Ain't It a Grand and Glorious Feeling?

Cartoon by Miss Clare Briggs. Three panels showing a man's reaction to a bride's first cooking school lesson. Panel 1: 'WHEN YOU'RE HUNGRY ENOUGH TO EAT A BRIDE'S FIRST COOKING SCHOOL LESSON...'. Panel 2: 'AND YOU STAND BEHIND SOMEONE WHO LOOKS LIKE HELL SOON BE THRU...'. Panel 3: 'AND YOU SHUFFLE YOUR FEET IN ANTICIPATION AS HE GULPS THE LAST MOUTHFUL...'. A fourth panel shows the man saying 'OH-H-H BOY! AIN'T IT A GRAND AND GLORIOUS FEELING?!!'

Kiwanis After Fifth Columns

Spokane, Wash., Aug. 21 (U.P.)—Closing sessions of the 23rd annual Pacific Northwest Kiwanis convention today were on record asking elimination of "fifth column" groups as political organizations. The 1300 delegates and their wives returned home after three days of recreation and business. Copies of the resolution, which would also prevent the appearance of "fifth-column" names on election ballots, will be mailed to the governors of Washington, Oregon, Idaho and every congressman from the Pacific northwest and the premier of British Columbia. Speaking at the governor's banquet last night, Dr. Adam S. Benion of Salt Lake City told Kiwanians they were needed to give answers to problems of "conspiration, public debt, and function and type of government." "Remember that we can't have totalitarianism and registration along with liberty," he said.

Petite Flier Tries for Record

Harrisburg, Pa., Aug. 21 (U.P.)—Betsy Ross, petite and 30, who wants to establish the first altitude record for light planes at 20,000 feet, waited today for the official result of her first attempt and declared "If it isn't over 20,000, I'll try again." The 96-pound aviator, who has been flying only since June, 1939, circled her two-place cabin plane for three hours and eight minutes over the Harrisburg airport yesterday. It was the first time light planes officially have been recognized in an altitude flight by the National Aeronautics association, said Russ Brinkley, NAA contest chairman. So, added Miss Ross, "almost any height I might go would be a record, not broken, but established." Brinkley estimated Miss Ross climbed to 20,000 feet or "within 500 feet of that anyway." The flier, however, said her altimeter showed 18,200 feet at the top of her climb—"I tried to go higher"—but she thought the instrument may have been affected by the cold. A sealed barograph in the plane has been sent to Washington to be checked by the NAA for the official height. Miss Ross, secretary to her father, a Richmond, Pa., businessman, when she is not flying, said she discarded her oxygen mask at 17,000 feet because it "bothered me."

GOOD TASTE TODAY By Emily Post

The word "residence" is correct when the word is used in engraving. In speaking, it sounds pretentious, and therefore is not good form. This is in answer to the reader who asks, "If wedding invitations are sent by the bride's family, but guests are being invited to a relative's house instead of her own, how is this stated in the invitations? You have given your disapproval of the word 'residence' which is another reason why I ask you about this." To answer further, the name of the relative's house follows at the end of the regular invitation beginning: Mr. and Mrs. John White request the honor of your presence and continuing to: St. Mary's Church and afterwards at the reception at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Ely Black Chestnut Hill

Pantry Patter

In summer time even more often than in cold weather, the business woman housekeeper will choose ice cream for dessert. It is so easy to stop on the way home and choose ice cream of one or more flavors, and then to put in into the freezing tray of the refrigerator so that it will keep until after the quick meal has been prepared and served. The family never tires of ice cream or ice but a good sauce with the former will be thoroughly appreciated. Peaches crushed with sugar will naturally be featured. Any type of berry sweetened and perhaps flavored with a little sherry or brandy, makes an easy sauce. Then there are favorite chocolate and butterscotch sauces which can be made ahead of time, if you like, stored in the refrigerator and reheated when the occasion demands. Sometimes toasted nuts are used with these sauces. Hot maple syrup is also good with ice cream, and a few salted almonds or pecans will add a final touch. Any preserved fruit may serve as a sauce and chopped dried fruits will furnish a basis for a simple sauce when they are cooked with sugar and water. Appricots may be put through a coarse sieve to furnish a puree which is delicious served either hot or cold. Try adding a dash of almond flavoring to this. A combination of chopped dates cooked with sugar and water and combined with nuts is better cold than hot.

Quick Meal

Broiled Lamb Chop Country Fried Potatoes Corn on the Cob New Cabbage Salad Method of Preparation Pare potatoes and fry Light broiler Boil water for corn Husk corn Prepare salad Cook chops Cook corn Make sauce for ice cream Make coffee Date Nut Sauce 1 cup chopped dates 1/2 cup sugar 1/2 cup water 1/4 cup butter 1/4 cup broken nuts 1 teaspoon vanilla Cook the dates with the sugar and water until well blended and slightly thickened. Remove from fire, add nuts and vanilla, cool and serve with vanilla ice cream. Chocolate Sauce 2 squares chocolate 1 cup water 2 cups sugar Salt 2 teaspoons vanilla 2 tablespoons butter Cut chocolate into five or six pieces and stir over direct heat with the water until smooth and thick. Add sugar and salt and stir until dissolved. Boil three times, add vanilla and butter and serve hot.

Removal of Ice Tea Glasses

Dear Mrs. Post: Should ice tea glasses be removed when the table is cleared before dessert? Answer: Usually, but not necessarily. Mrs. Post is sorry she can no longer answer personal letters. She is glad, however, to have many friends slip on a variety of subjects to let her readers. Today's slip is "Wedding Invitations and Announcements." Be sure to send a three-cent stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request to Mrs. Post, in care of Capital-Journal, P. O. Box 136, Times Square Station, New York, N. Y.

Jefferson - Mrs. Edith Anderson

Jefferson - Mrs. Edith Anderson of Salem spent the week-end at the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Terhune, and family. Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Barnes and son Billy, their nephew Richard Hart, and sister Mrs. K. S. Thurston, spent Saturday night at the home of Mrs. Thurston's daughter, Mrs. Herman Wilson, and family. Sunday they enjoyed a trip along the coast highway.
