

Members of Church Class Entertained

Dallas—The XI class of the Methodist church held its Christmas party at the home of Miss Fanny Dempsey with Mrs. Carl S. Graves, Mrs. A. M. Larsen and Mrs. M. M. Bergey as joint hostesses for the evening.

With business disposed of in a brief fashion, those present turned their attention to a reading given by Mrs. George R. Greenwell and to the singing of Christmas songs by the entire group, with Mrs. Ross Chaplin accompanying at the piano. At the conclusion of the program Santa appeared and gifts were exchanged.

Guests were Mrs. Walter E. Balantyne, Mrs. Conrad Stafira, Mrs. Ross Chaplin, Mrs. Hollis Smith, Mrs. J. R. Sibley, Mrs. Emil Feyer, Mrs. G. O. Butler, Mrs. J. N. Holman, Mrs. Burton C. Bell, Mrs. Max Graves, Mrs. Florence Hunter.

Members present were Mrs. L. H. Holt, Mrs. Peter Berg, Mrs. Randall Butt, Mrs. H. J. Elliott, Mrs. Corna McBea, Mrs. Guy Shreve, Mrs. George R. Greenwell, Mrs. N. L. Guy, Mrs. Walter Williams, Mrs. G. L. Hawkins, Mrs. Ed Shaw, Mrs. R. R. Livesay, Mrs. T. G. Richmond, Mrs. Rose Broadley, Mrs. J. W. Hooser and the hostesses.

Red Cross Drive Completed

Mill City—It has been announced by Mrs. Robert L. Schroeder, local chairman, that the final count from the recent roll call of the American Red Cross for this community revealed that the workers raised a total of $181.75, well over the quota requested for this district.

Whodunnit? Asks Kay Kyser—"You'll find out" as soon as he does in the haunt and harmony, spook and swing mystery melodrama of that title in which, as pictured above, Ginny Simms, Helen Parrish, Boris Karloff, Peter Lorre and Bela Lugosi gather 'round Kay Kyser to provide thrills and thrills. This starts Sunday and runs through Christmas at the Elsinore theatre. Plus: "Behind the News" with Doris Davenport and Lloyd Nolan.

Five Great Disney Triumphs are combined into one glorious screen show known as the Great Walt Disney Festival. This elaborate offering opens tomorrow at the Hollywood theatre. This includes "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs," "Ferdinand the Bull," "The Practical Pig," "The Ugly Duckling" and "Donald's Lucky Day."

To the Editor: Since the Oregon Commonwealth Federation seems to be the favorite editorial target of your publication, we try to read what you write with more devotion than we are able to give to most papers. (Otherwise, I assure you, we have done little to increase your circulation.) We usually read your editorial blasts, post them on our bulletin board, and nothing more. Your editorial of Wednesday, however, entitled "Busy Travelers," contained in its two paragraphs such an amazing succession of inaccuracies that I am moved to call them to your attention.

Your opening statement that I have just been to Washington, D. C., was correct. There then followed, however, the following statements which would seem to indicate that your writer neglected his homework in his search for fact:

1. Assistant Attorney General Norman Littell is not and never has been connected with the Washington Commonwealth Federation, and, in fact, is identified with those who oppose that organization.

2. You state that both Littell (whose name you misspell) and Commonwealth President S. Stephenson Smith have been appointed to new deal "sinecures" (sic). President Smith neither has nor does hold any new deal appointment but is an official of the American Society of Composers, Authors and Publishers.

3. You then nominate Senator Harry M. Kenin to be WPA administrator for Oregon, and state that this was one of the objectives of my visit to Washington. Now that you mention it, Senator Kenin wouldn't be a bad choice, since he would probably put considerable humanity into the WPA administration, but I saw no one in this connection while in Washington, and Senator Kenin is in no sense a candidate for this position.

But to the last statement in your editorial we cannot take exception: The Commonwealth Federation would like to see the leadership of the democratic party really begin to represent the progressive-New Deal-Roosevelt sentiment of the party's own rank and file.

Sincerely yours,
MONROE SWEETLAND,
Executive Secretary.

Mill City Theatre Gives 'Food Show'

Mill City—Response to the annual "food show" given at the Mill City theatre by the manager, R. P. Veness, was very encouraging, a large quantity of food stuff being received in place of admissions. This food will be distributed among the underprivileged of the community in the near future to help them to enjoy the Christmas holidays.

Following the feature picture four vaudeville acts were put on by the dancing pupils of Mrs. R. P. Veness. Included were the following numbers: Tap dance by Phyllis Anderson and Frank Peabody; dance by the tap dancing class made up of Marjorie King, Virginia Vandermere, Wanda Vandermere, Marlene Verbeck, Lela Mel Kelly and Duane Wells; ballet dance by Phyllis Anderson and a Spanish ballet number by Mrs. Veness, the instructor.
