Bombs Increase Protection

New York, June 21 (AP)—Increased precautions were taken today to guard representatives of belligerent nations in New York—the aftermath of two bombings which damaged buildings housing the German consulate and the communist publication, the Daily Worker.

Ten persons were hurt in the blasts occurring 40 minutes apart last yesterday. The first explosion, injuring nine, shattered windows and wrecked furniture at a German money exchange firm on the 18th floor of the Whitehall building overlooking Battery Park.

On the floor above are the offices of Dr. Hans Borchers, German consulate general. They were undamaged and consulate attaches scoffed at police suggestions the consulate was the target, insisting that the firm below (Deutscher Handels und Wirtschaftsdienst) had no link with the consulate or official Germany.

The Daily Worker building two miles uptown, in which are the principal offices of the communist party in America, was bombed later. The blast tore away a door-step and shattered windows. It injured a young woman concert singer who had been standing in the hallway.

Two busts of Josef Stalin in the display window of the Workers bookshop were showered with glass. District Attorney Thomas E. Dewey and police immediately started inquiries. Dewey declaring he sought to determine "if this is the work of a crackpot or an organized effort to create trouble."

Hitler Seizes Historic Car

Berlin, June 21 (AP)—Adolf Hitler tonight ordered the historic armistice railway car of 1918 and 1940 to be brought to Berlin.

Pasadena, Calif., June 21 (AP)—An armistice structure that houses the historic railway dining car in Compton, where French and German high officials met today to talk peace was the gift to the French government of Arthur H. Fleming, retired millionaire lumberman of this city.

While traveling in France a number of years ago, Fleming, also a former attorney and resident of Detroit, saw the car, in which French Marshal Foch handed the Germans the 1918 armistice terms, standing in the open, being deteriorated by the elements.

He communicated with the French government and his offer of a gift of a $10,000 structure to house the historic car was accepted. He later was decorated by France. The building is a one story concrete shrine.

Windsor's Plans Uncertain

Barcelona, June 21 (AP)—The Duke of Windsor said today that his plans for the future were "unsettled" and that he and his American-born duchess, the former Wallis Warfield Simpson, were not "at present" considering a trip to the United States.

"I won't know for sure what I am going to do until I get to Madrid," the duke said through a spokesman. "We leave for there in the next day or so."

The spokesman said the Riviera was "normal" when the former British monarch and his party left there to take refuge in Spain—"as normal as it has been in the last fortnight," he added.

Alice Butler, Pioneer, Dies At Monmouth

Miss Alice Butler, 82, one of the few remaining early day pioneers of Polk county, passed away at the family residence in Monmouth Friday morning. Miss Butler was the last remaining child of Ira F. M. and Mary Ann Butler, who crossed the plains by covered wagon in 1853 and settled in Polk county.

Miss Butler was born near Monmouth on the Butler farm August 6, 1858, and lived her entire life in that community. Her older sister, Margaret, and devoted life-long companion, preceded her in death just a year ago.

It was the parents and related families of Miss Butler who were largely instrumental in establishing the town of Monmouth and the original Christian church.

Miss Butler was a member of the Christian church, the Rebekah lodge and the Grange. She was past noble grand of the Rebekahs and had been active in other civic affairs.

One of the joys of her life was the ability of herself and sister to provide a home and assist 40 or more young people to obtain an education at Monmouth college.

Miss Butler is survived by three great nephews, Clares, Herbert and Ira Powell, sons of the late Ira Powell of Monmouth, and by two nephews, Ralph M. Butler and W. D. Butler of Napa, California.

Funeral services will be held in Monmouth from the Christian church Sunday, June 23, at 2 p. m., and interment will take place in the old Davidson cemetery near Monmouth where her parents and other members of the family are buried.

Centennial To Draw Crowds

There is state-wide interest in the Salem Centennial scheduled for late July and early August and it is expected capacity crowds will witness the pageant each night of its showing at the fairgrounds.

Such was the report brought to members of the Salem Realty board during their luncheon Friday noon by Doris Smith, pageant director. The speaker urged full cooperation of the citizens of Salem in making the centennial a success since "it is your show."

While difficulty was encountered in providing a sufficient number of persons for various sections of the cast, Mrs. Smith expressed the opinion that she would be able to secure the 2500 necessary.

She described the stage which will be erected directly in front of the grandstand at the state fairgrounds, which will have outside dimensions of 300 by 100 feet. Solid construction is needed in view of the fact that horses will be ridden through the setting of the "Waldo Hills."

Blueprints were completed this forenoon by N. C. Hubbs, county engineer.

"It is important that we keep alive our traditions of peace and prosperity," the speaker said in asking for full participation on the part of the citizens of Salem.

Cal Ray Leads In First Half Of State Shoot

Cal Ray of Coquille, Ore., breezing through 100 straight, was out in front as 130 scatter gun artists from the Pacific slope completed the first half of the class championship event shortly before noon today.

The event was the first of a series to be shot during the three day festivity of the annual Oregon state trapshoot being held at the Salem Trapshooters' club grounds on the Turner road. A light north-west breeze failed to hamper the shooters who were contesting for more than $5,000 in prize money under a clear sky. The balance of the 200 rounds were being fired early this afternoon, with the sliding handicap of 100 targets to follow.

Louis Fisher of Pacific City, Ore., making his first appearance at a shoot of this nature; Ray Glass of Eugene, E. Colson, Jr., of Tacoma, J. L. Coffey of Port Angeles, Wash., and E. W. Rescue Liner Ends Voyage

New York, June 21 (AP)—Safely home after a dramatic brush with a submarine, the United States liner Washington docked today with 1,788 passengers, most of them American citizens who fled the European war zone.

It was disclosed that a group of passengers, headed by Donald Harper, New York and Paris lawyer, petitioned Capt. Harry Manning to proceed directly to the United States after the submarine encounter instead of making a scheduled stop at Galway, Ireland, to pick up additional refugees.

Captain Manning communicated with the state department direct and the next day posted a bulletin which said that authorities considered it unwise to change the ship's course as outlined to belligerent nations and that any change might jeopardize the vessel's safety.

Whistles and sirens of harbor craft greeted the Washington as she moved up the bay and a crowd estimated by police at between 1,500 and 2,000 persons, many of them waving American flags, waited on the pier.

There were 700 children on board, many of them infants who slept in baskets on the covered decks.

Says America Shies from War

Rome, June 21 (AP)—The United States, "stirred by war gestures of many of their men and newspapers," do not "seem ready to let themselves be drawn into a European war which does not concern them," Virginia Gayda, fascist editor frequently regarded as Premier Mussolini's mouthpiece, wrote today.

He declared in Il Giornale d'Italia that Washington's "invoking the Monroe Doctrine in notes to European capitals" is "proof of hesitation toward adventure in North America."

Gayda then repeated his previous assertion that American intervention in Europe would establish a precedent for possible European intervention in American interests.

Italy carried on her war with Britain and France with her air arm while awaiting France's reply to the armistice terms of the axis powers. It was kept secret whether Italian negotiations with France were being conducted separately or jointly with Germany.

"Nobody but Mussolini and Hitler knows the terms," said authoritative fascists. The Italian high command, meantime, declared that Italian air attacks on the French base at Bizerte, Tunisia, and the British naval base on the island of Malta were "severe and effective."

The communists said Italian planes violently bombed the air base at Matruh, port on the Mediterranean coast of Egypt. Successful land operations against the British in Africa were claimed.

800 Autos in Valsetz And 1 Trojan Horse

Valsetz, Ore., June 21 (U.P.)—The Valsetz Star dedicated its June issue today to the republican national convention and 12-year-old Editor Dorothy Ann Hobson gave the delegates this advice: "We are standing behind President Roosevelt and Kate Smith in these awful times, and we think the republicans had better too."

Elsewhere, however, Miss Hobson maintained her usually unwavering republicanism with the assertion that "we think the next president will be a republican."

Disillusionment crept into the paper which has entertained readers in widely scattered parts of the country for three years.

United States To Aid Mexico Build Defense

Mexico City, June 21 (AP)—A high source declared Thursday President Lazaro Gardenas had approved a program which would more than quadruple Mexico's armed forces with the aid of the United States.

This source asserted that within a few weeks a credit of more than $10,000,000 from the United States would be made available to the Mexican government to carry out this expansion under 60 technical experts from the United States army and navy.

Additional millions would be allocated later by the Mexican finance ministry, it was reported.

The United States government was said to be determined that Mexico should not be used as an avenue of invasion by any aggressor power, and it was understood the American credits would be made available on generous terms.

The American determination was said to have been communicated to President Gardenas before Tuesday's cabinet session, at which universal military training and "other defense measures" were endorsed for submission next month to an extraordinary session of congress.

This defense program was reported on high authority to include: Increase of the standing army to more than 112,000 men, including those on reserve lists.

Increase of the officer corps by approximately 10,000, of whom 1,000 would be sent to American army centers for special training.

Acquisition of six destroyers from the United States to strengthen the Mexican navy.

Establishment of air bases at strategic points around Puerto Mexico, Acapulco, Tampico, Salina Cruz, Vera Cruz, and Quintana Roo.

Improvement of port facilities at Vera Cruz, Puerto Mexico and Salina Cruz—including deepening of channels, new wharves and repair and supply facilities.

Nazis Mop Up Maginot Line

Berlin, June 21 (AP)—Germany's military machine showed steel spearheads deeper into France "on schedule" today as representatives of Germany, Italy and France turned to the shell torn forest of Compiègne—scene of Germany's capitulation in 1918—for armistice talks.

Reports of additional booty came from the Germans as they mopped up sections of the Maginot line and took new places in Normandy, Brittany and the region between the Loire estuary and the Rhone valley.

The newspaper Der Angriff said two 35,000 ton French battleships, the Clemenceau and the Richelieu, were seized at Brest, where they are being built.

The high command reported these successes: Capture of 700 brand new tanks at Nancy, near Glen; the sinking by submarines of four British merchant ships, one of them a royal mail steamer of 11,000 tons; and the sinking by fighting and dive bombing air units of a 10,000 ton transport and a 4,000 ton auxiliary warship in the Gironde estuary.

The capture of Lyon, French city which fell to the Germans yesterday, was noted in today's communiqué which said that German troops were pushing through Burgundy.

The French were reported "stoutly resisting" in the Maginot line in Lorraine and Alsace while encircled groups in the western Vosges mountains are continuing their fight against the nazis.

Pan-American Economic Plan Offered by FDR

pers this morning and if he started commenting on all of them he didn't know when he would get through."

But he said he had been thinking, after he retired on a special train last night, that there was some sort of difference between people—that there were those who think in terms of patriotic motives and those who think with partisan motives, and that this is a very difficult time.

Further than which, he added, deponent sayeth not.

To a question of whether his remarks could be regarded as an answer to some critics who contended he was establishing a "war cabinet," Mr. Roosevelt replied in the affirmative.

The president did not disclose details of how his plan for Pan-American economic cooperation would work out, but he added that perhaps a series of corporations might be formed, each to handle a specific export commodity. Or perhaps one corporation might be set up, he said, with divisions in charge of separate commodities.

All to Subscribe As for capital structure necessary for the new program, the chief executive said $1,000,000,000 or $2,000,000,000 was too much.

You see, he said, you can do with a corporation, ordinarily, five to ten times as much volume of business as you have capital structure.

"Would it be up to the United States to supply the capital?" he was asked.

"Oh, no," the president replied, "everybody would come in on it, as it doesn't require a very big amount."

What is in prospect, the president said in his formal statement, is creation by mutual agreement of "an appropriate inter-American organization for dealing with certain basic problems of their trade relations, including an effective system of joint marketing of the important staple exports of the American republics."

Trade Decreases "We intend also to proceed promptly and vigorously through many existing agencies," he went on, "to deal with various immediate difficulties now facing some American republics."

To a request for amplification of that point, Mr. Roosevelt remarked that in the last six months, for instance, exports of meat from Argentina, Uruguay and Brazil had fallen off a large percentage, as had exports of Argentine wheat and United States cotton.

In most cases the decreases were more than 50 per cent, he said.

He emphasized that commodities handled by the proposed organization would be marketed outside this hemisphere. It is unfortunate, the president said, that some people are crooked enough to say the program means the importation of the whole Argentine beef surplus.

Actually, he explained, it means the pooling of staple crops grown in common and getting them off this continent.

The total amount of crops would be less than $2,000,000,000, he said, turning to Harry Hopkins, secretary of commerce, who sat beside him, for verification of the figure. Hopkins said that the crops involved outside the United States were worth around a billion and that the total probably would fall under two billion.
