and friends witnessed the exchange of vows. Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Harold Keller and family of Portland. The couple was attended by the bridegroom's cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Mandigo of Grand Island.

The bride was attired in a wine wool dressmaker suit with a white satin blouse and matching wine velvet hat. She wore her mother's white kid wedding gloves and a slender corsage of gardenias and white sweet peas. The matron of honor wore a navy blue silk crepe dress with matching accessories and corsage of sweet peas.

Following the ceremony a wedding dinner was served to the wedding party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Tupper of Salem, assisted by Mrs. Tupper's mother, Mrs. K. B. Green.

After a short honeymoon in Washington, Mr. and Mrs. Mandigo will be at home in McMinnville.

Portland University Wins First Place

Willamette University Campus — First prize in the first annual intercollegiate play contest was awarded the Portland University players, who presented "Submerged," a tragedy by Cottman and Shaw, and according to the old Greek custom each player and the coach were awarded laurel wreaths.

"Submerged," a tragedy dealing with the horrors of those in a sunken submarine, had an all boy cast and was coached by the Rev. J. W. Scheiber assisted by the student director, Mike Dolan.

Members of the cast were: Brice, Bob Soule; Shaw, Jack Sadwell; Dunn, Mike Dolan; Nabb, Arnold Kepert; Jorgson, Dick Clemo, and the commander, John Groeger.

Second place was won by Willamette university with the play "The Ocean," directed by Miss Frances Pickard. Members of the cast were Miss Mary Moses, Miss Frances Pickard, Miss Ruth Matthews, Miss Eva Shellito, Miss Lucille Strauss,

Flag Codes Are Purchased by Group

Silverton — The Americanization committee of the American Legion Delbert Reeves post No. 7 auxiliary reported the purchase of 100 flag codes to be placed in the various rooms of the public school Monday night, at the regular business session of the unit with Mrs. Clifton Dickerson presiding and Mrs. Lewis Hall serving as secretary in place of Mrs. George Towe. The junior auxiliary will assist with the placing of the flag codes as reported by Mrs. Sam Lorenzen, advisor of the juniors. The young members of the junior unit held a patriotic hour Monday afternoon with Evelyn Hall and Dorothy Towe reading papers on the life of Washington in keeping with Americanism, the theme of the month.

The members are planning a hard time dance in the very near future as a benefit affair for the PTA school lunch room and kitchen. A program number will be given for the community jamboree, also for the benefit of the lunch room. The sewing club will make dish cloths and donate tea towels at the Wednesday night meeting at Mrs. Ernest Starr's home, 217 Brown street, when all members and guests will be welcomed.

A social and program hour with the Legionnaires was enjoyed later in the evening when C. E. Jaqua gave an educational talk on National Defense; Floyd Ellefson appeared in a western Oregon bird chalk talk with the illustrations in color, and Donald Renwick gave

Factory Site Tax Will Go On Ballot

Portland, Ore., Feb. 21 (AP)—City officials considered the loss of a second major industry to Vancouver, Wash., today and decided to try to make Portland more attractive to factories.

Mayor Joseph K. Carson asked the city council to re-submit to voters a 1-mill special tax to purchase factory sites.

The Sierra Iron company and the Aluminum Corporation of America selected Vancouver sites for factories operated with Bonneville power.

Portland voters rejected the 1-mill proposal in 1936 but Carson believes, in view of the possible influx of industries into territory near Bonneville, that they might approve it now. It would raise about $300,000 annually.

The port of Vancouver owns many acres adjacent to the city which are tax free and can be leased at nominal sums to industries. The leading firm would be exempt from taxation on the site but would pay taxes on the plant, Carson said.

The Portland commission of public docks, Carson said, owns a limited amount of property available for industrial sites but city owned property can not be leased under present restrictions for more than five years.

"The people should be reminded," Carson continued, "that power from Bonneville will be delivered at Puget Sound at the same rate it is delivered in this area. They should further be informed that in most respects the financial condition of this state and of this city is such as to attract industry insofar as most phases of the matter are concerned but they likewise should be informed fully that their city council has no means at present of meeting the competition that is offered by other localities."

Carson declared Washington's 40-mill tax limitation is not the most important factor because tax-exempt on industrial sites outside the city limits of Portland is only 39 mills and Oregon has fewer additional taxes than Washington.

Operas Listed By Vote of Fans

Portland, Ore.—Oregon opera fans, some 2000 of them, have all turned in votes to the Paramount theatre in Portland during the past four or five weeks, listing the six operas they would best like to hear played when the troupe gives its opera season there on March 28, 29, 30 and 31.

The idea was sponsored here by Fortune Gallo, famed director of the troupe, as a part of the 30th anniversary celebration of his company.

And now, word comes from William B. McCurdy, northwest manager for the company, that the final tabulations are finished, the votes are in and the repertoire for Portland can be announced. This is the complete program:

Thursday, March 28, "La Traviata," by Verdi.

Friday, March 29, "Rigoletto," by Verdi.

Saturday matinee, March 30, "Hansel and Gretel," by Humperdinck.

Saturday evening, March 30, "Carmen," by Bizet.

Sunday matinee, March 31, "Madame Butterfly," by Puccini.

Sunday evening, March 31, "La Boheme," by Puccini.

Leading the field for votes almost since the beginning were "La Boheme" and "La Traviata." However, a surprise winner to all was the Italian English school opera, "Hansel and Gretel," which not only was not listed in the regular repertoire, but had been presented here only once before, and that time to a special closed children's matinee. The performance here of "Hansel and Gretel" will have an added attraction in a special ballet performance to follow the opera.

Stars appearing in the operas here will include Coe Glade, Lyuba Senderowna, Charlotte Bruno, Livia Maracci, Hizi Koyke, Norina Greco, Bianca Saroya, Lucille Muesel, Leola Truner, Aroldo Lindi, Sydney Rayner, Frank Perulli, Dimitri Onofrei, Francesco Curci, Harold Kravitt, Richard Wentworth, Fausto Bozza, Mostyn Thomas, Mario Valle, Ivan Petroff, Stefan Kozakovich, Carlo Peroni will conduct.

Hand Loom Work Reaches High Peak

Hand loom production in the weaving workshop of the Art Center for the winter term reached a high peak of output this week, with the completion of several large sets of linen table pieces. These individual student projects have been in process for several months.

Miss Vera Bogard of Woodburn has just finished her second 64-inch tablecloth made of Oregon flax with matching sets of 6 napkins each. On frequent display these table pieces of skilled workmanship and colorful designs have attracted much attention. Miss Bogard commutes from Woodburn twice a week to attend the Art Center weav-

Pro-America Meets Friday Afternoon

Woodburn—The Woodburn chapter of Pro-America will hold its regular meeting Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Ray Glat, 488 Montgomery street.

Mrs. Lamar Tooze of Portland will be the guest speaker. Every one interested in the problems of government is invited to be present whether or not a member of Pro-America.

Salem Heights — The Salem Heights Woman's club sponsored a play, "Listen to Leon," by the Salem Civic Players, at the hall Tuesday evening, under the direction of Miss Beulah Graham. Proceeds are to be applied on the redecorating of the hall.

Lebanon—The February meeting of the Tallman Goodwill club was held at the home of the president, Mrs. Evelyn Hayes, recently with Mrs. John Hayes, Mrs. Cross, Miss Lillie Porter, Mrs. Fred Junghelt, and Miss Amalie Junghelt as visitors. The Valentine theme was carried out in the contests and the decorations about the rooms.

Mrs. John Hayes and Mrs. Nadine Hayes assisted the hostess in serving refreshments at the close of the afternoon.

Lebanon—Mr. and Mrs. Paul McCracken entertained for members of the Monday Evening Bridge club the first of the week when covers were laid for twelve for 7 o'clock no-host dinner. Mrs. Glen Arehart was an invited guest.

Spring is definitely on the way! One look at the sport pages is all that's needed as a convincer, for every baseball team in the country is coming out of winter hibernation to do a little legalized "hit and run" exercise. And if you live in California or Florida, that loud creaking noise is just the sound of a few un-used joints being limbered up. Sports writers are cutting their craniums to think up new and clever words to describe the national game. Another of their headaches is trying to keep track of the players—for some of them change hands often from a hot plate at a buffet dinner. Well, it won't be long now before the sound of bat on ball makes every office boy's grandmothers take a sudden turn for the worse.

With spring on the way—baseball talk in the air—it is more important than ever that you have a good, dependable car for your pleasure jaunts. The Hubbard Motor Co. has a wide selection of guaranteed, used cars—they do their own financing—and can adjust the terms of the contract to meet your income.
