

Women's Group Makes Plans For Season

The executive board of the newly-organized Women's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist church met Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Herbert E. Rahe, president. Tea was served after the business session.

Sunday, during the regular church services, installation will be held for the new officers of the society.

Next Wednesday the meeting of the executive board will be held at 1 o'clock in the Carrier room of the church, and will be followed by a meeting of the entire membership of the society at 2 o'clock. The charter will be closed at this time and women who wish to become charter members must register before this meeting. Tea will be served late in the afternoon.

Plans are being made by the society for the Oregon conference, to be held at the First Methodist church October 3 and 4. A program is being arranged, with Bishop Bruce B. Baxter scheduled as the principal speaker.

Piano for Adults New Activity

During the last few years more and more people have become interested in some manual activity as a relief for the mental chaos of the times. One of the most satisfying in terms of cultural returns and personal enjoyment is the playing of the piano. It is remarkable how rapidly the adult progresses in the field and how much pleasure it creates.

The Whiteside method with its foundation in muscular relaxation and rhythmic flow is ideal for the adult approach to the piano and has been used with great success by Miss Whiteside with adult beginners in New York City.

Mabel S. Powers, who has recently returned from a summer of study with Miss Whiteside, has made a specialty of adult beginners and is now opening her Court street studio. She is prepared to take adults in groups or individually.

A surprise shower was given at the home of Mrs. Alfred Mallory in Hines street Tuesday evening for Mrs. Elmer Griepentrog.

Those bidden were Mrs. Griepentrog, Mrs. Percy Sparhawk, Mrs. James Lehman, Mrs. James Falk, Mrs. Harry Way, Mrs. Will McCollum, Mrs. William Thompson, Mrs. William Foster, Miss Ruby Dencer, Mrs. Earl Griepentrog, Mrs. Sam Waggoner and Mrs. George Linnell.

Former Willamette Co-Ed Weds

Of interest to many in Salem is the marriage of Miss Julia Margaret Philip, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Philip of Portland, and Frederick W. Razor of Portland at the St. David Episcopal church in Portland Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. It was a double ring ceremony and was performed in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends. Organ music was played preceding the service.

The bride's gown was of white taffeta made with a high neck, long sleeves and a finger-tip length veil. She carried a white prayer book.

Miss Catherine Philip was her sister's only attendant and wore a blue dress similar to that of the bride and carried button chrysanthemums in autumn colors.

Herbert Razor of Portland acted as best man for his brother.

A reception at the church followed the ceremony.

The bride attended St. Helen's junior college and Willamette university where she was a member of Beta Chi sorority. She taught in the Dallas high school the past three years. Mr. Razor attended the University of Oregon and Oregon State college. Mr. and Mrs. Razor will make their home in Eugene where he is attending the university on a fellowship and working toward his master's degree.

Lions Auxiliary Plans Year's Work

The Lions club auxiliary met Thursday at a beautifully arranged luncheon at Godfrey's. The tables were set with large bouquets of tall pink gladioluses and thirty members of the organization were present. Mrs. Charles L. Mink was welcomed as a new member.

During the luncheon Mrs. A. A. Haag gave a talk on "Greater Friendliness Toward All" and Rev. Robert Hutchinson spoke to the group on the coming Community Chest drive.

Mrs. William Newmyer was then hostess to the group at her home, assisted by Mrs. R. W. Land, Mrs. A. A. Haag and Mrs. LaVerne Young. Large bowls of white gladioluses were used about the rooms.

Routine business was discussed and the new committees were appointed for the coming year. These are: Hostess, Mrs. R. W. Land; Lionesses, Mrs. Estill Brunk; hospitality, Mrs. George Rhoten; social entertainment, Mrs. C. F. Putnam; tuberculosis hospital, Mrs. Percy Blendell; Lending Closet and Red Cross, Mrs. L. N. Ramage; Club History, Mrs. A. L. Elwin; Salem Women's Council, Mrs. Edward Majek; Publicity, Mrs. J. O. Gross.

Mrs. La Verne Young is now directing plans for a rummage sale and a bridge benefit to be held in the near future. The next meeting will be held Thursday, October 17, at the home of Mrs. C. F. Putnam at 1155 North Summer street.

Don Cossack Chorus Will Appear Here October 14

The General Platoff Don Cossack chorus, one of the most famous body of singers in the world, who arrive in Salem October 14 to perform at the high school auditorium under auspices of Community concerts, will, there is no doubt about it, sing their way into the hearts of Salem in just the same way they have done in all the most important cities of the world. The reputation of this band of 27 Russians, who are sometimes picturesquely known as the "twenty-seven singing horsemen of the Steppes," has preceded them wherever they have traveled, a fame which is due not only to their brilliant phonograph recordings and sound films, but to their remarkable stage successes.

These perfectly matched solo voices cover the range from high soprano to the lowest bass, singing vivid homespun ballads, opera choruses and soldier songs, with a gladness and grandeur that is characteristic of their race.

The choir is really like one great organ, and the conductor, M. Nicholas Kostroff, is, as you might say, the organist. With his magnetic personality he controls the voices as one would the organ stops; bringing out quick changes in emotion and strength and hushing the music to almost a whisper.

Under his tuition the choir has built up a repertoire of songs, including old Cossack melodies, legends of folklore, battle songs and beautiful lullabies. The musical sense of these twenty-seven singers is so keen and the precision of their singing so clever, that they can produce the most delicate tone colors.

Mrs. L. B. Hixon Is Club Hostess

The P. L. E. and F. club met with Mrs. L. B. Hixon Thursday evening for its first fall meeting. After a short business session cards were in play, prizes going to Mary Aplin and Daisy Hayden.

Members present were Dorothy C. Wilson, Mrs. P. Andersen, Daisy Hayden, Mabel Peck, Sylvia K. Furlough, Eunice Burk, Mary Aplin, Pearl M. Kinzer, and the hostess, Azale Hixon.

Refreshments were served at a late hour. The group adjourned and will meet with Dorothy C. Wilson for the October meeting.
