Senators Thump Caps 10-8 in Vancouver Park

The Salem Senators, who slugged their way to a two out of three game triumph over the Capitanos at Vancouver this week, return to Waters park tonight at 8:30. They will meet the Wenatchee Chiefs in a four game series, Friday, Saturday and Sunday nights at 8:30 and Sunday afternoon at 2:30. "Ladies' night" will be observed for tonight's contest.

(By the Associated Press)
The Salem Senators staged a seventh inning five run rally that included two homers to defeat the Vancouver Capitanos 10-8 in Vancouver last night, taking the Western International league series 2-1. Ed Wilson started the drive with a circuit clout. Two singles and a walk filled the bases and then Moose Clabaugh hit a homer.

Bunching all but one of their runs in the first two innings the Yakima Pippins defeated the Wenatchee Chiefs 10-6 in Wenatchee. Manager Goldie Holt of the Pippins hit a homer. Jimmy Jewell and Mel Cole got homers for the Chiefs.

A five run blast in the third inning gave the Spokane Indians a 9-7 victory over the Tacoma Tigers and the series 2-1. The Tigers staged a rally of their own in the seventh, good for four runs, one short of knotting the count.

Smead Jolley sparked the Indians' attack with a three run double that drove Charles Schanz from the mound in the third.

Woodburn Juniors Play Oregon City

Woodburn—The first Legion Junior competition for the Woodburn team will be Sunday when the local team meets the Oregon City Legion Juniors at Legion Park here at 2:30 o'clock. Although this will be a practice game it will provide a definite test of the strength of each team. Oregon City is expected to be the team the champion of this district will have to play for the right to enter the state finals at Hillsboro.

Congdon Sets Hot Pace at Seattle

Seattle, June 21 (AP)—They hit the final stretch in the 72 hole Pacific northwest open golf tournament at the Sand Point Country club today, and it will take 36 holes of an amazing sub-par golf if anybody is going to flag down Chuck Congdon.

Paper Mill Clubs Double Winners

The paper mill's entrants in the Industrial softball circuit turned in wins last night. It was the second time within a week they had turned this trick. The Office squad beat Montgomery Ward 5 to 1 while the Machinists trounced Kay Mill 17 to 5.

Softball Games At 8 Tonight

Two regulation softball games will be played tonight on Sweetland field beginning at 8 o'clock. The first contest will bring together Schoen's Bakers and the Papermakers. The nightcap features Kennedy's and Golden Pheasant.

P-B Softball Squad Edged Out by Florists

Pade-Barrick girls' softball aces, minus the services of their stellar sluggers, Pat Carson and Barbara Kurtz, fell victims last night to their arch-rivals from Portland, the Lind-Pomeroy Florists by a hair-line 6 to 5 decision.

Chilean Takes Unmerciful Beating, Louis

These were Bill Brown's words to the photographers after his first look at Arturo Godoy in the South American's dressing room after his knockout by Joe Louis.

For 22 minutes and 21 seconds—until he pitched forward to land on the back of his neck, bloody, almost blind, and out of his senses—he was persecuted as mercilessly as a bull in an arena. So closely did the fight parallel a bull fight, with the big, helpless, clumsy but terribly brave Chilean serving as the bull, and the fast, sure, confident, and quick-striking Louis playing the role of matador, one would not have been surprised had Louis, at the kill, taken an ear of his foe and thrown it to the crowd.

Had Louis done this Godoy would not have known the difference, because the South American had been punched beyond reason at this point. All he had left at the finish was an inner spark of courage that somehow enabled him to wrest himself loose from the referee's arms and, on legs of rubber, totter toward the champion's corner to carry on the fight. Ten policemen were needed to pinion his arms to his side and strong-arm him back to his corner.

McMillan Tops State Hitters

Portland, June 21 (AP)—Buster McMillan of the Portland Babes led the Oregon state baseball league in hitting today with an average of .529—nine hits in 17 times at bat.

The softballers are making a better financial showing. The receipts, following the opening night, dropped like a depth bomb. But they have rebounded and the prospects are for a fairly normal season. The management lost a couple of bucks on the second night of play and then cleared 55 cents on the next. Since then the gate has been ascending and a $35 night, about the average last year, was reported earlier this week. Expenses for a night's operations with local teams engaged, are around $20. It would be pretty hard to trim that unless volunteer help was secured, which is scarcely probable.

Biddy Bishop, Salem Senator business manager, has arranged a game with the Eugene Athletics for the night of July 22 on the Eugene diamond. It should be a fairly lucrative venture in view of the fact that the Solons carry two former Eugene performers — Bud Brewer and Bobby Baer. The latter is one of Coach Howard Hobson's Oregon prospects. Speaking of Brewer, did you ever hear of a more lucky moundman? Not that Bud hasn't ability. He has been fortunate on a number of occasions in being yanked from the firing line at the right time and having his relief go ahead and keep the Senators out of trouble. When a fellow can dish up 18 hits, resulting in 11 runs and still be credited with winning the ball game, he really has something. We suggest they change his nickname from "Cockey" to "Lucky."

Two hours and 50 minutes of baseball (if you can term it that) is too much. We hope we never are compelled to sit through such a bombardment as the Capitanos and Senators unlimbered at Vancouver Wednesday night. We are still hopeful for a pitchers' battle with the boys leaving the diamond after a brisk hour and a half and a 1 to 0 score. Off hand we can't recall a couple of chuckers in the W-I circuit capable of turning the trick. This is particularly the case with every squad carrying a wrecking crew... Spokane has decided to complete the deal for A. Murray O'Flynn, the hurler who handcuffed the Senators for five frames then busted his suspenders.

Even if Carl Mays, one time baseball great, didn't develop a single Class B performer, he would still be doing a good job. Any one who has taken time to sit in on one of his "skull sessions" will back up that statement. For it's not all diamond play at Mays' baseball school operated at Waters park. Of course Carl wants to develop talent for he loves the national game. But he takes time out each day to impress upon the boys the value of good citizenship, respect for other's rights and property. In fact if a program could be worked out where a "Carl Mays" would be available for each community of the country, we would have no fear of "fifth column" operations. Drop out and get a line on what's going on out at the South 25th street park some afternoon.

Whether Oscar Vitt is temperamentally fit to manage a ball club will undoubtedly be determined by the Cleveland Indians management. However, reports from the players indicate his actions cannot be expected to get the most out of his men. Members of the Indians' club are quoted by the Cleveland Plain Dealer as charging Vitt with saying during a game with the Red Sox when Bob Feller was being hit hard: "Look at him! He's supposed to be my ace! I'm supposed to win a pennant with that kind of pitching."

Feller was reported to have heard the comment as he stood on the pitching mound. Other accusations of the players and published by the Plain Dealer, accuse Vitt of: being a "wild man" on the bench and communicating his jitters to his men; that he persists in comparing the Indians unfavorably with minor league teams he has managed; that the club has lost dignity and pride through his antics and that Vitt has become a laughing stock among other players.

Alaskan Soldier Home
Fairview—Matt Parvin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Parvin, who has completed his five year enlistment in the air service, stationed in the Arctic circle, has arrived home. He is undecided but contemplates re-enlistment at Fairbanks, Alaska, within two weeks. He was home once in the five years and that was a little over one year ago.

Theatre Squad Leads Lebanon

Lebanon—With four consecutive wins and no defeats the Kuhn theatre nine is now leading the Lebanon adult softball league, and the Papermakers and Bennett's grocery are tied for second, each with three victories and one defeat to their credit.

The league, consisting of eight members, is now in its third week and the first half will end July 5. Doubleheaders are played three times a week.
