

Lebanon Strawberry Festival Plans Are Complete.

Queen Dorothy Will Rule Fete For Two Days

Lebanon—Details were completed today for the coronation of Dorothy Dvorak as queen of the strawberry festival. The coronation, on the eve of the opening of the two-day fete, are to be held at 8 o'clock Thursday night in the Lebanon high school auditorium.

The coronation will open with addresses of welcome by Walter Scott, president of the Lebanon Commercial club, and Mayor T. W. Munyan. Each princess will then be escorted to the platform, and after a brief but comprehensive history of the festival, Queen Dorothy will be crowned with due pomp and ceremony.

A large cast, recruited from the Lebanon citizenry, will participate. The ceremony is under the direction of Miss Kee Buchanan of the high school faculty, and casting was made by Mrs. Huston Walter and an assisting committee.

The ceremony is free to the general public. The princesses are Anna-Belle McKinley, Shedd; Elaine Babcock, Brownville; Laurel Chiles, Harrisonburg; Maxine Bilyeu, Selco; Donna Shafer, Halsey; Maxine Hughes, Sweet Home; Bernice Lynskog, Tangent; and Lorelei Stewart, Lebanon. Queen-elect Dorothy is of Albany high school.

The cast includes: Principals—William Shepherd, prime minister; Irvin Bryan, secretary of state; Bob Johnson, lord chamberlain; Bill Ward, messenger. Queen's escort—Kenneth Mayer. Princesses' escorts, Del Davenport, Dick Reeves, R. M. Hayden, George Britton, Douglas Waddell, George Crain, Jack Stolz and Harry Miller.

Guards of honor—Milton Coe, Hiram Groves, Lawrence Bennett, Dr. J. G. Gill, Ed Bohle, Ernest Caldwell, Merle Davenport, Ralph Reeves, Chet Oviatt, L. E. Bonnell, Dr. A. A. Fisher, Gene Blacklock, "Trumpeters"—Gene Durkin, Douglas Bennington, Blake Holbrook. "Train-bearers"—Roxanna Brownlee, Shirley Veers. Crown-bearer—Bobbie Caldwell.

Vacation Days Arrive
Lebanon—Vacations for nearly 1000 youngsters started as Lebanon schools closed their doors yesterday. Teachers met special appointments with pupils today but no classes were held.

Honoring War Dead
Lebanon—Lebanon's war dead will be honored in rites scheduled at 10 o'clock Memorial day at the monument to the unknown soldier in the Masonic cemetery. The Women's Relief corps is in charge of the ceremonies in which the local national guard, the American Legion units and the Veterans of Foreign Wars units will participate. Following the ceremonies, the Legion auxiliary will place a marker on the grave of Maybelle Snyder, gold star mother of the unit who died last summer.

Brush College Host For Annual Event
Brush College—Brush College is looking forward to the biggest event of the year, the annual homecoming, Saturday, June 1, when people from far and near will return to visit old friends and neighbors. The grounds were beautified last Saturday by the men of the community and Brush College helpers provided a hot dinner at noon.

The program committee, including Mrs. A. E. Uley, Nola Clark, Muriel Kaster, Scott Wilson and Loyal Whitney, has arranged an excellent program including address of welcome, songs, baby contest in the morning, basket dinner at noon and in the afternoon program by the school, graduation exercises for Brush College eighth grade pupils when Josiah Wells, county school superintendent, will give the address and present diplomas.

Street Oiling Bond Issue Considered
Stanton—A special meeting of the city council was held Monday evening for the purpose of considering the bond issue for the street oiling program and to provide engineering services for the work. Bonds in the amount of $12,000 were authorized by the voters at the last election. A petition was presented to the council asking that additional streets be paved at this time. The regular meeting of the council will be held on Monday night, June 3.

Feline Frightens Sleeping Woman Who Breaks Arm

Independence—Mrs. W. H. Bloch of Salem, who has been staying for a short time at the home of her sister here, Mrs. R. M. Walker, had the misfortune to break a bone in her right arm and is now carrying it in a sling.

She was rudely awakened from her slumbers by a large cat pouncing upon her bed; she threw up her arms as to break one of the bones in her forearm. She had been visiting her mother in Minnville a few days before. She has been attending business college in Salem. Mrs. Bloch resided in Independence for a number of years before going to Salem to live.

Achievement Day Observed

Turner—The Turner P. T. A. Achievement day was held at the Turner school grounds Friday. The day was opened with the presentation of awards earned by students of the Turner high school for various attainments.

During the first half of the morning's program the athletic awards for girls were presented by girls' coach, Miss Gertrude Roenike, and boys' coach, Orvo Nikula. Awards for outstanding scholarship were presented to Gordon Kunkle and Bernadine White, seniors, and to Dorothy Schifferer and Stanford Prather, underclassmen, by Mr. Scott, principal, and awards for activities were presented by Mrs. Allen to Edith Schifferer.

The senior class prophecy was read by Gordon Kunkle, and the senior class will be read by Jack Schifferer. The eighth grade closed the first half of the program by singing "Keep in the Middle of the Road." A 15-minute recess was allowed before the beginning of the grade school's part of the program. This program consisted of a song by the entire audience; "On the Train to Healthland," by the Primary department; "Dandelion Land," by the first intermediate department; vacation song, by the second intermediate department; song by the upper grades. Awards for penmanship and book league were presented by Mrs. Williams. The program was closed with the singing of "The Star Spangled Banner."

At noon a no-host dinner was served on the school grounds. In the afternoon exhibits of 4-H work, school work and flowers by the Garden club were shown. The display of flowers by the Garden club was under supervision of Mrs. Elizabeth Ball.

Rev. Lenz Assigned To Seattle Church
Dallas—Rev. F. A. Lenz, pastor of the Evangelical church in Dallas since 1937, has been assigned a church in Seattle, Wash., and will leave to take up his duties there the first week in June.

Rev. Lenz came to Dallas from the Nebraska conference in 1937 and since his arrival has built up the attendance of the church which has shown a steady growth and there has been marked improvements in all lines of activities in the church. The congregation loathes to see him leave.

Rev. Philip M. Thompson of Tacoma, Wash., has been assigned to fill the pulpit in the place left vacant by Rev. Lenz.

Past Noble Grand Club Entertained
Dallas—Mrs. Maurice Dalton and Mrs. George Hawkins entertained members of the Past Noble Grand club at the former's home Monday evening where a social time followed a short business meeting.

Mrs. Van Corder of Monmouth was a guest and others present included Mrs. N. L. Guy, Mrs. Louis Badley, Mrs. Roy Donahue, Miss Anne Hausberg, Mrs. Tracy Stants, Mrs. E. V. Dalton, Mrs. Jesse Witt, Mrs. J. R. Allgood and the two hostesses, Mrs. Hawkins and Mrs. Dalton.

Centennial Theme Grange Club Feature
Maclean—Centennial was the theme for the May meeting of the Maclean Home Economics club which was held at the home of Mrs. Robert Morton with Mrs. Morton and Mrs. Frank Bowers acting as hostesses.

The hostesses, dressed in costumes of a hundred years ago, greeted the guests at the door. Mrs. Morton in a green and white satin dress with full white satin skirt and green ruffled revers and green back with white ruffled Bertha collar and Mrs. Bowers in a green and brown silk with green fringe trimmed revers over the shoulders. The dress worn by Mrs. Bowers is over 75 years old and is a heirloom of the Bowers family.

Mrs. Albert Mader attended the meeting in a two tone green calico dress which was over a hundred years old and had been worn by her great grandmother. The dress which was collarless was made with a tight back and full skirt and both the long sleeves and the back of the dress were lined.

Mrs. M. M. Magee wore a sheer white dress with collarless bodice and full skirt with lace trim, and carried a fan that was over sixty years old and had belonged to her mother, Mrs. D. A. Harris. Her hat was over fifty years old and was worn by the mother of Mrs. W. H. Humphreys. Mrs. H. E. Martin's dress was of a blue print and was made with full skirt and tight bodice as was the rose print worn by Mrs. Marvin Wells. Mrs. Wells wore a large white picture hat.

Mrs. W. H. Humphreys wore a dress of blue print made with full skirt and with ruffled trimmings and tight bodice with a ruffle trimmed Bertha collar. A plain blue ruffled hat offered contrast for the print. The dress worn by Mrs. Fred Denham was a bow dress made with full skirt and bow trim down the front. Mrs. Lloyd Keen wore a print dress with full skirt and wore an old fashioned sunbonnet.

During the business meeting the club voted to give seventeen dollars to the American Red Cross for relief in the war area and voted to give a benefit dance June 18. Mrs. Lloyd Keen, Mrs. M. M. Magee and Mrs. C. A. Lynds were appointed on a committee to choose the 4-H club girl who would be awarded the Home Economics club's scholarship to the 4-H summer school at Corvallis this summer.

Members present at the club meeting were Mrs. H. E. Martin, Mrs. Marvin Wells, Mrs. Lloyd Keen, Mrs. Fred Denham, Mrs. Helen Harding, Mrs. J. L. Amor, Mrs. Clara Condit, Mrs. W. H. Humphreys, Mrs. Ida McMannick, Mrs. J. C. Sells, Mrs. J. C. Teckenberg, Mrs. Eva Keene, Mrs. W. A. Jones, Mrs. C. A. Lynds, Mrs. M. M. Magee, Mrs. Robert Morton, Mrs. Frank Bowers, and Mrs. Albert Mader.

Laywomen's Retreat Slated June 9th
Mt. Angel—With Rev. Joseph Meier, C.S.S.R., as retreat master for the annual June laywomen's retreat, held at Mt. Angel normal, the Benedictine Sisters are making preparations to accommodate a large number of retreatants. Those who have not yet sent in reservations are urged to do so this week.

Although the retreat will open formally on Friday morning, June 7, retreatants are urged to arrive Thursday afternoon or evening. The retreat will close at noon on Sunday, June 9.

The retreat is open to all women, as well as to girls above high school age. Further information may be secured from the Laywomen's Retreat Secretary, Mt. Angel, Oregon.

Student Honor Awards Given At Graduation

Silverton—Herman J. Kramer, principal of the senior high school, presented scholastic honors to students of the graduating class at a special standing during their three years' work as senior high school students last night following the formal graduation program.

Miss Carolyn Kaufman had previously been announced as valedictorian, and Robert Humphreys as salutatorian.

Students who maintained a grade of 2 or better during their high school career were: Frances L. Brewer, Bernice H. Hannan, Robert Humphreys, Elma Marie Hutton, Carolyn Kaufman, Frances Mae Mehl, Barbara Jane Pennell, Alan Thorndike, Vernice L. Tolleford, Carolyn Wagner, and Frances Jean Whitlock.

During the right to her name being engraved on the American Legion plaque for showing the greatest improvement during the year in leadership, scholarship and citizenship with the selection being made by the faculty, was Barbara Taylor. One name each year has been engraved on the American Legion plaque since 1935 on its presentation from Delbert Reeves Post, No. 7.

To earn the right of having the name engraved on the T. N. T. plaque, a senior boy and senior girl must qualify on a four-fold basis, namely: citizenship, character, leadership and scholarship. The choice is made by the entire vote of the student body and faculty. These were Elma Hutton and Alan Thorndike.

Dr. Bruce Baxter, president of Willamette university, addressed the graduates on the subject, "Choices." H. W. Adams, superintendent of schools, presided and Floyd Ellefson directed the musical numbers. Supplemental numbers were: Processional: "War March of the Priests of Atilia" School band. Invocation: "Hail, Mary" Mendelssohn. Selection: "High school chorus" Cain. Vocal solo: "Home" De Piccini. Accompanied by Lois Leard.

Presentation of Honors: Principal, Herman J. Kramer. Selection: "Overture" Hummel. School band. Presentation of diplomas: H. W. Adams, superintendent of schools. Selection: "Song to the Evening Star." Vocal solo: "Home" De Piccini. Tronchione solo by Fanny Rose. Band accompaniment. Benediction: Rev. J. O. Olson. Recessional: "Home and Chivalry" School band.

Decoration Day Plans Complete; Grades Through

Albany—Completion of plans for Memorial day observance here Thursday were announced Tuesday by B. E. Lee, W. V. Merrill and L. R. Reynolds, constituting the United Spanish War Veterans committee on arrangements.

The plans call for a parade originating at 10 o'clock at the Albany armory with the National Guard, patriotic organizations, public school students and Boy Scouts participating. The Albany high school band and the American Legion junior drum corps will furnish music.

Services will be held on the courthouse square following the parade with the Rev. Orville S. Mick, of the Albany Christian church, giving the address, members of the committee stated.

Certificates Earned
Albany—Eighth grade graduation certificates have been earned by 65 pupils at Madison school and 55 at Central City School Superintendent R. E. McCormack announced Tuesday. The total is 120. No ceremonies are planned since eighth grade graduation exercises have been largely supplanted by ninth grade ceremonies, which took place at Madison and Central schools Wednesday afternoon.

Gas Prices Cut
Albany—Albany gasoline distributors Tuesday were universally meeting reductions in prices of all grades of gasoline, as elsewhere. The price of gasoline a gallon was indicated as being 1 1/2 to 2 1/2 cents lower at service stations. Albany dealers claimed that the spread between inferior "bootleg" gasoline and the quality product has had a bearing upon Tuesday's price cut.
