gardens, bouvardia and lilacs-of-the-valley.

Her attendant was Mrs. Stanley Rioridan of McMinnville, who wore a floor length gown of powder blue in soft material and a dusty rose picture hat.

Stanley Rioridan of McMinnville was best man for Mr. Cook. Ushers were Irwin Wiscarver of McMinnville and Paul Warren of Portland.

Proceeding the ceremony Mrs. Jennie Warren of McMinnville sang "O, Perfect Love."

Mrs. Andrews, in pale pink crepe, matching turban and long gloves received more than 50 guests at the reception and breakfast at the Multnomah hotel, Portland.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Cook have been instructors in the McMinnville schools for several years. He is the son of Wilbur Cook of Dallas and a nephew of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Laughlin of Woodburn.

For going away the bride wore a print frock with tweed top coat and blue accessories. Her corsage was rosebuds and gardenias.

The couple plan a summer at the University of Washington and will make their home in McMinnville in the autumn, where Mr. Cook will continue as instructor in the high school.

Nebraska club auxiliary will meet for a no-host luncheon at the home of Mrs. Lucille Garner, corner of High and Union streets, Wednesday, June 26.

Fairfield — Mrs. Frank Stafford and Miss Joan Du Rette attended the wedding of Miss Norma Zinser of Coburg to Harold Reed of Medford. The wedding ceremony was held at the bride's home at Coburg Saturday, Miss Du Rette sang during the ceremony.

P.O.E. auxiliary will meet Friday evening in the Eagles hall at 9 o'clock for the last dance to be given before officers and the drill team leave for Marshfield, where the state convention will be held June 27-29. Proceeds from the affair will go towards defraying the expenses of the Salem delegation.

Pratum — The Pratum Emmanuel Mennonite church was the scene of a beautiful wedding Sunday afternoon, June 16, when Miss Lydia Gerig became the bride of Theodore Wilhelm. Rev. Maurice DeVries read the single ring ceremony in front of an arch entwined with green fern and roses. On either side were tall candelabra and in the foreground a number of palms. The candles were lighted by Miss Beulah Gerig and Miss Sarah Gerig. Both wore frocks of pink.

Proceeding the ceremony Miss Coramie and Miss Carmajan Hoffer, twin sisters, sang "I Love You Truly" and "Because." They wore yellow lace over satin. Irvan Branch accompanied them and played the wedding marches.

The bride wore a gown of white taffeta with square neck and puffed sleeves. Her finger tip veil was held in place with a wreath of orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of pink and white roses and a shower of rosebuds.

Miss Laura Gerig was maid of honor for her sister. She wore a gown of powder blue and carried a bouquet of sweet peas.

Little Laurine Fisher and Bobby Gerig, niece and nephew of the bride, carried small baskets with spring flowers. Laurine wore a floor length dress of yellow taffeta. Little Bobby wore a yellow satin blouse and light trousers. Elmer Witham acted as best man for his cousin.

The ushers were Walter Knuth and Harlow Kibby.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's mother. Those serving were Irene Knuth, Mina Gerig, Lucille Roth, Emma Herich, Gladys Gerig and Thelma Gerig.

For going away the bride chose a gray suit with white accessories. After a short time at the beach Mr. and Mrs. Whitman will live in the Witham house on Fruitland Road.

Pantry Patter

Although this is broiler and fryer season, large chickens and fowls are sometimes to be found at special prices. This is the time to plan with frugality, which may be served with either hot biscuits or rice.

Among vegetables we find tomatoes becoming more reasonable. Peas, cauliflower, summer squash, string beans and spinach are among the other vegetables which are good buys.

Birdie Real One For Bill Burns

Seattle, June 21 (AP)—Bill Burns, Redmond, Wash., golfer entered in the Pacific northwest open golf tournament, got a birdie on the sixth hole yesterday, but he had to mark down a par-four in his score card.

Burns' tee shot bounced squarely on the back of a bird standing in the fairway. Both the bird and the shot died on the spot.

To spite the mishap, Burns managed to get his par four on the long 479-yard hole.

Hubbard Out of Cascade League

Cascade League W. L. Pct. Turner ..... 6 1 .857 Stayton ..... 5 5 .500 Sweet Home ..... 5 2 .714 Sublimity ..... 2 3 .400 Astoria ..... 1 5 .167 Hubbard ..... 0 7 .000

Sunday's schedule Sweet Home at Turner. Astoria at Sublimity. Stayton bye. With the dropping out of Hubbard, the Cascade baseball league will go into its final games as a five team circuit. Just why Hubbard decided to quit was not made public. However, the club had not won a game during the season.

Next Sunday's contest between Sweet Home and Turner may well decide the championship, although the Turner-Stayton game the following week will be a crucial one.

Last Sunday Turner won over Astoria, 12 to 6, to remain on top. Meanwhile Stayton blasted Sweet Home 11 to 1 to drop the latter to third place. The results: Turner ..... 12 14 3 Astoria ..... 6 6 2 Russell and Blackwell; Lewis and McCallister. Humphreys, Stayton second baseman, hit two home runs, while Lucas, left fielder, came through with one circuit fly.

Claude Neely and the pianist Mrs. Helen Neely. An attendance of 1200 is the goal for registration by Saturday night. The camp fees will be handled by Charles H. Adleman for lodge rooms, conference cabins, dormitory, privately owned cabins and tent space.

Church Gets Holiday Woodburn — Rev. W. C. Cronk, pastor of the local Methodist church, left Monday to attend the annual conference in Portland. Mrs. F. W. Settlemyer left Thursday for the conference as the lay delegate from the Woodburn church. There will be no preaching services at the Methodist church here Sunday while Rev. Cronk is absent. Sunday school will be held at the usual hour.
