

Vigilant Motor Cop—Edgar Dearing, dean of the screen's motorcycle police, has put the "pinch" on such Hollywood law-breakers as Joan Crawford, Carole Lombard, Claudette Colbert, Kay Francis and even Mabel Normand, way back in a Charlie Chase comedy of 1925. His latest victim is Ann Sothern in "Malsie Was a Lady," newest of the popular "Malsie" series. Above, Miss Sothern is telling her story to the judge. At right, the result! This opens at the Capitol theatre Sunday plus: "The Old Swimmin' Hole" with Marcia Mae Jones and Jackie Moran.

The Musical Extravaganza Of Two Continents—Rhythmic, irresistible rumbas and congas, gorgeous girls, romance in the South American way, all this in one great picture "Down Argentine Way" starring Don Ameche, Betty Grable, Carmen Miranda and Charlotte Greenwood. Playing Sunday through Wednesday at the State theatre with "Down Argentine Way" is "The Man Who Wouldn't Talk" with Lloyd Nolan and Jean Rogers.

Mrs. Ray Hostess

Dallas—Mrs. Elmer Ray entertained her sewing club Tuesday with a dessert luncheon, after which the group spent the afternoon in sewing. Present were Mrs. W. H. Effenberger, Mrs. Henry W. Friesen, Mrs. William Runyan, Mrs. Ralph Tull, Mrs. A. J. Brown, Mrs. Harold Mulkey, Mrs. Wayne Schirmer, Mrs. Sidney Hanson, Mrs. Roy Woodman and Mrs. Joe Garner and daughter, Judy, of Klamath Falls.

Gervais Missionary Society is Guest

Gervais—The Missionary society met in the Presbyterian church Wednesday afternoon with 17 members and guests present. "How Can the Church Serve Shifting Population?" was the topic of the book studied.

Following a short business session refreshments were served in the social hall by Mrs. D. St. John and Mrs. Lillian Rose. A birthday cake centered the table in honor of Mrs. G. J. Morrison.

Others present were Mrs. Edna Hanes, Mrs. R. S. Marshall, Mrs. Roes Cutsforth, Mrs. Irene Cutsforth, Mrs. Clara Jones, Mrs. Jess Adams, Mrs. B. Brown, Mrs. Sprock, Mrs. William Allsup, Mrs. Sumner Stevens, Mrs. Virginia Boster, Mrs. G. L. Wadsworth, Mrs. Robert Harger, Mrs. D. St. John, Mrs. Lillian Rose. Guests from Salem were Rev. and Mrs. H. Smith and Mrs. Anna Siegmund.

Amusville—Mrs. Mary Walker is seriously ill at her home. She is being attended by her granddaughter.

Smashing Spy Ring—Popular, two-listed Jack Holt comes to the Hollywood theatre Sunday in Columbia's timely new drama, "Passport to Alcatraz," smashing expose of the false passport racket which enables enemy aliens to sabotage America's munitions industries. C. Henry Gordon heads the espionage network, and pretty Cecilia Callejo is seen as an innocent victim of the saboteurs. Others in the cast are Noah Beery, Jr., and Maxie Rosenbloom, and second smash hit, William Powell and Myrna Loy in "I Love You Again."

When better dog houses are built—Jack Benny will be in them! That is, he will if Fred Allen and Mary Martin have anything to say about it, and they've plenty to say in the new comedy, "Love Thy Neighbor," the film in which that well-known radio feud comes to the screen. With Rochester among those present, the picture starts today at the Elsinore theatre.

A son of the plains and a daughter of the west find romance and adventure in turbulent Old Tucson, dramatic scene of Wesley Ruggles' new Columbia production, "Arizona." She's Jean Arthur, star of the spectacular epic; he's William Holden, featured with Warren William and Porter Hall in the cast of thousands. The picture is being held over through Tuesday at the Grand theatre.
