

PARTIES FOR BRIDES-ELECT have taken the spotlight in Salem's social circles this week, with announcements of engagements and plans for weddings keeping capital maids in a whirl. . . . Sharing honors with the brides-to-be were members of the younger set who were off to college and were widely feted prior to their departure. . . .

The latest bride-elect to announce her plans is Miss Dorothy Alexander, daughter of the George Alexanders, who will become the bride of Edward O. Stadter, Jr., son of the Edward Staders of Bend, at a stellar ceremony in the First Presbyterian church the evening of October 2 at 8 o'clock.

Rev. W. Irvin Williams will read the ceremony and Frank Churchill, organist, will play the wedding marches.

Miss Alexander's honor attendant will be Mrs. William Dick (Frances Johnston) of The Dalles and her junior attendant will be Miss Charlotte Alexander, her sister.

Maurice Stadter will serve his brother as best man and ushers will be Kenneth Potts, Chester Fritz, Dr. Ralph Purvine, Boyd Graybill, George Corwin Alexander, Jr., and Samuel Schwartz.

Miss Mira Bell, daughter of Judge and Mrs. Harry H. Bell, entertained a group of friends at the Belts' summer place at Pacific City Thursday. Invited were Miss Sally Reed, Miss Julia Smith of Harrisburg, Penn., Miss Jean Latourette of Oregon City, Mrs. Harry Wolfe of Portland, Mrs. Clarence Hamilton, Mrs. Alfred Gerlinger and the hostess, Miss Bell.

Hagedorn-Charboneau
Creating interest among the university contingent is the marriage of Miss June Charboneau and E. Bernard Hagedorn of Portland, which will be solemnized Sunday afternoon at 5 o'clock in the Calvary Baptist church in Independence. Miss Charboneau is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Charboneau of Independence and her fiancé is the son of Mrs. E. V. Hagedorn of Portland.

Rev. William Mahon will officiate before members of the families of the couple and close friends. The altar will be all-white, graced with white gladioluses, white tapers and palms. Candles will burn at the sides of the altar and in the windows.

Proceeding the entrance of the bridal party, Miss Helen Dean will sing "Because" and Miss Betty Starr will sing "For You Alone." The wedding marches and accompaniment will be played by Miss Wanda Messinger.

The bride will be given in marriage by her father. Her gown will be a stunning model of white moire taffeta with sweetheart neckline, high white sleeves with points at the wrist and her only ornament will be pearls. Her long tulle veil will be held with a halo of orange bosoms and she will carry a bouquet of orchids, white carnations and bouvardia, tied with white satin ribbons.

The maid of honor, Miss Rosemarie Charboneau, will wear delphinium blue moire taffeta, with full skirt and light bodice. Her flowers will be pale pink carnations and white bouvardia. The bridesmaids, Mrs. Charles Greene and Miss Lillian Briggs of Salem, will wear gowns of tea rose moire taffeta, identical to the maid of honor's gown, and will carry deep rose carnations with pink bouvardia.

The bride's mother will wear soldier blue with wine accessories and a corsage of pastel blossoms. For her son's marriage, Mrs. Hagedorn will wear a black redingote with light blue trim and a corsage of gardenias.

Gordon Wilson of Portland will act as best man and ushers will be Gale Smith, Gene Spiker, Price Dickey of Portland and Tom Gabriel of Salem.

A reception at the Woman's clubhouse will honor the bridal couple. The serving table will have a centerpiece of white and pink roses, with white satin ribbons, a handsome lace cloth and silver service.

Pouring will be Mrs. C. A. Tomassene of Portland and Mrs. Charles Bingner of La Grande. Serving will be Miss Eleanor Perry and Mrs. Steven Anderson of Salem, Miss Elizabeth Norris of Seattle, Miss Dorothy Norris and Miss Mary Tomassene of Portland, Miss Frances Knott and Miss Marmarie Williams of Independence.

For traveling the bride will wear a costume of soldier blue with brown accessories. The couple will make their home at 2421 N. E. Irving street, Portland. Miss Charboneau, who attended Willamette university, was a member of Delta Phi sorority. Mr. Hagedorn also attended Willamette and was a member of Sigma Tau.

A smart affair of this evening will be the buffet supper at which Mrs. Robert Cannon will preside in her new home near Morningglade, in compliment to the birthday anniversary of her husband.

Autumn flowers will be used about the rooms and on the serving table as the decor.

Bidden to honor Mr. Cannon are Dr. and Mrs. Charles Pomeroy, Mr. and Mrs. Carl G. Collins, Mr. and Mrs. John S. Lohead, Mr. and Mrs. James Clark, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Shafer, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Halvorsen, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Quistad, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cross, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Cronin, Mr. and Mrs. Russell McJury, Miss Doris Drager, Miss Maxine McKillop, Miss Helen Wiedmer, Miss Peggy Minkiewicz, Miss Marie Patton, Miss Margaret Bell, James Nicholson, Coburn Grabenhorst, Joseph Devers, Emory Hobbs, Orin McDowell, Jr., Douglas Drager, Byron Mennis and Lawrence Blaisdell, Jr.

Adams-Mishler
Miss Isabelle Mishler, daughter of the D. P. Mishlers of Albany, became the bride of Ronald K. Adams, son of Dr. and Mrs. Kinley K. Adams, at a large formal ceremony performed Friday night at 8 o'clock in Calvary Baptist church. Rev. Arno Q. Weniger read the impressive service.

A background of white gladioluses graced the altar and white cathedral tapers, in white candelabra, burned at either side.

Miss Doris Schünke, organist, played the wedding marches and accompanied Jack Billeter, who sang "Because" and "The Indian Love Call."

The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Harold Mishler. She wore a stunning gown of white satin in princess style and her long veil was fastened with Cecil Brunner roses. Her shower bouquet was of roses and bouvardia.

The maid of honor, Mrs. Howard Beaver, a sister of the bride, wore a blue moire taffeta dress and carried rose-pink asters. Miss Margaret Mishler, a sister, and Miss Betty Isom, the bride's niece, wore rose taffeta frocks and carried blue asters.

Warren Biggerstaff was best man for Mr. Adams and ushers were William Parker, Herbert Rasmussen, Wilbur Mishler and Willis Mishler.

The bride's mother wore a dress of maroon silk crepe with a corsage of gardenias. Mrs. Adams wore navy blue lace and a corsage of gardenias.

A reception followed the ceremony. The table was centered with pink and white asters, flanked with pink and white tulle bows and streamers, flanked by white tapers.

Presiding at the urns were Mrs. M. Trapman and Mrs. T. Kenagy. Mrs. S. Kenyon dispensed the wedding cake and serving were Miss Jerry Trapman, Miss Arden Greenwood, Miss Shirley Kenagy, Miss Margaret Mishler and Miss Betty Isom. In charge of gifts were Mrs. J. Isom and Mrs. L. Greenwood.

The couple left immediately for Philadelphia, where Mr. Adams will enter the Eastern Baptist Theological seminary. For traveling Mrs. Adams wore a suit of soldier blue with maroon accessories.

Spinsters will meet Monday night at 7:30 o'clock at the home of Miss Barbara Compton.

Motoring to Oregon City today was Mrs. William H. Hammond and her daughter, Constance, who attended the birthday party of Miss Constance's cousins, Maren and Phillip Hammond.

Great interest is being shown in the flower and table decorations show to be given Monday at the Marion hotel by members of the Salem Garden club and the Little Garden club of Salem Heights. Hours will be from 2 o'clock in the afternoon to 9 o'clock in the evening.

The classifications to be shown are dinner table for four, luncheon table for four, breakfast table for two, buffet arrangement of fruit, flowers or vegetables, flower arrangement for hall table with any accessories desired, occasional table for living room using floral or foliage arrangement with accessories desired, arrangement of weeds, grasses, seed pods and grain and miniature flower arrangement on a tray.

Exhibitors will include Mrs. Arthur Rahn, Mrs. Kenneth Bell, Mrs. A. L. Adolphson, Mrs. Carl Nelson, Mrs. W. J. Busick, Mrs. David Bennett Hill, Mrs. Merrill Ohling, Mrs. Arthur Hunt, Mrs. Robert Shinn, Mrs. Walter Smith, Mrs. Robert Reider, Mrs. E. M. Page, Mrs. Abner Kilne, Mrs. Charles Sawyer, Miss Elizabeth Lord, Miss Edith Schryver, Mrs. Chester Cox, Mrs. Lester Barr, Mrs. O. L. Poe, Mrs. Lloyd Riches, Mrs. M. Stephenson, Mrs. C. A. Taylor, Mrs. Walter Spaulding, Mrs. Charles Cole, Mrs. W. C. Franklin, Mrs. Dean Patterson, Mrs. D. O. Ahrens, Mrs. Alan Hubbard, Mrs. B. O. Schucking, Mrs. H. V. Compton, Mrs. Carl G. Collins, Mrs. Bjarne Erickson, Mrs. L. R. Springer, Mrs. Lee Canfield, Miss Lydia Hunt, Mrs. H. R. Woodburn, Mrs. Sanderson Reed, Mrs. R. E. Cartwright and Mrs. Lewis Judson.

Mrs. David W. Wright was in Portland Friday to attend a luncheon given for officers of Nydia Temple, Daughters of the Nile, at Alderwood Country club.

Mrs. Clifford Johnson (Elizabeth Looney) and her twin children, Elizabeth Ann and Steven Looney, of Preston, Wash., are guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Marion D. Looney, at their home near Jefferson.

The Ecclesia club was entertained Wednesday evening at the home of Miss Velma Rominger. Members and a few additional guests made up the party.

Mrs. Wilson Siegmund is arranging a smart affair for next Saturday for the pleasure of Miss Dorothy Alexander, whose marriage to Edward O. Stadter, Jr., will be an event of October 2.

Leslie Parent-Teacher association will meet in the library of the school Monday evening at 7:45 o'clock for a short business session, followed by a program and social hour. All parents and friends of the school are urged to attend.

Miss Evangeline Philbin, state president of the Oregon Federation of Business and Professional Women's clubs, will be the speaker at the regular dinner meeting Tuesday, September 24, at the Quella. Her topic will be "A Citizen in a Democracy" and she will also tell about her travel experiences of this summer in connection with her talk.

Miss Philbin is secretary of the United States civil service commission and is in constant touch with national and world affairs. She has traveled extensively, both in the United States and abroad.

Miss Ann Veith, district chairman of the north Willamette district, and other Portland members will accompany Miss Philbin to Salem to be guests of the Salem club.

Reports will be made by the committee chairmen of the events during Business and Professional Women's week.

The Junior Woman's club will hold a rush party at the Woman's club house in North Cottage street Monday evening, September 23, at 8 o'clock.

The program will consist of a soprano solo by Mrs. Ruth Caltrall, piano duet by Miss Lucile Mosher and Miss June Lochridge and numbers by the Junior Woman's club trio. A group of girls from the club will speak, the Misses Ruth Melson, Ruth Tompkins and Helen Way.

At the refreshment hour Mrs. Ray Lafky and Mrs. Vern Robb will pour.

The committee in charge includes Mrs. George Roth, chairman, Mrs. Joe Bernardi, Miss Marjorie Weum, Mrs. R. Steele, Miss Maxine Rodgers and Miss Ruth Melson. Each member is to bring a guest.

Presiding at dinner Thursday evening were Mr. and Mrs. Louis Lachmund, who entertained for Major-General and Mrs. George A. White, who are leaving to make their home in Portland and Fort Lewis. Covers were placed for ten.

Miss Nona Woodry, who announced her betrothal to Percy Meler of Los Angeles, formerly of Salem, at a dinner party Thursday evening given by her mother, Mrs. Jack Hyeit. The wedding will be an event of October 6.—(Jesten-Miller).

Miss Adele Fay, attractive debutante daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold B. Fay, who is leaving next week to register for her first year at the University of Oregon.—(Jesten-Miller).

Calendared for next week is the Salem revue to be sponsored by members of the Fashion Woman's club. Dates are Thursday and Friday, September 26 and 27, and showings will be at 8 o'clock each evening and at 2:30 o'clock Friday afternoon.

Proceeds from the revue will be used to assist in renovating the clubhouse in North Cottage street. Already the lounge room has been refurbished with new draperies and Venetian blinds and members wish to complete the tea room.

Mrs. Herbert Rahe heads the directorate in charge of the revue and her co-workers are Mrs. George Alling and Mrs. Charles Galloway.

Refreshments will be served after each showing with members of the club presiding.

Mr. and Mrs. James J. Hague, Jr., entertained Mr. and Mrs. Robert Needham at dinner Thursday. Dr. and Mrs. Kimball Page and Dr. and Mrs. Ralph Purvine were invited for dessert and bridge later in the evening.

Alpha Mu Delphians will hold their first fall meeting Tuesday morning at 9:30 o'clock in the fireplace room of the Public library. The topic for discussion will be "The Growth of Democratic Ideals in Britain."

Topics will be taken by Mrs. O. D. Adams, Miss Antoinette White, Mrs. Hugh Latham, Mrs. Charles Kinzer, Mrs. J. T. Burton, Mrs. Charles Fowler and Mrs. J. K. Hubbard, Mrs. Lawrence Maves will act as leader.

Entertaining this afternoon at a delightful bridge-luncheon were Miss Esther Baird (left) and Miss Mary Starbuck, who were hostesses at the latter's home in Dallas complimenting Miss Dorothy Alexander, popular bride-elect.—(Jesten-Miller).

Frey-Luther
The A. E. Luther residence will be the scene of the marriage of the Luthers' daughter, Miss Vera Luther, and Clarence Frey, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. Frey of Salem, at 9 o'clock tonight. The vows will be exchanged before a large window decorated with pink gladioluses. Rev. Raynor Smith of Jason Lee Methodist church will officiate.

The bride will wear a chic suit of teal blue with black accessories. Her corsage will be of gardenias and pink rosebuds. Her only attendant, Miss Lucille Frey, will wear a black frock with matching accessories and a corsage of rosebuds.

Glen Luther will serve as best man for Mr. Frey. A reception will follow the service. The table will be centered with a bride's cake, guarded by bouquets of gladioluses and burning tapers. Only immediate members of the family will be present.

Following a wedding trip, the couple will live at 1025 North Cottage street.

Miss Luther attended Salem schools, St. Vincent's Nursing school, the University of Portland and Sacramento Junior college. Mr. Frey also attended Salem schools and is now connected with the Dr. Pepper company.

In compliment to Mrs. George A. White, who is leaving to make her home in Portland and Fort Lewis, Mrs. John L. Rand will entertain Tuesday afternoon, October 1, at tea. A group of Mrs. White's friends have been asked to call to bid her au revoir.

Honoring Miss Arline Sholseth, who will enter Oregon State college this fall, Mrs. William Borchardt, Mrs. L. Rudie and Mrs. Max Barhyte entertained informally at the latter's home Thursday evening.

The hours were spent informally and gifts were presented to Miss Sholseth.

Bidden were the guest of honor and Mrs. Floyd Rudie, Mrs. A. J. Sholseth, Mrs. Melvin Trindle, Mrs. Richard Severin, Miss Betty Severin and Miss Bertie Hubbe.

Somekawa-Yada

The marriage of Miss Eni Yada, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Yada, and Arthur Somekawa, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. Somekawa of Portland, will draw three hundred guests to the First Presbyterian church Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Rev. W. Irvin Williams, pastor of the church, will officiate at the rites.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, will wear a gown of ice blue marquisette, embellished with embroidery and palmetto in pastel shades, and fashioned with flowing skirt and full train. Her veil will be ice blue and she will wear blue mits. She will carry a bouquet of orchids and lilies-of-the-valley.

The maid of honor, Miss Martha Okuda, and the bridesmaid, Miss May Tambana, will wear matching frocks of orchid taffeta in bouffant style. Their flowers will be mixed shower bouquets.

Best man will be Howard Nomura of Portland and William Oda will serve as usher.

A reception for members of the bridal party will be held in the church.

Presiding at the table will be Mrs. Melvin Johnson of Salem, Mrs. Howard Nomura of Portland, Mrs. James Yada, mother of the bride, and Mrs. G. Somekawa, mother of the bridegroom.

The wedding cake and the ices will be cut by Miss Freda Sandvick, Miss Maxine Stenberg, Miss Ruby Kanove and Miss Suzie Fukuda. In charge of the guest book will be Miss Minnie Ogura and the dream cakes will be passed by Miss Kimiko Kusachi.

Assisting in serving will be Miss Yoshiko Yoshikai, Miss Lillie Yoshikai, Miss Anna Takayama, Miss Heien Tanaka, Miss Yoeko Saito, Miss Sumi Ogura, Mrs. Thomas Ogura, Miss Koto Kyono and Miss Maye Oye. The couple will live in Portland. For going away, Miss Yada has chosen a smart costume of brown silk with green accessories and a brown fur coat. Her corsage will be of orchids.

Both Miss Yada and her fiancé are well known in Salem, where they have a wide circle of friends.

Miss Mary Ellen Hammond and Mrs. Joseph Cronin will preside at a delightful dinner party Tuesday evening at the home of their mother, Mrs. O. C. Hammond, in Kingswood Heights.

The affair will compliment Miss Dorothy Alexander, bride-elect of Edward O. Stadter, Jr.

Covers will be placed for Miss Alexander, Mrs. William Dabney, Mrs. Ronald A. Gemmill, Miss Gertrude Mishler, Mrs. O. C. Hammond and the hostesses, Miss Mary Ellen Hammond and Mrs. Joseph Cronin.

Brown-Eaton
Tonight at 8 o'clock in the Leslie Memorial church, Miss Ida Jo Eaton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Eaton, will become the bride of Lawrence N. Brown, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Brown of Salem. Rev. Dean Poindexter will read the service before seventy-five relatives and friends of the couple.

The altar will be decorated with woodwardia fern, palms, white chrysanthemums and gladioluses and glowing cathedral tapers, and will be centered with a cross. Preceding the ceremony John Schmidt, Jr., will sing "The Rosary" and "Ave Maria," accompanied by Mrs. Schmidt, who will play the wedding marches.

The bride will be given in marriage by her father. Her gown will be a stunning model of white satin, with square neckline of lace, a bodice of lace, with buttons extending down the back into the full skirt and long train. Her short veil will be held with a lace cap that comes to a point on the forehead. She will carry Mrs. Frank Shafer's prayer book, from which will fall Cecil Brunner roses on streamers of white satin.

The honor attendant, Miss Mae Juza, will wear blue taffeta with full skirt and quilted velvet bodice. She will carry a nosegay of pink roses and white bouvardia.

The bride's mother will wear black crepe with a corsage of album lilies and Mrs. Brown will wear a frock of wine crepe with a corsage of lilies.

Richard Rentfro will serve as best man and ushers will be Thomas N. Eaton of Portland and Frank Shafer of Salem.

The table, at the candlelight reception to follow the ceremony, will be all-white. The centerpiece will be the large bride's cake, which will be decorated with bouvardia and Cecil Brunner roses in the corners and flowers on the top.

Presiding at the urns will be Mrs. Roy Brainard of Reedsport and Miss Lucy Gille of Salem. Serving will be Mrs. Thomas N. Eaton of Portland, Miss Florence Ritchie, Miss Marjorie Mason, Miss Dorene Davis and Miss Alice Welch.

Mrs. Frank Shafer will cut the wedding cake and Mrs. Ray Rhoten will have charge of the guest book.

The couple will leave following the ceremony for a wedding trip south. For traveling Miss Eaton has chosen an ensemble of cadet blue and a corsage of rubrum lilies. They will return to Salem to live and, after November 1, will be in their new home at 1505 South High street.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Needham and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Potts will leave Wednesday for a trip to San Francisco.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cross are enjoying a vacation at Neskowin.

Ticket sales for the Salem Philharmonic Orchestra association have been under way for the last week and Floyd Miller, chairman of the ticket committee, reports an excellent response on the part of the public. Sales will continue for another two weeks before a final check-up is made and indications from early reports are that sales this year will exceed those of a year ago. The subscriptions being received are practically the same as last year but additional tickets are being placed as a one-third reduction in price was made effective by action of the directorate of the association.

Other committees are active, a meeting of the music committee having been held to discuss music and artists who will appear with the local musicians in concert this year. Miss Frances Virginia Melton is chairman of this committee.

First of a series of auditions by Conductor Edouard Hurlimann was held this week. Mr. Hurlimann is giving much time to the quest for musicians for the Salem orchestra in order to achieve a well balanced organization. Mrs. Harry W. Scott is chairman of the membership committee and all interested in the orchestral work are requested to call her in order that arrangements may be made for auditions to be held later by Mr. Hurlimann.

Mrs. W. E. Hanson presided at a delightfully arranged luncheon Friday afternoon honoring past regents of Chemeketa chapter, Daughters of the Revolution. During the afternoon a regents' club was organized with Mrs. Homer Coulet, Sr., named president and Mrs. C. C. Geer, secretary. Mrs. I. M. Schattnep will entertain the group with a luncheon October 21. Covers were placed for twenty-one.

Hostess this week was Mrs. Robert Cannon, who presided at a smart affair Thursday evening honoring Miss Isabel George, bride-elect of Don Cannon. Mrs. Cannon will entertain again this evening at her new country home honoring Mr. Cannon's birthday anniversary.—(Jesten-Miller).