

West Stayton Club Names New Officers

West Stayton—Mrs. Stan Ruggles and Mrs. John McManmon were hostesses at the Birthday club meeting held in McClellan hall. Election of officers was the feature of the business hour. Mrs. Hazel Crane was elected president, Mrs. Lera Snoddy, vice-president, and Mrs. Cora Billa, secretary-treasurer. The new president took the chair and presided over the balance of the meeting. The retiring president is Mrs. Elsie Bone. The social hour was spent making valentines. Mrs. Lera Snoddy was given first prize.

Lunch was served to Alise Chance, Sally Coas, Minnie Allen, Mary Hankel, Hazel Crane, Minnie Dickman, Ada Stewart, Helen Gilbert, Mabel Odenthal, Carol Lacy, Edna Wilkinson, Edith McManmon, Kntherine Ruggles, Leona Lacy, Elsie Bone, Jennie Schaefer, Lottie Comstock, Ida Clark, Cora Billa, Lera Snoddy, Christiana Forrester. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Bone with Mrs. Billa co-hostess. Seattle People Visit Pratum—Mr. and Mrs. William de Vries had Mrs. de Vries' cousin

Mr. and Mrs. L. S. McMullen of Seattle, Wash., as their house guests this week. McMullen has been called to San Diego, Calif., to report for service there. He is chief engineer for merchant marines. Mrs.

McMullen will go to Wisconsin to visit with relatives. United States products entering Argentina are 80 per cent above a year ago.
