Legion Auxiliary Session Draws Many to Capital City

Two hundred women gathered in Salem Sunday for the district two conference of the American Legion auxiliary, which was held in the Fraternal temple, with many distinguished visitors in attendance. Mrs. Josephine M. Kane of Dundee presided at the session. Mrs. J. W. Pentney, president of Capital unit auxiliary, Mrs. Kane was presented with a corsage.

Congresses were also presented to Mrs. Hubert A. Goode, department president; Mrs. Sylvia Southard of Lebanon, department vice president; Mrs. Mae E. Whitcomb, past department secretary; Mrs. Edith Brown, financial chairman.

Committee chairmen introduced and reported on their work were Vivian Urle, child welfare; Barbara Rhoades, employment and relief; Laura C. Smith, chairman of Portland area hospital; De Lauree Helming, junior activities chairman; Ruby Bergsvik, girls' state chairman; Anne Powell, publicity; Eda Zolozzo, national news chairman.

Other distinguished guests were past department presidents including Callie Heider, Dorothy Eakin, Blanche Jones and Cecelia Gunn. District presidents present were Myrtle Chilcott of Tillamook, Nora Francis of Ontario and Nina Morris of Sheridan.

Mrs. Hubert A. Goode, department president, spoke and stressed rehabilitation and child welfare in her message before the assembly. She asked that the rehabilitation commission, which now includes three unit members and three post members, be enlarged to include the same type of work in child welfare. The rehabilitation commission has been in effect for the past three years and is doing a fine piece of work, according to Mrs. Goode.

Mrs. Laura C. Smith, rehabilitation chairman, spoke on the gift shop where veterans may obtain gifts to send their families and the work done in the Portland Veterans' hospital. Vivian Urle, child welfare chairman, reported that the auxiliary's motto is "A Square Deal for Every Child." Sylvia Southard, vice president and membership chairman, reported 5814 members in the state, 84 quota units, and 45 national citations to date.

The banquet at the Hotel Marion completed the district meeting. The tables were arranged with smilax, artistic arrangements of seasonal flowers and lighted tapers.

Birds and Butterflies for Linens

There isn't a homemaker among us who won't swell with pride when she shows off handsomely decorated linens. And her feeling of having things beautifully embroidered is enhanced if she has done the needlework herself. The bird and butterfly and flower designs shown above, equally appropriate for towels and pillow slips, are worked up in outline and cross stitch. The towels embroidered in a medley of contrasting colors and the pillow cases in white are guest room accessories which will tell your visitors that you have given them special attention. The pattern comprises 4 hot iron transfer designs, 4 by 14 inches each with color chart and illustration of stitches; also full information and instructions. Ask for No. 1159 and enclose 10 cents (coin). Address Capital Journal, Needle Arts, 149 New Montgomery St., San Francisco, Calif.
