

GOOD TASTE TODAY

By Emily Post

It is true that the typical card tray is of silver, much as the typical tea set is of silver, but just as a tea set may equally well be of china, a card tray may be of almost anything except china or glass. It might be a pewter, copper, brass or chromium—even a little lacquer tray is both practical and pretty. Answering the same letter further, this tray should be approximately as big as a bread and butter plate. That is, between five and a half and six and a half inches in diameter—the smaller size if it happens to be a square tray.

The Office Telephone
Dear Mrs. Post: When the office telephone rings I answer: "Jones and Company," but sometimes the voice will ask, "Who is speaking?" before asking for a definite person. Shall I then answer, "This is Mary Blank," or "This is Miss Blank?" (I am in the middle third in case that has anything to do with the answer.)

Lace Tablecloth Heirloom Design

By Baroness Piantoni

PATTERN No. 1557
Years ago only Lords and Barons could set a table with lace cloths of mythical animal and leaf design. Today, however, the simplest home is able to set a festive board with these handsome laces, because the home woman will make her own. The three motifs offered today are separate units joined alternately. Made with size 30 cotton each filet square when completed measures 9 inches. The pattern comprises full information and instructions; also 3 filet diagrams. Ask for No. 1557 and enclose 10 cents (coin). Address Capital Journal, Needle Arts, 149 New Montgomery St., San Francisco, Cal.

Busses Creating Hazard at Dallas

Dallas—A regular meeting of the city council was held Monday evening in the city hall and the applications for beer and wine licenses by the Oregon state liquor control commission for Charles Bilyeu and T. J. Primus were approved. The matter of busses parking on Main street while loading and unloading passengers was discussed at great length. It seems that the way they park now is creating a traffic hazard and the ordinance committee was instructed to have an ordinance ready for first reading at the next meeting of the council, controlling the parking of the vehicles or providing them space in which to park.

Guests Price Home
Silverton — Charles Price of Eugene, an employe of the Southern Pacific company, accompanied by Mrs. Price (Clara Davis) are spending three days as house guests of the family of Price's brother, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Price. The Charles Prices were residents of Albany for many years.

Needle Club Honors President; Elects

Dayton—Twelve members attended the November meeting of the Peninsula Needle club, held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Lorenzen. Mrs. Max Peffer, the president, was especially honored, because with her family she is soon to move to a farm near Buell. Refreshments were served. Election of officers resulted in Mrs. Herbert Willard being elected president, Mrs. Walter Senn, vice-president, Mrs. Melbie McDonald, secretary-treasurer. The next meeting will be with Mrs. McDonald Thursday, December 13.

Snell to Address Class of Men

The men's class of the First Presbyterian church school, of which J. M. Johnston is president, will be addressed Sunday morning by Hon. Earl Snell, secretary of state. Mr. Snell's topic will be "Men and the Younger Generation." All men interested in hearing Mr. Snell are invited to attend the class. Another new church school group, the young married people's class, will be taught by Rev. W. Irvin Williams, who will speak on "Growing Together in the Home." Sunday's lesson will cover such topics as "Infatuation," "Doubts," "Fixations," "Self-Love" "Love-Hatred."

12,000 Men Attack 17,500 Pounds Turkey

Camp Murray, Wash., Nov. 21 (AP)—When the 41st division tucks its feet under the table and its napkin under its chin for Thanksgiving dinner here today, 12,000 men will attack 17,500 pounds of turkey.

The Oregon, Washington, Idaho, Montana and Wyoming soldiers, doing a year's active duty, will have a dinner that will rival anything they could get at home, Major General George A. White, division commander, announced.

General White said this would be a typical mess for a company (100 to 110 men):

Cream of turkey soup, 1 1/2 gallons; roast turkey and celery dressing, 100 pounds; mashed potatoes, 80 pounds; candied sweet potatoes, 30 pounds; asparagus tips, four gallons; cranberry sauce, four gallons; 20 pumpkin pies, 20 mince pies, 20 dozen tea rolls, 10 gallons of coffee, 10 gallons of cider, and 55 pounds of assorted nuts and candies.

The entire division will join in the holiday. Religious services will be held at 10 a.m. The dinner will start at 2 p.m.

Grand Chaplain Visits
Independence—Rev. William B. Mahon, grand chaplain of the Oregon Masonic lodges, made an official visit to Mt. Tabor Royal Arch lodge in Portland Monday evening. The members of the Peninsula lodge were also in attendance. Rev. Mahon was accompanied to Portland by Mrs. Mahon and Mrs. Stella Pluke.
