'At Home' Arranged Sunday

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Kriesel, who have been home on holiday from Bolivia, will entertain with an "at home" Sunday at the home of Mrs. Kriesel's aunt, Miss Effie and Miss Ida May Smith, in Lincoln street.

Calling hours will be from 4 to 1 o'clock and a large group of prominent Salem folk will make up the guest list.

The Kriesels and their attractive young daughter, Miss Patsy, will leave January 10 to return to Bolivia.

Marriage Rites on Christmas Eve

The home of Rev. Kunzman in Vancouver was the scene of a quiet ceremony Christmas eve when Freda Magnuson, formerly of Salem, became the bride of Al Erickson of Portland. Rev. Kunzman officiated in the presence of a few friends and relatives.

Mrs. E. Zimmerman was her sister's honor attendant and Adolph Strom served as best man.

Following the ceremony the couple returned to Salem. They have been spending the holidays at the Zimmerman home.

Engagement Told At Breakfast

Announcement was made of the betrothal of Miss LaVerna Swindell, daughter of Mrs. Flossie Swindell to Jack Glander, son of Mrs. Nonie Coles at breakfast Christmas morning.

Miss Swindell attended Salem schools and Mr. Glander received his education in Aberdeen, Wash. No date has been set for the wedding.

The breakfast was held at the home of Mrs. Flossie Swindell and place cards revealed the betrothal of the couple. Covers were placed for Miss Swindell and Mr. Glander, Mrs. Swindell, Elmer Baxter, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Wolfe and Roland Lee Wolfe.

Later in the day the couple were honor guests at dinner at Mrs. N. Coles home in Valley Junction.

Miss Nancy Wallace Is Party Hostess

The Wallace Orchards' home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Wallace was the scene of a gala watch party New Year's eve when their daughter, Miss Nancy, home from St. Helen's hall for the holidays, entertained a group of sub-debs and their escorts.

Miss Shirley McKay, daughter of Senator and Mrs. Douglas McKay, will return today to Corvallis, where she is a freshman at Oregon State college.

Miss Mary Elizabeth Kells, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Kells, is here from Walla Walla for the holidays. She will return north Sunday. Miss Kells is on the faculty at the St. Paul's School for Girls.

Another daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kells, Miss Frances Alice, is visiting in Klamath, Fla., with Mr. Kells' mother and sister. En route Miss Kells visited in Indianapolis with Mr. and Mrs. Harley Byrmond Hiestand (Margaret Ann Kells).

Simplicity in Cutwork

By BARONESS PLANTONI

PATTERN No. 1488

If you have been searching for something unusually beautiful to give the spring bride to cache in her hope chest we suggest you send for the cutout designs offered today. Worked up they are as lovely and artistic as any the foreign markets used to offer. The pattern includes three motifs (two of each) so you will have sufficient transfers to give variation to your gift of towels, or pillow cases. The pattern comprises 6 hot iron transfer designs (2 each of 3 designs), each approximately 4 by 6 inches; also full information and instruction. Ask for No. 1488 and enclose 10 cents (coin). Address Capital Journal, Needle Arts, 149 New Montgomery St., San Francisco, Cal.

Gov. and Mrs. Sprague Are 'At Home' New Year's Day

Governor and Mrs. Charles A. Sprague are inviting their friends to call at their fourteenth street residence New Year's day between the hours of 3 and 6 o'clock. The Degree of Honor meeting will be held Friday evening, January 3, at 8 o'clock, in the K.P. hall.

Lebanon Folk

Enjoy New Year's

Lebanon—Gayest of the week's post-Christmas parties here were those of New Year's eve which included watch parties and the annual ball of the Lebanon Dancing club, held again this year at the American Legion hall.

Preceding the dance Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Mayer and Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Davenport entertained at the home of the latter in honor of Lieutenant and Mrs. Arthur Fisher who spent the holidays here with relatives. Mr. and Mrs. Elanathan Lowe were also hosts at a large cheerful party for a group of their intimate friends early in the evening.

Several church groups also observed the occasion with large parties in the social halls of their respective churches.

Family Reunion At Larsen Home

Aumville—A family reunion was held Christmas day at the Andrew Larsen home near Sublimity for the Martin Zuber family. After an exchange of gifts a Christmas party followed. Those attending were the honor guest, Martin Zuber, Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Michels and daughter, Ernestine, of Washougal, Wash., Mr. and Mrs. Alvy Zuber and children, Alvord, Caroline and Arlene, of Woodburn, Miss Helen Zuber and Edwin Zuber of Salem, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Zuber and children, Junior and DeWayne, of Aumville, and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Larsen of Sublimity.

Dinner Party At Tweed Home

Lebanon—Dr. and Mrs. Peter Tweed entertained at a dinner and bridge party at their home on Franklin street on the occasion of their 25th wedding anniversary. Holiday greens and flowers which were sent by friends in honor of the occasion graced the rooms of the Tweed home.

At the close of play, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Downing received the prize for high scores at cards. Covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. John Gill, Mr. and Mrs. T. G.
