Mrs. White To Honor Newcomers

Mrs. George A. White is arranging a tea for Easter Monday in connection with the new members of the Delta Delta Delta at Oregon State college. Calling hours will be from 3:30 to 5:30 o'clock, and a large group of prominent matrons and maids will call to greet the newcomers.

Rainbow Girls Meet for Dinner

Rainbow, Order for Girls, entertained at dinner last night in the Masonic temple with covers placed for 62. The affair preceded the regular business session with Miss Elizabeth Herrick presiding. The serving table was centered with a bouquet of gladioli guarded by tall yellow tapers and other favors of the St. Patrick season. Miss Janice Lemmon was in charge of the decorations and Miss Carolyn Brady, the dinner.

Salem Girls Win Campus Honors

Eileen Holden of Salem, freshman in secretarial science, was installed as treasurer of Waldo hall, girls' dormitory at Oregon State college, at a meeting this week. Officers serve for three terms. Alice Cunningham of Salem, junior in home economics, was recently elected social chairman of Hazel Rae, girls' cooperative house. Miss Cunningham will be installed at the beginning of spring term and will serve for a year.

Rebekah Lodge Elects New Member

Salem Rebekah lodge, No. 1, met at the I.O.O.F. hall Monday evening. Mrs. Helen Pearce, noble grand, presided. Mrs. Ethel Branch was elected to membership. Past Noble Grand's association will meet Saturday, March 16, in the hall at 6:30 o'clock for a no-host dinner. March 22 the Three Links club will have a 12 o'clock luncheon in the club rooms for the benefit of the home. Next Monday evening will be initiation night. All members of the tableaux and drill are requested to be present. Visiting Rebekahs are invited to attend.

B.P.W. Conference Draws Interest

The Astoria Business and Professional Women's club carried home the Klamath trophy for the largest attendance "per member miles" at the conference at Hillsboro Sunday arranged by the Oregon Federation of Business and Professional Women's clubs for its clubs in this district. Nearly 250 women attended the meeting, for which Mrs. Zola Morgan of Hillsboro, a past state president, was program chairman. Many went from Salem for the session. Following the executive council breakfast, an open forum, presided over by Mrs. Leona Bryant of Coquille, the state president, was conducted in the large court room of the county courthouse. Dr. Irma Gordon, who has been heard in talks on "Women in the Dictator Nations" at two previous district conferences, gave the last of a series of talks on the status of women in the Scandinavian countries. An interesting panel discussion on "The Economic Opportunity in a Democracy" by members of the McMinnville club followed, led by Dr. Mabel Burton. The conference was climaxed by a luncheon at the Chamber of Commerce rooms, with Miss Lucille Fisher, president of the Hillsboro club, acting as hostess. Vocal and instrumental numbers were given by the Hillsboro grade school under the direction of Miss Fisher, teacher of music. The main speaker at the luncheon was Circuit Judge R. Frank Peters. Judge Peters spoke on "Rights and Responsibilities of Citizens in the United States."
