

Wed at Garden Rites—Mr. and Mrs. Boatner Chamberlain, who were married in a beautiful garden ceremony last Sunday afternoon at the home of the bride's parents, Dr. and Mrs. R. C. Field, in Sheridan. The bride was Ruth Field Minnaugh, formerly of Salem, before her marriage. The couple will live in Portland. (Jesten-Miller.)

MISS RUTH REASOR, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Reasor, is announcing plans for her marriage to Howard Cole, son of Curtis C. Cole and the late Mrs. Cole. The ceremony will be solemnized at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon, July 28, in the First Christian church with Rev. Guy L. Drill officiating. Miss Beverly Jean Arnett, of Portland will light the altar candles preceding the ceremony. The bride, who will be given in marriage by her father, has asked Miss Erma Cole, sister of the bridegroom, to be her honor attendant. The bridesmaids will be Miss Geraldine Arnett, cousin of the bridegroom, Miss Beth de Lapp, Mrs. Leslie Carson (Opal Yates) and Mrs. James Whitaker (Josephine Hull). Master Raymond Lambert of Portland will be the ring bearer.

Emmett Rickard of Eugene will be the best man and ushers will include James Whitaker, Clifton Cass, Francis Leffler of Stayton and Ray Harold, the latter two being cousins of the bridegroom. A reception will follow in the church parlors with members of the wedding party and the two families receiving. Miss Ina Harold of Silverton and Mrs. M. E. Hatcher of Omak, Wash., will cut the loaves, Mrs. A. J. Arnett will dispense the wedding cake and Mrs. Arthur Leffler of Stayton will preside at the punch bowl. A group of young matrons and maids will assist in serving.

Following the reception the couple will leave by motor for the Oregon beaches. Upon their return they will make their home in Oregon City, where Mr. Cole will serve as pastor in the First Christian church. The bride-elect attended Willamette university, where she was an Alpha Phi Alpha, and is a graduate of the University of Oregon. Mr. Cole attended Willamette university and Northwest Christian college before receiving his master's degree at Phillips university.

Mr. and Mrs. Chandler Brown and Miss Plum Brown are enjoying a sojourn at their Seal Rocks summer place.

The Prime ranch was the scene of a gala splash party and picnic Thursday evening when a group of the younger set entertained with a no-host party. Attending were the Misses Mary Prime, Dorothy Cook, Esle Snyder, Louise Ramage, Shirley Lamb and their escorts, Ed Keyes, Tom Williams, Bemmer Elva, Ralph Franklin and Maynard Edlund.

Lange-Driggs
Dwight chapel on the Yale university campus at New Haven, Connecticut, was the scene of a beautiful ceremony at 4 o'clock this afternoon when Miss Mary Lois Driggs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. P. Driggs of Salem, became the bride of Kenneth Lange, son of Mrs. Josephine Lange of Salem. A few close friends of the couple witnessed the impressive service. The bride wore a costume suit of navy blue Panoram mesh combined with white georgette, a small blue hat and white and blue accessories. Her corsage was of gardenias.

Grant Robley of New Haven was Mr. Lange's best man.

Following a honeymoon in New York the couple will make their home in New Haven, where Mr. Lange will be a member of the Yale faculty during the ensuing year.

Mrs. Lange is a graduate of Oregon State college and a member of Kappa Delta. Mr. Lange is a graduate of Oregon State college, where he was affiliated with Phi Sigma Kappa and Tau Beta Pi. He took advanced work at Yale university during the past year.

Mrs. D. B. Thompson of Corvallis is accompanying her daughter, Miss Eva Thompson of Salem, on a motor trip to Yellowstone National park and other points of scenic interest.

The D. A. R. pioneer cabin at Champog was opened last Sunday with members of Chemeketa chapter acting as hostesses. The group motored to the cabin for a 10 o'clock breakfast and in the later afternoon dinner was enjoyed. Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Rex Davis, Mr. and Mrs. David Wright, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Ostlund, Mr. and Mrs. M. P. Adams, Judge and Mrs. I. M. Schanep, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Hanson.

LIGHTED CANDLES will be at the golden windows of the First Presbyterian church and at the end of each pew next Friday evening when Miss Margaret Ann Kells, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Kells, becomes the bride of Harley Burmond Hiestand, son of Dr. and Mrs. Harley J. Hiestand of Pennville, Ind. Dr. Bruce R. Baxter and Dr. W. Irvin Williams will officiate in the presence of a distinguished assemblage of guests, many of whom will come from out-of-town.

The altar will be graced with arrangements of white gladioluses and tall cathedral candles, which will be lighted by Miss Carol Gardner of Berkeley and Miss Betty Zook of Portland. Miss Mary Elizabeth Kells, sister of the bride, will sing the "Ave Maria" and "Lord's Prayer" before the ceremony.

The bride will be escorted to the altar on the arm of her father. She will wear an Empire model of Ivory satin enhanced with Chantilly lace, fashioned off-the-shoulders with full skirt, long court train and three-quarter sleeves. Her veil of illusion will be edged with Chantilly lace and caught in a cap with orange blossoms and lilies-of-the-valley. Her bouquet will be a shower of white spray orchids and lilies-of-the-valley.

Miss Mary Elizabeth Kells, the maid of honor, will wear a picturesque gown of fuchsia net designed with a double skirt, puffed sleeves and tight bodice. She will wear a coronet of flowers on her hair and carry a bouquet of yellow water lilies and blue delphinium.

The bridesmaids, the Misses Frances Alice Kells, another sister, Miss June Brasted of Portland, Miss Elisabeth James and Miss Frances Paris, will wear identical gowns of hyacinth blue marquisette trimmed with dainty blue lace, made in similar fashion to the honor attendants'. They will carry cascades of du-bonnet and yellow water lilies.

Little Miss Alceita Gilbert, daughter of the Tinkham Gilberts, will wear a Kate Greenaway frock of hyacinth blue and carry a basket of water lilies.

Mr. Hiestand will have Robert O. Smith as his best man and ushers will include Max Hauser of Spokane, John Laughlin, George McLeod, both of Salem, and Fred Hake of Yonkers, N. Y.

Mrs. Kells will wear a handsome model of dusty rose lace with an amethyst necklace and accessories and a corsage for her daughter's wedding. Mrs. Hiestand will be distinguished in a gown of blue lace and a corsage.

Directly after the ceremony a reception will be held in the Kells home and gardens in Salem Heights with the wedding party, Mr. and Mrs. Kells and Dr. and Mrs. Hiestand receiving. During the reception Miss Mary Elizabeth Kells will sing with Miss Alice Cray Brown as her accompanist.

Presiding at the serving table will be Mrs. Charles A. Sprague, Mrs. C. P. Bishop, Mrs. Paul B. Wallace and Mrs. Bruce R. Baxter. Miss Lois Hiestand, sister of the bridegroom, will cut the wedding cake. Mrs. J. J. Pantion will be in charge of the dining room.

Assisting about the rooms and with the serving will be Miss Gwen Griffith of Olympia, Miss Esther Gunnesdal, Miss Helen Duley, Miss Betty Starr and Miss Love Bogardus, all of Portland, Miss Eleanor Perry, Miss Bernice Humphrey, Mrs. Robert Rieder and Mrs. George Allen.

For traveling the bride will wear a gray-blue frock with blue eyelet embroidery lapels, a coat of velour du nord with a matching crownless turban and a corsage of white orchids.

Following a honeymoon at Timberline Lodge, Victoria, Banff and Lake Louise, Mr. Hiestand and his bride will return by motor to Pennville, Indiana.

Mr. Hiestand and his sister, Miss Lois Hiestand, are arriving today from the east. Dr. and Mrs. Hiestand will arrive on the streamliner next Thursday and will be met in Portland by their son and his fiancée. They will be guests at the Kells home until after the wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. Kells will entertain with a buffet supper Thursday evening at their Salem Heights place honoring their daughter, Mr. Hiestand and members of their wedding party following the rehearsal.

Dr. and Mrs. W. Wells Baum and Teddy and Frances Baum have returned from a stay in San Francisco, where they attended the Golden Gate exposition.

Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Lauderback, who recently came from Seattle, have taken a house in South High street and with their two children are now at home there.

LAZY days are here and the most exertion capital socialites seem to make is the effort to plan holiday trips here and there. Beach and mountain resorts are popular and this week-end will see many Salem residents wending their way to holiday spots.

Social interest late in the month will be found on events to be given in conjunction with the Salem Centennial. Many out-of-town visitors will be incentives for much informal entertaining.

The engagement of Miss Velma May and John Hughes, which was announced by the bride-elect's mother, Mrs. Ermal Cramer, last Monday, evoked cordial interest among the younger contingent.

The marriage of Miss Peggy Munger, daughter of Mrs. Tongue Munger, and James Edgar Payne of Kelso, solemnized Friday at the First Presbyterian church, was another event of interest on the past week's social agenda.

Mrs. George Gerlinger of Portland was the guest of Mrs. Charles L. McNary at Fircone Wednesday.

Of cordial interest to Salem society circles is the announcement made today by Mr. and Mrs. Frank C. Conner of Stamford, Connecticut, of the engagement of their daughter, Miss Eloise Conner, and Charles Kay Bishop of Washougal, Wash., formerly of Salem, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Chauncey Bishop. The wedding will be an event of late September.

Miss Conner is a graduate of Cornell university and the Katharine Gibbs school in New York. She is affiliated with Delta Delta Delta and Phi Beta Kappa, national scholastic honora.

Mr. Bishop, who is the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Bishop and Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Gabrielson, all of Salem, attended the University of Oregon where he was a member of Beta Theta Pi fraternity, and is a graduate of the Philadelphia Textile school. He is now connected with the Washougal Mills.

Following their marriage in Stamford Mr. Bishop will bring his bride west and they will be "at home" in Washougal.

Miss Conner arrived in Portland last week-end and is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Chauncey Bishop at their Portland Heights home.

Charming visitors in the capital during the past few days have been Mr. and Mrs. L. U. Colwell of Maumee, Ohio, and Dr. and Mrs. Dean Elsea of Detroit, Mich., who have been guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Scollars and Mrs. Flora Thomas on Fairmount hill.

Trips to Timberline lodge, Cloud Cap Inn and the Oregon beaches have been arranged for the visitors' pleasure during their stay.

Mrs. Thomas de Beck Livesley and her young son have recently been visitors at the home of her parents in Vancouver, B. C.

Reveals Betrothal—Miss Velma May, daughter of Mrs. Ermal Cramer, whose engagement to John Hughes, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Frank Hughes, was announced earlier in the week. The bride-elect is a popular member of the younger set.

EARLY OREGON TEA will be given next Wednesday by the women of the First Presbyterian church at the home of Mrs. George Pearce, 267 North Winter street, with all interested Salem and out-of-town folk invited to call from 2 to 5 o'clock in the afternoon and from 7 to 9 o'clock in the evening.

A fine collection of antiques, including rare old books, fans, china, silver and quilts, will be on display, according to the directorate, which will include Mrs. Pearce, Dr. Helen Pearce, Miss Dorothy Pearce, Mrs. Lewis Judson, Mrs. S. B. Gillette, Mrs. Lloyd Springer, Mrs. L. E. Barrick and Mrs. John W. Harrison.

Several items of particular interest will be the sewing basket brought to America from England by Mrs. C. P. Bishop when she was a lass of three; pieces from Mrs. Bishop's collection of rare old lace; an unusual Paisley shawl, the possession of Mrs. George E. Allen; Mrs. George Pearce's collection of fans and old jewelry.

Pink lemonade and old-fashioned sugar cookies will be served from a table appointed in antique silver, china and crystal. Assisting in serving will be the Misses Geraldine Schmoker, Rosemary Gaiser, Barbara Williams, June Young and Evangeline McKinley.

Salem friends of Mrs. Frank Jordan of Seattle will be interested to learn that she will return in early August from an extended visit in New York and other eastern points.

Salem friends of Miss Edith Carter Kunev of the Oregon State college faculty will be interested to learn that she is vacationing in Berkeley, Calif.

Miss Ruth Jean Garnjobst, Miss Sally McLellan and Miss Marylee Fry will entertain the Spinators with a gala picnic on the banks of the Santiam river Monday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl G. Collins have returned from a holiday at Neskwim.

Motoring to Bend last week-end to attend the water pageant were Mrs. Frank Snedecor, Mrs. Charles Gray and Mrs. H. P. Boise, who were registered at the Pilot Butte Inn during their stay.

Being warmly welcomed from an extended motor trip through the old south and east are Mrs. Clifford Brown, Miss Edith Schryver and Miss Elizabeth Lord.

AN IMPORTANT event of the coming week will be the dance recital to be given by Miss Elizabeth Waters of New York City and her "Dancers En Route" Wednesday night at the Salem high school auditorium at 8 o'clock under the sponsorship of Beta Sigma Phi.

Miss Cynthia Delano is heading the directorate for the affair. Following the recital Miss Waters and her troupe will be honored with a reception in the foyer of the auditorium with townpeople invited to greet them. Mrs. Thomas Drynan is making arrangements for the reception.

Patronesses for the dance recital will be Mrs. Kenneth Waters, Mrs. William H. Lytle, Mrs. Henry Meyers, Mrs. William Everett Anderson, Mrs. Harry Bell, Mrs. James Teed, Mrs. V. E. Kuhn, Mrs. David Bennett Hill, Mrs. J. M. Devers, Mrs. Edgar T. Pierce, Mrs. Asa Fisher, Miss Barbara Barnes and Miss Ada Ross.

Proceeds from the affair will be used for the Beta Sigma Phi protege, Verdie Kivlako, a patient at the state tuberculosis hospital. Tickets may be obtained from society members and at the Smart Shop.

Appearing with Miss Waters, who is a former Salem girl, are Caroline Locke, Alwin Nikolais and Ray Malon. They are offering an entertaining and informal program with a wide range of subjects. Probably the most outstanding unit to be offered is a suite of five group dances called "Jungle City" which is based on the idea of the sophisticated metropolitan life being basically comparable to primitive existence. The costuming and accompaniments to the suite are also kept in the primitive style.

Miss Waters and Miss Locke are from the internationally famous Hany Holm company and have appeared in transcontinental tours and given many solo performances. Alwin Nikolais has recently received acclaim in solo appearances in New England and Ray Malon, who is from the famous dance center, Bennington College, is a new and talented dancer and choreographer.

En route to the coast Miss Waters and her troupe gave an impromptu concert in Fowler, Indiana, where Mrs. Julia R. White, formerly of Salem, now resides. Mrs. White was Miss Waters' first dancing instructor. Mrs. White has written enthusiastically of the concert and says that it is worthy of a grand reception in Salem.

Little Miss Joyce Ruth Randall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Randall, has been spending several days in Corvallis with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Rondeau.

Music circles from throughout the northwest were generous in their praise this week when they learned that Sigurd Nilssen, internationally famous bass baritone and son of Peter Nelson of Silverton, had been signed as guest soloist for the Salem Centennial.

Mr. Nilssen is in Oregon for the season and a member of the University of Oregon Summer session faculty. He will come to Salem at the conclusion of the summer school to be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Silas Gaiser.

As a lad Mr. Nilssen had the ambition to become a great pianist but after studying piano for two years he found that voice was the thing he liked most and from that time on all his efforts were concentrated in that direction.

He made his debut in the Monte Carlo opera house and then followed a brilliant career in the opera houses of Germany, Austria and England. In the states he has given special performances with the Metropolitan Opera company.

With war raging in Europe Mr. Nilssen hopes to see the day when there will be more than one opera center in his homeland. There is a great need for an opera company in the west, according to Mr. Nilssen.

Friends of Mrs. Howard Page of Los Angeles, the former Rita Adelsperger of Marshfield, are interested to learn that she is visiting her mother, Mrs. A. E. Adelsperger, in Marshfield, and will shortly arrive in Salem to visit Mrs. Conrad W. Paulus.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Steusloff and their two children, Ivan and Martha, who flew east a fortnight ago, will return from Washington, D. C., early in the week.

Mrs. Harold Hauk will leave by plane next Saturday for Los Angeles, where she will join Mr. Hauk for the remainder of the summer season. Mr. Hauk, who is head coach at Salem high school, is completing his work toward a Master's degree at University of Southern California. The Hauks will return to Salem late in August.

Married Friday—Mrs. James Edgar Payne, who was Miss Peggy Munger, daughter of Mrs. Tongue Munger, until her marriage, which was solemnized Friday afternoon in First Presbyterian church. The couple will be "at home" in Kelso after July 25. The bride was a prominent Salem Spinster. (Jesten-Miller.)

ONE OF THE MOST thrilling sequences of the Salem Centennial pageant will be the "Sprague Ball, 1940," with the orchestra playing the grand march and Governor and Mrs. Charles A. Sprague, Secretary of State Earl Snell and Mrs. Snell, State Treasurer Walter Pearson and Mrs. Pearson, their aides and over 100 prominent Salem couples making up the brilliant procession.

Mrs. Sprague will wear the gown she chose for the Inaugural ball in January, 1939.

The playing of the grand march will blend into the strains of a lovely waltz with Salem women gowned in colorful models in contrast with the full dress and military uniforms of the men. All in all the sequence promises to be one of the most colorful of the entire pageant production.

First rehearsal will be held July 23 with dress rehearsal scheduled for July 30. Mrs. George R. K. Moorhead is making arrangements for the Sprague sequence in the pageant.

Mrs. Frank W. Mogan has returned from a several days' stay at Neskwim as the guest of Mrs. Lloyd Riches.

Fidels class will meet July 18 at the home of Mrs. Theodore Turner, 223 Silverton Road, with Mrs. B. F. Keefe and Mrs. Susie Parmenter the assisting hostesses.

A popular visitor in the capital during the week has been Mrs. W. T. Noel of Halifax, Wash., who, with her small daughter, Miss Linda, has been the house guest of her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Robert B. Taylor. Mrs. Noel was honored at tea Wednesday when Mrs. Taylor entertained informally.

Salem Zionians will welcome their International president, Mrs. May Moyers McElroy, prominent attorney of Washington, D. C., when she arrives in the capital today to meet members of the Salem club.

Mrs. McElroy, who is visiting Pacific coast clubs during July, will be honored with a dinner in the Marine room at the Hotel Marion this evening by the Salem club. Sunday morning Mrs. McElroy will be feted with a breakfast by the Salem club at the Marion. Mrs. Phil Brownell, president of the Salem club, is making arrangements.

Thursday Mrs. McElroy visited the Medford club and was widely entertained by its members. Friday she was entertained in Eugene by the members of the Eugene Zonta club. Sunday Mrs. McElroy will be taken to Portland by members of the Salem club. A dinner at Timberline lodge is one of the affairs being planned for her pleasure.

Mr. and Mrs. Ferenz Steiner and daughter, Miss Diane, were guests of her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Levy, earlier in the week. The Steiners are dividing the summer between Portland and Rockaway.

Mr. and Mrs. Breyman Boise and their sons returned Monday from their Seal Rocks summer place.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Bagan, formerly of Marshfield, are being welcomed as new residents in the capital. They are now domiciled at the Royal Court.

Dr. and Mrs. George S. Hoffman and their daughter, Miss Jeanne, will leave Sunday for Cannon Beach, where they will spend a week's vacation.

An interesting event planned for the observance of Salem's Centennial is the Centennial tea, which will be held from 3 to 6 o'clock Saturday afternoon, August 2, on the Willamette university campus. Mrs. C. C. Geer is general chairman and Mrs. Walter L. Spaulding, vice-chairman, for the affair. Assisting them are members of the Salem Woman's club.

Governor Charles A. Sprague, Mayor W. W. Chadwick, visiting governors, mayors and their wives will receive. Mrs. Geer will introduce to the line.

The pioneer theme will be carried out in the appointments of the tea table, which will be arranged by Mrs. John Beakley, Mrs. A. L. Adolphson, Mrs. Leona Johnson and Mrs. Frank G. Myers.

American War Mothers will meet Tuesday, June 18, at the home of Mrs. Addie Curtis, 245 East Myers street, for a social afternoon.
