Induction Calls Stayton Residents

Stayton—Fourteen of the sixteen men sent to the United States army induction station by Marion county local board number 3, Monday, were accepted and are now getting used to routine army life.

Two of the inductees were rejected because of minor physical qualifications, and at least one may be accepted at a later date.

Volunteers accepted at the induction were Orville Sylvester Wolfe, Turner; Benjamin Olin Belden, West Stayton; Omer Levi Martin, Jefferson; Ernest Thompson, Stayton; Ed Sawyer, Salem; Gerald Raymond Gugh, Salem, and Dean George Pugh, of Turner.

Selected men accepted were: Earl Charles Meyer, Stayton; Adelbert Sheldon Miller, Albany; Elmer John Owens, Salem; Edwin Albert Hensell, Salem; Leonard Martin Lambrecht, Stayton; George Fowler Herschback, Salem, and Charles Edward Longfellow, Mill City.

Marion county local board No. 3 will be required to furnish nine men for the March quota. This quota will be called sometime between March 17 and 28.

Mrs. Green Sees 83rd Birthday

Jefferson—February 27 was the 83rd birthday anniversary of Mrs. S. M. Green, who has been a resident of Jefferson for the past 32 years. She came to Oregon when nine years old with her parents from Missouri and settled in Chehalis valley near Newberg, which was composed of two or three log houses at that time. With the exception of two years spent in Humboldt county, California, Mrs. Green has lived all of the time in Oregon.

Mrs. Green enjoys exceptionally good health for one of her years, and her hobby is piecing quilts, of which she has a large collection. On her 83rd birthday she completed a quilt of a different and beautiful pattern, a duplicate of one she pieced at the age of 18 years.

She makes her home with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Pierce Jacob.

Nightly Rehearsals Held Upon Comedy

Evangelists Return From Everett; Glatts Back Home After Winter in South

Mrs. D. A. Dryden of Woodburn, route 1, is in the Deaconess hospital in Salem where she was given a major operation Wednesday morning. Her condition is fair.

Miss Anna Dryden of McKee, who has been ill since the first of the year with ear trouble, is slowly improving at the Deaconess hospital.

Mrs. P. T. Collas of Hillsboro was a recent guest at the home of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Mary Jackson and family.

Rev. and Mrs. Paul C. Hartford of the Foursquare Gospel church have returned from Everett, Wash., where they have completed a four weeks' series of religious meetings.

Mr. and Mrs. John Gatt returned recently from Long Beach, Calif., where they spent most of the winter and report that the rainstorms in other parts of California missed Long Beach.

Safe Driving Campaign Ends

Jefferson—The seven weeks' safety driving course, sponsored by Secretary of State Earl Snell's traffic safety division, in the local schools, has been completed. The Jefferson high school students completing the course are Mildred Thurston, Earl Marcum, Kenneth Meng, Donald Smith, Jerrold Oldenburg, Helen Parrish, James Henderson, Beverly Wells, Gene Mary Redmond, Bette Terhune and Constance Martin.

Lee and Dee McGill have leased the farm belonging to the late J. A. Colgan northeast of Jefferson, farmed for the past three years by Colgan's son, Lionel Colgan.

Lloyd Shipman went to Kelso, Wash., Thursday and brought back six tons of smelt for local milk farmers. He also brought back a six ton load Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Goetz of Albany were guests the first of the week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Calahan. Mrs. Calahan, who has been ill for several months, remains about the same.

The faculty members of the Jefferson schools attended the sectional institute at Woodburn Saturday.

Mrs. Jack Devaney is in the Albany hospital recovering from a recent major operation.

Silverton Justice Court Loses Cases

Silverton—Thursday was "dismissal" day in the justice court of Judge Alf O. Nelson.

Bill Smith, a strawberry grower of the Hills section, came in from work and found both his car and his hired man gone. After waiting while Smith felt was a reasonable time, he filed information with the court for the apprehension of the man, Ernest Bottemiller, on a larceny charge.

Smith later asked that the case be dismissed as restitution had been made by the employer, who explained that he wanted to go to Portland and that he thought he could take the car without question. Costs were paid and the case dismissed.

Mrs. W. G. Andrews asked that charges of disorderly conduct and destruction of property be dismissed against Alec McDonald, preferred some time ago and transferred from Salem. She explained that repairs and restitution of property had been made good. Costs were paid by McDonald and the case dismissed.

Smith later asked that the case be dismissed as restitution had been made by the employer, who explained that he wanted to go to Portland and that he thought he could take the car without question. Costs were paid and the case dismissed.

Services were held in the Presbyterian church with three out-of-town ministers participating in the ceremonies. They were Dr. Quirinus Breen, former Lebanon minister and now professor in social science at the University of Oregon; Dr. Norman K. Tully, Eugene Presbyterian church pastor, and Rev. Howell of Albany, national mission minister.

Dr. and Mrs. Burns and the visiting ministers and their wives were entertained at dinner by members of the session preceding the installation.

Mission Group Retains All Old Officers

Mill City—The regular meeting of the Presbyterian Missionary society was held at the home of Mrs. J. F. Potter, with Mrs. W. J. Robinson assisting Wednesday afternoon. The opening ceremonies, in charge of Mrs. John Swan, included scripture reading, songs and references to the topic of the day, which was "Africa and the American Negro."

Following the usual business meeting, conducted by Mrs. Lee Morris, the president, it was announced that the world day of prayer would be observed here by an hour's program at the Presbyterian church Friday afternoon.

The annual election of officers was held with the following results: President, Mrs. Lee Morris, re-elected; vice president, Mrs. James Swan, and secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Fred Grimes, re-elected. A president for the Aid society, with her assistant and a quilting chairman, will be selected later. All officers will take office April 1.

Mrs. Herbert Schroeder was in charge of the afternoon's program, giving a report on evangelistic work in Africa. An article telling of a printing press in Africa was read by Mrs. Charles Kelly, as was an interesting one on the American negro, read by Mrs. Clyde Rogers.

The afternoon's program closed with another hymn led by Mrs. John Swan, with Mrs. W. W. Allen at the piano. Refreshments were served by the hostesses buffet style, small tables being placed in the living room.

Attending the interesting meeting were Mrs. W. W. Allen, Mrs. Frank Bass, Mrs. Fred Grimes, Mrs. Charles Kelly, Mrs. Lee Morris, Mrs. O. H. Newman, Mrs. Clyde Rogers, Mrs. Herbert Schroeder, Mrs. James Swan, Mrs. John Swan, Mrs. Edward J.
