

Dallas Lodges Join Forces At Installation

Dallas—Joint installation ceremonies for the new officers of Friendship Lodge No. 6 I.O.O.F. and Almiria Rebekah Lodge No. 26 were performed in the lodge hall Thursday night in the presence of a large crowd. The installing officers were: Rebekahs—District Deputy President Mrs. Charles Cochran; Marshal, Mrs. Tracy Staata; chaplain, Mrs. C. B. Teate; warden, Mrs. Fred Holman; secretary, Mrs. Lola Hadley; treasurer, Mrs. Ted Keyes; guardian, Mrs. W. A. Anderson; musician, Mrs. Roy Alderson.

I.O.O.F.—District Deputy Grand Master Bert Teate.

Deputy grand marshal, Fred J. Holman; deputy grand warden, Roy Alderson; deputy grand secretary, Riley Craven; deputy grand treasurer, Frank J. Coad; deputy grand chaplain, C. B. Teate; deputy grand guardian, W. A. Anderson.

Officers installed were: Rebekahs—noble grand, Mrs. Elmer Schulson; vice-grand, Mrs. T. B. Hooker; secretary, Miss Hazel Butler; treasurer, Miss Violet Larson; past noble grand, Mrs. L. H. Howell; warden, Mrs. Vincent Jones; conductor, Mrs. P. J. Voth; chaplain, Mrs. Florence Hunter; inside guardian, Mrs. A. Hildebrand; outside guardian, Miss Veretta Wampler; musician, Miss Harriett Fullenwider; R.S.N.G., Mrs. Fred Holman; L.S.N.G., Mrs. Lois Hadley; R.S.V.G., Mrs. Mary Starr; L.S.V.G., Mrs. A. Z. Brown; trustee (3 years), Mrs. C. B. Teate; press correspondent, Mrs. John R. Allgood.

Odd Fellows—noble grand, Floyd O. West; vice-grand, Henry G. Friesen; secretary, Bert Teate; financial secretary, E. M. Loban; treasurer, A. M. Larson; warden, Lester E. Jolly; past noble grand, P. J. Voth; conductor, Fred J. Holman; chaplain, C. B. Teate; inside guardian, Charles Cochran; outside guardian, W. A. Anderson; musician, Charles Forrette; R.S.N.G., P. J. Voth; L.S.N.G., Carl S. Graves; R.S.V.G., Riley Craven; L.S.V.G., John Friesen.

During the evening Mrs. L. H. Howell, retiring noble grand, and Mrs. Ralph Howe, retiring secretary, were presented with gifts in appreciation of the services they had rendered during their term of office.

After the installation refreshments were served and dancing was enjoyed by the members and friends. The committee in charge was composed of Mrs. P. J. Voth, Mrs. Mason, Mrs. J. Paul Bollman, Mrs. Carl S. Graves, Miss Hazel Butler, Paul Bollman, P. J. Voth, Carl S. Graves and E. M. Loban.

Double Capitol Bill—Bela Lugosi in a scene from "White Zombie," starting Tuesday at the Capitol theatre. Plus, Rachelle Hudson in "Bables for Sale."

Wesleyan Guild Planning Tea

Woodburn—Mrs. A. D. Folker entertained the Wesleyan Guild of the Woodburn Methodist church Friday evening at her home on the Pacific highway south of Gervais.

Ann Withers presided over the business meeting and appointed the following standing committees: Hospitality, Wilma Livesay, Hollie Paulson, Trussa Graham; program, Winifred Gralop, Evelyn Jones, Peggy Dobson; devotions, Eleanor Smith, Sadie Gates, Veona Livesay; year book, Ruby Stone, Annette Lytle, Leona Miller; flowers and decorations, Mary Ernest, Ola Lee Thompson, Vernita Jayne; ways and means, Harriet Folker, Elfa Fikan, Ruth Rea; calling committee, all members of the Guild; publicity, Zoia Louthian; transportation, Ann Withers.

It was decided to hold a silver tea February 14 at the home of Mrs. Folker from 2:30 to 4:30. No other meeting will be held in February. Ruby Stone and Eleanor Smith will have charge of the program for the tea.

Mrs. Withers announced a meeting of the members at her home Thursday, January 16, to finish the layette for the Red Cross.

Zoia Louthian is in charge of the devotional service and gave historical data and comments on the Twenty-third Psalm. An interesting quiz was held during the program hour on current events with Ola Lee Thompson acting as Professor Quiz and Ann Withers, score keeper. The members were divided into two sides and the contest ended in a draw.

Refreshments were served from the attractive buffet with Wilma Livesay serving and Ann Withers at the urns.

Independence PTA Meeting Today

Independence—The regular meeting of the Parent-Teacher association will be held Monday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock, in the training school building.

This organization, in its constant effort to bring into closer cooperation the school and the home, has arranged a discussion period for the following problems: Have You Problems Which Face You Constantly Concerning the Health of Your Child? Are There Safety Hazards Which Need to be Eliminated? In What Way Might the School Aid You in the Solution of These Problems? Where Might Parents and Teachers Cooperate to Greater Efficiency?

Mrs. Elmer Barnhart will lead the discussion for high school mothers; Mrs. Paul E. Robinson for the elementary mothers; Howard Bennett will present the problems of the high school teacher; and Victor Phelps of the elementary school.

Mrs. Ira D. Mix, president, urges all members, parents and friends interested to make a special effort to attend this meeting.

Club Leaders Party Guests Keizer School

Keizer—The party sponsored by the Marion county 4-H local leaders Friday evening in the auditorium of the new school, was one of the most successful ever held here and was attended by prominent 4-H club workers of Marion county. Among them were Wayne Harding, Mrs. C. Weddie and Mrs. J. E. Whitehead, Jr. Mrs. Agnes Booth, county school superintendent, was also present. Mrs. David Saucy was general chairman and her assistants were Nels O. Anderson, Mrs. Bernice Paley Galfon, Miss LaVaun Gardner, Miss Elizabeth Beers, Miss Gretchen Gomer, Miss Rose Marie Kronberg, Mrs. Laura B. Miles, Mrs. H. L. Pearey, Mrs. Lorin White, Mrs. Blanche Theodora, Mrs. Paul Yung, Mrs. H. McLaughlin, Miss Verle Saucy and E. Bartruff.

Selections were played during the evening by the Keizer orchestra under the direction of Cloyd G. Lawrence.

Twenty-six tables of cards were in play with the following receiving high and low scores: Contract bridge, Mrs. H. W. Irvine and Arthur Holden, Miss Elizabeth Beers and J. E. Putnam; "500", Mrs. Clifford J. Pugh, Ted Whitehead, and Mrs. Buel and H. W. Bowden; Pinochle, Mrs. H. McLaughlin, Glen Lavery and Mrs. Glen Lavery and Wayne Harding; Chinese checkers, Miss Linda Girod, W. E. Savage and David Saucy led for the booby prize. Mrs. Albert Minton and Albert Evans were awarded the door prizes.

Lloyd Girod, principal of the Richmond school, announced the refreshments were served after the games, with Mrs. Blanche Theodora and Mrs. J. E. Bartruff in charge. Assisting in serving were Miss Luella Eby, Miss Barbara Baldwin, Miss Romma Evans, Wandalline Ely, Violet Hamilton and Ruby Yoshimoto. Miss Verle Saucy and her 4-H group had charge of the nursery.

The proceeds from the party will be used to help defray expenses of delegates to the annual 4-H leaders' conference to be held at Corvallis the latter part of this month.

1812 Pensioner Invited East For Radio Talk

Independence—Mrs. E. A. Morgan received a letter from Robert A. Ripley of New York asking her permission for a drawing for his newspaper column and also inviting her as his guest to New York to speak over the radio with all expenses paid and the expenses of a companion.

Mrs. Morgan, mother of Verde Morgan, is the only living pensioner of the War of 1812 which is a distinction and honor for Independence. Mrs. Morgan is just recovering from a siege of the flu and at the present time will not be able to make the trip to New York.

North Howell Ec Club Meets

North Howell—Glady's Waltman and Martha Vinton were hostesses at the January Home Economics club meeting at grange hall. The newly elected chairman, Hazel Strachan appointed Amy Beer, vice president; Martha Vinton, secretary; Jesse Coomer, treasurer and Diadema Cline lecturer as fifth member.

On the quilt committee are Anna Dunn, Florence Oddie and Belle Kurree. The towel committee are: Daisy Bump and Josie Stevens; apron committee are Glady's Waltman and Florence Espee.

Card parties under the direction of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Waltman will be January 16 to 30. Playing will start promptly at 8 o'clock.

Glady's Waltman, retiring president, was presented a gift of pottery ware by the club members and also gifts from friends, January being her birthday month. Jesse Coomer told of her trip to Indiana by train over northern route returning in their new car by the southern route. Lola Esson and Gretchen Jackson will be the hostesses at the February meeting.

Silverton Christonsons Guests In Hillsboro; Hospital Patients Seriously Ill

Mr. and Mrs. George Christonson and Mr. and Mrs. John Christonson drove to Hillsboro Friday evening, where they were dinner guests of Mrs. George Christonson's sister-in-law, Mrs. J. T. Leuallen. George Christonson later attended a special meeting of the Odd Fellows.

Jack Tuggle is in Boise, Idaho, assisting his sister, Mrs. George Percy, in the management of a large ranch in the vicinity. He plans to be in Idaho for several months.

Virgil Canoy, Don Hawes, Edward Erickson and Leslie Anderson left Friday for Seattle to enter the Boeing factory in federal employ.

H. E. King was reported ill at the family home in South First street. His daughter, Mrs. Zelma Dale, is convalescing from a long illness, it is reported.

Jeff Hoyt has returned to the U.S.S. Whitney from a month's furlough, visiting for some time at the home of his mother, Mrs. Nettie Marshall.

Fred McEwen is showing satisfactory improvement following a reported heart attack last week.

Mrs. J. M. Hornberg of Richmond, Calif., was a house guest of her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. E. Jay McCall of East Hill for several days.

Word was received late Thursday that Kent Richard, small son of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Gaffey (Evelyn Solum), at the Salem general hospital, was still very ill but thought to be showing some improvement. Mrs. Gaffey is with her son in Salem.

Grange Master On Sick List

North Howell—Owing to illness of newly elected Grange Master Helen Wiesner, Past Master Hilficker served as master.

Erna Damewood announced agricultural meetings for January. Jackson of agricultural committee has planned his years work and talked on soils and soil conservation.

An invitation to attend Fairfield social night had to be refused, because of so much illness in the community.

Officers who were unable to attend installation of officers at Macleay were installed by Master Hilficker and Jesse Coomer.

The losing side in attendance contest for 1940 will furnish oyster supper at February Grange meeting. Program by lecturer. During lecture hour after recreation stunt, Kenneth Comler gave a talk on their trip east where they visited relatives in Indiana and friends in Texas.

Roy Esson gave a talk on "This and That and a Little of Everything."

Lodges Hold Joint Ceremony

Scotts Mills—The Royal Neighbors and Woodman lodge held joint installation with Mrs. Josie Hartman of Silverton as installing officer.

Royal Neighbor officers installed were: oracle, Helen Standinger; vice oracle, Margery Shepherd; past oracle, Margaret Fry; marshal, Norma Ehlth; assistant marshal, Crissie Dunagan; chancellor, Margaret Sauresay; recorder, Pauline Swartz; receiver, Nellie Amundson; inner sentinel, Cora Whitlock; outer sentinel, Rose Holt; musician, Jennie Sauresay; faith, Edith; courage, Grace Art; modesty, Ethel Pitman; unselfishness, Molly Wyland; endurance, Ethel Brodie; manager, Jennie Sauresay; flag bearer, Nellie Amundson; captain, Pauline Swartz.

Woodman officers installed were: counsel, Paul Shepherd; adviser, Al Wafekfeld; escort, Charles Littlepage; banker, Carlton Emch; watchman, Carl Johnson; sentry, Henry Shilts; past consul, Johnnie Johnson; secretary, Claude Johnson; trustees: one year—Jim Nicholson; two years—Lewis Plaur; three years—A. J. Ehlth.

Following installation a social evening was held and refreshments served.

Moon Farm Home Burned to Ground

Keizer—A fire, presumably caused by defective wiring, completely destroyed the house here occupied by Mr. and Mrs. V. Moon and their six children Saturday evening between 6 and 7 o'clock.

Moon is ill, and Mrs. Moon was at his bedside in the hospital when the fire occurred. It was discovered by their daughter who immediately called Guy Smith, the nearest neighbor.

He tried to save the structure but it was impossible. The house was owned by Larry Fortner, and was partially covered by insurance. The Moons lost all of their furniture, and most of their clothing, and carried no insurance.

Hazel Green

Chapmans Will Spend Remainder of Winter in South; Visitors Leave for Home

Hideo Tokimoto has returned to Portland where he will attend Benson Polytechnic school where he is studying aviation. Hideo was a guest for the holidays at the home of Roy Kaneko.

Melvin Wolf has returned to Tokeland, Wash., where he is employed at a crab fishery plant. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Wolf of this community.

Peter Williamson, who has been quiet with the flu and other complaints, is convalescing at the family home under the care of his daughter, Carolyn.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Peperling and sons of Eugene were recent guests at the home of Peperling's sister, Mrs. Will Williamson.

Mr. and Mrs. David Meyers were callers at the Williams home enroute to their home at Grand Coulee, Wash., after spending a vacation period at Alhambra, Calif., and other southern points.

Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Otjen of Silverton are occupying the Maurice Dunnigan home while the Dunnigans are enjoying a vacation in southern California. The Dunnigans were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Fred Chapman of Middle Grove, who will remain in California for the remainder of the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. I. I. McLaughlin of Puyallup, Wash., were recent guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elvin Van Cleave. Mrs. McLaughlin and Mrs. Van Cleave are sisters and the former resided here for a number of years on the old Ruby Woodward place.

Mrs. Ray McKibben is recuperating following a severe attack of flu. Barbara Ann, her young daughter, also suffered with the same affliction while at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Imbler of Boeig.

The Rudolph Wacken family enjoyed a holiday trip to Gold Beach where they visited with Mrs. Wacken's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Tellen.

City Managers Trial Date Slated

Silverton—Local folk are interested in the announcement of the suit of members of the city water commission against the city of Silverton, striving to prove the city manager form of government vote in May, illegal, to be set for trial, Friday of this week in Salem, by Circuit Judge Carl Hendricks in charge.

The temporary government under city managers has Edgin McCleary as manager, named by Reber Allen, selected from the seven councilmen, Monday night, as mayor.

Jefferson

Mrs. Stewart Passes Crisis; Miss Looney Takes Position In Salem

Mrs. Rex Stewart, who has been critically ill with pneumonia, has passed the crisis and her condition is improving.

Mrs. Paul McKee and Mrs. Charles McKee will drive to Portland Saturday to spend the weekend with their daughters, Mrs. Charles Harvey and Mrs. Lincoln Waterman.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Games of Niagara are visiting at the home of Mrs. David H. Looney for a few days.

Miss Louise Looney has accepted the position of companion to Mrs. R. P. Boise on North Summer street in Salem.

L. C. Miller, who has been ill for three weeks with the flu, is improving.

Aumsville Selects Staff for 'Ranger'

Aumsville—High school students chose the following annual staff for the "Ranger" this year:

Editor, Bob Banker; assistant editor, Wanda Gresson; production manager, Wallace Smith; business manager, Maxine Versteeg; advertising, Nell Dickman, Wallace Smith and Allan Swoboda.

Typists, Vera Baldwin, George Tooker, Keith Rebo and Winifred Perkins.

Publicity, class salesmen, freshman, Marian Rowland; sophomore, Harriet Pilgrim; junior, Mary Schluender; boys' sports, Allan Swoboda; girls' sports, Verne Lewis; Pep club, Maxine Versteeg; Glee club, Winifred Perkins; plays and entertainment, Vera Baldwin.

Features, snapshots, Laverne McManman; humor, Ray Strawn.

Class pages, freshman, Irene Huber; sophomore, Alice Roberts; junior, Donald Newman; senior, Ivan Royce.

Forum Board Discusses Plans

Silverton—At the week's meeting of the executive board of the chamber of commerce the report of the constitution and by-laws committee was accepted and will be presented to the forum dinner meeting in January when a special speaker is being planned for.

The question of encouraging canner operation for the coming year was discussed at length. Errol Ross is industrial chairman of the forum. A visitation committee has contacted other canner firms during the past week in the interest of local situation.

The type of membership card and holder was decided upon. These will be displayed in the window of the business place of the member as a safe-guard against so-called members, individually. The card is to be kept from year to year with the marked paid-membership credit given on the back of the cover of the card.

Lyons Sunday School Officers Meet; Luncheon Meeting Held by Club Women

A meeting of the officers and teachers of the Lyons Methodist Sunday school was held at the church Thursday evening. The purpose of the meeting was to make plans for the year.

Mrs. Charlie Peterson left for Seattle Friday morning, where she will visit with her son, Bob, who is employed at the Boeing Aircraft company.

Mrs. Helen Vaughn of Silverton spent Tuesday and Wednesday at the home of her son, Robert Vaughn, and daughter, Evelyn.

Mrs. Albert Ring underwent an operation on her arm, which was badly crushed in a car accident last August. She is at the Salem Deaconess hospital. It is understood that a silver plate is to be put in to support the arm.

An all-day meeting of the Women's club was held at the clubhouse Thursday with a no-host dinner served at noon. The business meeting was in charge of Mrs. Alice Huber, vice president, due to the absence of the president, Mrs. Theresa Crabtree.

Mrs. Rudolph Bradder went to Tillamook Wednesday morning when she received word that her son, Charles Burk, was seriously ill.

Falls City Mack Family Receives Welcome; Nagel Transferred to Eugene Duties

The William Mack family has moved here.

Miss Frances Conet of Tacoma has been a house guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Amos Pierce for 10 days.

Mrs. Laura Horn is very ill with the flu. Mrs. Eva Teal is taking care of her.

Carl Nagel has been transferred to Eugene for inspecting cars in railroad work.

Miss Eda Watt, who spent the holidays with relatives, has returned to her school work at Fort Peck, Mont.

Willis Pierce of Oakland, Cal., who has been visiting his parents over the holidays, returned home Tuesday.

Legislature Calls Grand Island Club

Grand Island—"Early History of Oregon" was the subject led by Mrs. Worth Wiley and Mrs. Henry Taylor assisted by the remaining members who were present at the semi-monthly meeting of the Grand Island Mothers' circle held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Tompkins. Mrs. Frank Finicum was assistant hostess. Mrs. W. K. Bailey of Portland was a guest. Goods for dresses to be made by the members for the Red Cross was distributed. Refreshments were served.

The next meeting will be an all-day trip to the state legislature in session at Salem January 22 and all members are urged to attend, Mrs. Roy Will, president, announced.

North Howell Live Wire Victim Will Undergo Skin Graft; Stuckie Family Home From Visit

Mr. and Mrs. William Stuckie and family and Matta Gottenberg just returned from a two weeks' trip to California where they visited relatives in and near Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. Valmore Steward and daughter Agnes went to California before Christmas to visit relatives. Agnes, who is on the Silverton high school teaching staff, returned for opening of school, but her parents remained to visit with Mrs. A. N. Steward and children, Virginia, Ruth and David who sailed for America December 31 on the steamer Coolidge. Dr. Steward will remain in China for an indefinite period, but expects to have to move to the interior of China.

Stanley Vinton, who was so badly burned by live wires is improving and the doctor will commence grafting skin on his neck soon. Nothing will be done by his feet until they are healed and it is not known yet, if any of his toes will have to be amputated. He will be in the hospital about six or eight weeks.

War in Orient Dr. Lam's Topic

Grand Island—"Chinese War conditions" was the subject of Dr. Chan Lam, Portland, in an address given Thursday afternoon at the Unioval Evangelical missionary society monthly meeting held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Rockhill. There were 15 members and friends present. Dr. Lam has kept in close touch with his homeland because members of his family reside there and his last visit with them was made in 1934. Mrs. Rockhill served refreshments.

Pratum Community Club Plans Program

Pratum—The Pratum Community club will hold its January meeting in the school Friday night at 8 o'clock. E. U. Branch and Rev. J. L. Wilson are in charge of the program.

Mrs. Albert Mantle, Miss Mary Schapp and Mrs. Martin Rehm will serve refreshments in the basement during the social hour after the program.

Herman Kleen is president of the club and Miss Grace Klampe is secretary-treasurer.

Society to Install New Officers Sunday

St. Paul—A meeting of the Holy Name society was held Sunday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock in the parish clubroom. The newly elected officers installed, and new members admitted into the society. Members received Holy Communion in a body during the 8 o'clock mass. Officers are Ed Hammer, president; C. H. Epling, vice president; Tom O'Leary, secretary and treasurer. The consultants are Joseph Hauth, Albert Bochsler, Francis Schmidt and Alois Duda.

Turkey Feed Planned by Stayton Legion

Stayton—Stayton post, No. 58 American Legion, met in regular session Monday night and plans were announced for an evening of entertainment to be presented to Legionnaires and guests at the Forester hall on Saturday night, January 25. Commander Ernie Miller announced that a turkey feed will be the main attraction, and named a committee to arrange the matter, consisting of Harry Humphreys, chairman, and Dave M. John, Harry Rishel and Fred Dickman.

Silver Cliff Club Arranges Benefit

Silver Cliff—The Silver Cliff Boosters club met at the school house Friday night.

The group will sponsor a benefit card party at the James Mulkey home on the evening of January 31. Committees appointed were: program, Mrs. Floyd Fox, Mrs. James Mulkey, Miss Alice Brewer; visiting, Mrs. Fred Jarvill, Mrs. James Mulkey, Mrs. Barnett; lunch, Mrs. Ralph Mulkey, Mrs. Fred Jarvill and Floyd Fox.

Silverton—Mrs. Leonard Hudson was called to Grand Forks, N.D., to be with her mother, Mrs. R. J. McAuliffe, who is ill.

Aurora Club Groups Continue Projects

Aurora—At the last meeting of the Ham and Egg Service Cooking club, a yell and song rally was led by the leaders, Orelia Brown and Maxine Marsh. Juanita Lovell and Maxine Marsh gave a demonstration on custard. Refreshments were served. Nancy Woodring was a visitor. She is a new eighth grade pupil. She formerly attended school at Jennings Lodge.

Members of the Rosebud Sewing club met at the home of their leader, Mrs. Phoen Sayre. Plans were made to complete their latest project, "hot mats," by the next meeting.

The Woodworking club had as its topic "Sharpening Tools."

Social Hour Planned

Mt. Angel—Mrs. Emil Zack will open her home to members of the Catholic Order of Women Foresters on Thursday evening, January 16, for its monthly meeting. A social hour at "500" will be held following the business session.

Card Club Invited To Rebekah Hall

Lyons—Mrs. Floyd Bassett and Mrs. Walter Bevier entertained the Wednesday Afternoon card club with a party at the Rebekah hall with five tables of "500" in play, preceded by a 1:30 o'clock dessert luncheon. Prizes went to Mrs. E. E. Miller, high, Mrs. E. H. Horton, low, and Mrs. Henry Kruse, special.

Present were Mrs. Ivan Day, Mrs. Pat Lyons, Mrs. Orville Downing, Mrs. E. E. Miller, Mrs. Melburn Rambo, Mrs. Earl Allen, Mrs. Roy Huber, Mrs. Charlie Peterson, Mrs. Frank Kinsman, Mrs. George Huffman, Mrs. Seth Crook, Mrs. Henry Kruse, Mrs. Art Anderson, Mrs. Lovell Miller, Mrs. Norman Garrison, Mrs. Francis Jungwirth, Mrs. Hugh Johnston, Mrs. E. H. Horton, Mrs. Floyd Bassett, Mrs. Walter Bevier and Mrs. Jack Cornforth.

Millersburg Club Members Guests

Millersburg—The regular meeting of the boys' and girls' cooking club of the Millersburg school was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kreger Friday afternoon after school.

Following the brief business meeting Ronald Colbert and Loran Kreger demonstrated making cocoa.

The next club meeting will be at the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. McClanahan.

Members present were Janice Fisher, Jesse and Ronald Colbert, Robert Munsey, Phyllis McClanahan, Ardy's Harnisch, Dorleta Fisher, Shirley Nevius, Loran Kreger and the club's advisor, Hazel McMullen.

Guests were Mrs. Fred Kreger and son Alvin, Mrs. Jesse Colbert and daughters Ethel and June and Joan Harnisch.

Trinity Lutheran Choir Head Named

Silverton—Mrs. Tom Anderson was elected president of the Trinity Lutheran choir to succeed Miss Althea Meyers, who resigned, at a meeting of the group Thursday evening.

Assisting Mrs. Anderson are Eunice Fuhr, vice-president; Edwin Saitrum, secretary; Oscar Saitrum, treasurer; Lois Legard, librarian; Clifford Almqvist, assistant librarian; Floyd Elnstrom, as director; Mrs. Alf O. Nelson, organist; and Miss Lois Legard as assistant organist.

Birthday Celebrated

Mt. Angel—Miss Georgianna Piennette was honored with a "get-together" of the members of the O.S.T. club on the anniversary of her birthday, at the home of her parents Mr. and Mrs. Phil Piennette. Cards were played and lunch was served to the members of the club, of which Miss Piennette is president. Regular meetings will be resumed with the first meeting on January 16, at which time new officers will be elected.

ARIZONA
starring
JEAN ARTHUR
with
WILLIAM HOLDEN
WARREN WILLIAM—PORTER HALL
And A Cast of Thousands
GRAND

LIBERTY
TODAY and TUESDAY
Deanna Durbin in
"100 Men & A Girl"
— PLUS 2ND HIT —
Adults "3 FACES WEST"
John Wayne
Sigrid Gurie
15c
CONTINUOUS FROM 1 P.M.

HOME OWNED
HOLLYWOOD 15
Today - Tue. - Wed. - 2 Features
THE BOYS from SYRACUSE
ALLAN JONES
MARTHA RAYE
JOE PENNER
ROSEMARY LANE
And IRENE HERVEY
2nd Feat. One BUTTERWORTH
MAO MEN OF EUROPE

STATE 15
Tyrone Power Linda Darnell
A Cast of Thousands
"Brigham Young"
— 2ND HIT —
"Murder in the Air"
Ronald Reagan Lya Lys

ELGINORE
Today - Tues. - Wed.
The Tighest Adventure-Romance Ever Filmed in Technicolor!
GARY COOPER - MADEIRA CARROLL
CECIL B. DE MILLE'S
"NORTH WEST MOUNTED POLICE"
Plus—Dionne Quinlan and Disney Cartoon GOOFY GLIDER

LAPITOL
Last Times Tonight
"LITTLE NELLIE KELLY"
starring
JUDY GARLAND
with
GEORGE MURPHY
CHARLES WINNINGER
Plus—Burrice Merdeth in "SAN FRANCISCO DOGS"
Starts Tuesday
I CHALLENGE YOUR IMAGINATION
From The Grave I Brought Her A Zombie I Made Her... I Am A HUMAN VULTURE
WHITE ZOMBIE
BELA BLAZIC/LUGOSI
COMPANION FEATURE
What Would You Take For Your Baby?
"BABY FOR SALE"
Rochelle Hudson