

Harry Berry's "Sunkist Vanities"—Twenty-five people in ten big headline acts opening tomorrow for three big days at the State theatre. Pictured above is Miss Rosita, a bundle of joy, who dances to the torrid music of the Swing-O-Patting Sirens, an all-girl band of the "Sunkist Vanities." Featured on the screen is "Two Girls on Broadway" starring Lana Turner, Joan Blondell and George Murphy.

Between Pals—It's A Pleasure—Bobby Breen and Kent Taylor are planners in the plotting and Maria Shelton is the motive in the center of it all—as this scene from "Escape to Paradise" would seem to indicate. This, together with "The Amazing Mr. Williams," which co-stars Melvyn Douglas and Joan Blondell, are seen at the Hollywood theatre for three days starting Sunday.

Maria Sallet, one of the world famous puppeteers now playing at the 1940 Golden Gate International Exposition, dresses one of the little stringed stars for a performance. The amazing show is proving one of the outstanding attractions on Treasure Island.

Shepards Are Hosts For Family Dinner

Zena—Mr. and Mrs. Ralph C. Shepard were hosts to a family dinner Sunday with all except three of their 10 children present. Present were Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Shepard, Mr. and Mrs. Leland Bassett (Julia Shepard) and children, Maurice and Rosalie, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Kime (Dorothy Shepard) and children, Norma and David, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Shepard and sons, Michael and Dennis, Ruth, Joe and Arden Shepard. Additional guests were Mr. and Mrs. A. Gregory and children, Dorothy and Bill, Robert Wright, Bonneville, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bassett and daughter, Betty, of Lyons.

Returning to Iowa—Pleasantdale—Mrs. Alfred Nichols and her daughter, Miss Linnie Nichols, of Waterloo, Iowa, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Johnson and daughter, Lorraine Johnson, of Cedar Falls, Iowa, left for their home Monday after a vacation with Miss Esther Nichols and other relatives and friends in the Willamette valley.

Humanity Thrilled—The story of a great American, "Edison the Man," starts Sunday at the Elsinore theatre, with Henry Travers, Spencer Tracy and Gene Reynolds, seen above, in the title roles. The second feature is the March of Time offering of "U. S. Navy, 1940."

Ruled by Lead—Randolph Scott and Errol Flynn demonstrate the only kind of law that got any respect in the dangerous days depicted in "Virginia City," starting today at the Capitol theatre in addition to "The Secret Four."

Holman and Snell Send Telegrams

Secretary of State Earl Snell telegraphed Senator McNary that his selection as republican vice-presidential candidate is "a tribute to the qualities of leadership, ability and statesmanship" of Senator McNary. Snell said the nomination is "recognition of the importance to the nation of agriculture and its problems. The republican nominees, Willie and McNary, present a sound, well-balanced, progressive and confidence-inspiring ticket."

Windishar to Be Reception Guest

A large Salem delegation is expected to attend the public dinner and reception to be tendered Thomas A. Windishar, state deputy-elect of the Knights of Columbus, which will be held Sunday evening at 6:30 o'clock at the Portland hotel, Portland.

The affair is sponsored jointly by the Salem and Portland K. of C. councils. Representing the Salem council are Dan Hay, A. I. Ervin, Joseph Wishman, Edward Majek and William Bush.

Guests from Salem will include Mayor W. W. Chadwick and Mrs. Chadwick, and Earl Snell, secretary of state, and Mrs. Snell, Governor Charles A. Sprague will be represented by Coe McKenna of Portland. Archbishop Edward D. Howard will deliver the principal address of the evening, the lay address to be presented by Albert V. Fonder.

Charles J. Lair will officiate as toastmaster and the rites attendant upon the induction into office of Mr. Windishar will be in charge of Dr. L. M. Boire, past grand master of the Portland council.

Edward Bell, Stayton, past state deputy, will represent the state Knights of Columbus officers.

An invitation has been extended to the Catholic clergy of the state to attend the function, which is also open to the general public.

Mr. and Mrs. Windishar will attend the national Knights of Columbus annual convention which will be held at Chicago in August.
