Rudolph Reuter Gives Fine Concert at Library

By Robert E. Rawson

Rudolph Reuter, famed concert pianist, who is conducting master classes here this week, gave a most enjoyable recital in the main room of the Willamette Library last evening under the sponsorship of the Spinners. Mr. Reuter showed unusual skill in arranging his program, numbers being drawn from the modern Spanish, French, Russian and American schools, as well as a generous sprinkling of the old masters, and proved himself to be equally at home in all schools.

The artist played with great brilliancy. His produced thunderous tones which never became harsh, always retaining their musical quality, and in striking contrast he has a pianissimo which woos the ear.

The audience apparently enjoyed every number, especially the modern compositions, which were made even more interesting by the charming explanations given by the artist. The program reached its climax in the overwhelming Liszt number, "St. Francis Walking on the Waves," after which, due to the insistent applause, Mr. Reuter added two encores.

Divoteers Give Gala Breakfast

Woodburn—The lawn at the rear of the Evenden home formed a beautiful setting for a breakfast given Tuesday morning by the "Divot Dodgers," losers in the scoreless tournament for July at the Woodburn Golf club course, in honor of the "Sand Trappers," the winners.

Members of the winning team who were guests were Mrs. M. D. Henning, Mrs. Joe Koppinger, Mrs. Burton Willeford, Mrs. L. H. Shorey, Mrs. Kenneth Smith, Mrs. Ray Glatt, Mrs. Frank Snalfield, Mrs. J. P. Lacey and Mrs. F. G. Evenden, who was a special guest.

Hostesses were Mrs. Sumner Stevens, Mrs. Blaine McCord, Mrs. George Jones, Mary Scollard, Mrs. Clyde Smith, Mrs. Joe Nathman, Mrs. Harold Miller and Mrs. Joe Richards.

Following the breakfast the group motored out to the golf course for a round of play. Mrs. McCord and Mrs. Henning tied for low gross score with 43, with the prize going to Mrs. Henning. Mary Scollard and Mrs. Joe Koppinger tied for low net with 38, the prize going to Mrs. Koppinger.

Wednesday the Woodburn women were entertained at Oak Knoll for play and luncheon.

Thursday the regular "ladies' day" will be held at the Woodburn Golf club with match play between the "reds" and "blues." Luncheon will be served at 12 o'clock with Mrs. Kenneth Smith, Mrs. Joe Nathman and Mrs. Joe Richards in charge of the tables.

Visitors Are Feted At Dinner

Mr. and Mrs. William McDonald were hosts at dinner Tuesday evening honoring Mr. and Mrs. Charles Collins of Winfield, Kansas. Mr. Collins is a nephew of Mr. McDonald.

Covers were placed for Mr. and Mrs. Collins, the honored guests, Mrs. Jennie Collins, Don Collins, Mr. and Mrs. George Chapman, and Mr. and Mrs. McDonald, the hosts. Today Mr. and Mrs. Collins are enjoying a trip on the Columbia river highway. They will leave on Thursday for San Francisco, where they will visit the Golden Gate exposition and Los Angeles before returning to their home in Kansas.

Sidney Milligan Weds Miss Holm

The chapel of the First Congregational church, in Eugene, decorated all in white gladioluses and with candlelight, was the scene for an interesting wedding Sunday afternoon when Miss Lillian Holm of Eugene was married to Sidney A. Milligan of Cottage Grove. The service was read at three-thirty o'clock by Rev. William P. Reedy of Los Angeles before a group of about fifty relatives and friends.

Miss Alberta Roberts played the organ. The bride, given in marriage by her cousin, S. G. Pearson, of Portland, wore a light blue crepe suit with matching hat and accessories in grape. Her flowers were a corsage of orchids.

Miss Winifred Vold of Portland was maid of honor. She wore a dress in dusty rose with matching hat, navy blue accessories, and a corsage of gardenias.

John Koke was best man for Mr. Milligan.

Following the service at the church a reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur W. Morris. Mrs. John Milligan, mother of the bridegroom, poured, and Miss Betty Robb cut the cake.

Assisting in serving were Miss Virginia Hartle of Portland, Miss Helen Tullman, and Miss Margaret King of Oklahoma, cousin of Mr. Milligan.

Among out-of-town guests at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. S. O. Pearson of Portland, Dr. and Mrs. Bruce Titus of Salem, Mr. and Mrs. Scott Milligan of Longview, Urcel King of Hood River, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Wheelock of Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Milligan are to make their home in Cottage Grove where Mr. Milligan is an attorney.

The bride is a graduate of Oregon State college and a member of Alpha Chi Omega sorority and has been on the secretarial staff at the office of Dr. Frederick M. Hunter at the university.

Mr. Milligan graduated from the University of Oregon and is a member of Phi Delta Theta fraternity.

Chicago Rites are Of Much Interest

Salem friends have received announcement of the recent marriage of Miss Jana Glenn to Arthur Herman Krause. The wedding was an event of August 2 in the Hilton Memorial chapel at the University of Chicago.

The couple will live in Chicago. The bride, who is well-known in Salem, graduated from the University of Hawaii, later taking graduate work at the University of Chicago. Mr. Krause also took his graduate work at Chicago.

Rebekahs Hear Reports Monday

Miss Frances Kyle, noble grand of Salem Rebekah lodge, No. 1, presided over the regular meeting of the lodge Monday evening. Mrs. Elsie Papenfus and Miss Wilda Sigmund were appointed as a visiting committee. Reports of visits were made by Miss Frances Kyle, Miss Dorothy Hauge, Mr. and Mrs. Gus Erikson, Mrs. Anna Hunsaker, Mrs. Hannah Beard, Mrs. Golda Kyle and Mrs. Dora Peckles to Mill City lodge and Lyons lodge and to Turner lodge, at which times the state president of the Rebekah assembly made her official visit to the lodges.

The birthday committee will have charge of the program and refreshments for the meeting next Monday night. The co-chairmen are Mr. and Mrs. Barker Cornforth.

Tuesday evening, Miss Frances Kyle, Mrs. Golda Kyle, Mrs. Elsie Townsend, Mrs. Bessie Edwards and Mrs. Annie Mills visited the Brownsville lodge as the state president made her official visit there. The president is visiting Mill City on Wednesday evening and Silverton Thursday evening.

Credit Women Meet for Breakfast

The Salem Credit Women's Breakfast club met at the Hotel Argo Tuesday morning with Miss Lena Blum presiding. Zinnias and gladioluses brightened the breakfast tables.

The meeting was devoted to club business and plans for autumn activities. Mrs. Jack Hyett played several piano selections. Mrs. Marjorie Boelen of San Francisco, Miss Elsie Ohmart and Mrs. Hazel Snair attended as guests.

Mrs. C. E. Kolher of Catawath, Ill., who has been visiting her grandmother, Mrs. J. D. Barrett and her aunt, Mrs. Frank Ferguson, will leave Thursday morning to visit relatives in Seattle before returning east. Mrs. Ferguson will accompany her niece to Seattle.

Double Wedding Held Wednesday

Hubbard—The St. Agnes Catholic church at Hubbard was the setting for a beautiful double wedding Wednesday morning when Miss Marie Zelinka, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. Zelinka, became the bride of Donald Goetz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Goetz of Portland, and Rose Marie Zastoupl became the bride of Ignice Zelinka. Father Michael Raleigh officiated at the nuptial mass at 9 o'clock. Music was by the St. Agnes choir with Mrs. George Grimps presiding at the organ during the professional and recessional. The church was profusely decorated with late summer flowers.

Miss Zelinka, given in marriage by her father, wore a wedding gown of white satin with lace inserts, fashioned in princess style with square neck, long sleeves and court train. Her fingertip veil of net was arranged in halo effect about the head with a band of tiny white flowers. She carried a bouquet of white gladioluses with white satin streamers.

Her bridesmaid, Miss Anne Koutney, wore a frock of blue net with matching bonnet and carried pink pom-pom asters in cascade effect. Walter Morgan, Jr., acted as best man for Mr. Goetz.

Miss Zastoupl was given in marriage by her brother, Philip Zastoupl. She wore a gown of white satin similar to that of Miss Zelinka with high neck, long sleeves and train. Her veil of fingertip length was arranged with a crown of seed pearls and she also carried white gladioluses. Miss Helen Richards of Salem was bridesmaid for Miss Zastoupl and Hubert Dibala was best man for Mr. Zelinka. Miss Richards wore a model of pink net with matching bonnet and carried a cascade of asters.

A wedding dinner was served at the Zelinka home for the two couples with 35 relatives and friends in attendance. Tonight a wedding dance will be given at Broadacre, after which the newlyweds will leave for a honeymoon at the beach.

Mr. and Mrs. Goetz will make their home on the Goetz farm east of Woodburn on route 1, and Mr. and Mrs. Zelinka will live at Donald
