

Linn Public Health Group Has Election

Albany—Election of officers was one of the high lights of the annual meeting of Linn County Public Health association Tuesday night following the banquet at the Riverside Community hall. Dr. Vernon A. Douglas, Marion county director of the health department, was the principal speaker. He was introduced by Elsie Witten, acting executive secretary of the Oregon Tuberculosis association.

Dr. Douglas spoke on the relation of the public health department to community with reference being given to the tuberculosis problem.

All officers of the Linn county association were re-elected, with the exception of the office of vice-president, when J. D. Field of Albany was elected as vice-president in the place of P. S. McDowd of Harrisburg, who asked to be released from the office.

Olin Nebergall, Albany, was re-elected president of the association, and other officers are: Mrs. Walter Larsen, Albany, secretary; B. M. Bond, Halsey, treasurer; O. E. Mikkelsen, Albany, membership chairman; Mrs. J. D. Fields, Albany, educational chairman.

Mrs. George Mealey, Sweet Home, was elected as head of public health nursing for the coming year and will succeed Mrs. Albert Muller of Albany.

Rev. Frans Resigns

Albany—The Rev. J. J. Franz, pastor of Grace Mennonite church, Wednesday announced his resignation from the pulpit and his temporary withdrawal from pulpit work because of ill health. Rev. Franz will be succeeded by the Rev. Kluwer, who will come here in mid-May after 18 years of service as a missionary with the Cheyenne Indians at Ashland, Mont. He is now pastor of the Ebenezer church at Gloufion, Ohio. Rev. Franz came here a year ago.

Dog Catcher Named

Albany—Patrick J. Sheehan, retired U. S. army master sergeant, started work Wednesday as special police officer and will be in charge of enforcing the city's dog ordinance, city officials announced. Officer Sheehan is authorized to pick up any dog not in the custody of its owner. This is the first time in many years that Albany has enforced the ordinance forbidding dogs running at large.

Conner District Voting Building

Dever—A special school meeting will be called at the Conner school house in this district, April 22, at 8 o'clock in the evening, for the purpose of voting to build a new school building. All the voters in the district are urged to attend.

Pythians Will Meet in Dallas

Dallas—Marrion lodge, Knights of Pythias, met in the lodge hall Tuesday night for a regular meeting. Plans for the district convention here April 22 were discussed at some length and arrangements made to hold a further planning session with representatives from the Independence lodge, who, with the Dallas group, will be hosts for the evening.

Fred West, chairman for the convention program, announced that he had invited Judge R. Frank Peters of Hillsboro to make the address of the evening and promised the members that a complete program would be available for their approval at next week's meeting.

Merritt Hart, chairman of the annual carnival night, slated for Thursday in the lodge hall, reported that all preliminary plans had been completed and that a special committee was engaged in applying the finishing touches.

Hart, who is also master of work, announced that two candidates would be initiated into the rank of esquire at the April 29 meeting.

Jack Silsby, Ed Campbell and Wilbur Morley were appointed as the committee responsible for the "feed" at the convention. A feature of the district meeting will be the dedication of a new flag for the lodge.

Middle Grove Boy Scout Group Busy

Middle Grove—Members of the Boy Scout patrol group from this community with their junior patrol leader, Lee Wagers, and the scout master, Robert Wagers, attended the recent council held at the Salem armory for similar groups from the surrounding area. Lee Wagers won third place in the fire lighting contest. Members who attended were Kenneth Munson, Gary Keppinger, James Maddox, Glen Wagers, Lynn Barker, Wade Carter and Bobby Wagers.

The local group has enjoyed numerous hikes and outdoor feeds this winter and have become proficient in many ways due to the tutelage of the patrol leader, Lee Wagers. Some of the boys are not old enough to become regular members but are Cub Scouts for the time being. They have given valuable assistance with a number of projects for the betterment of the local school grounds including the new ball diamond recently completed. The backdrop was completed with wire the past week and is now in readiness for daily usage by the softball team.
