Nelson Initiates 'Reform' Program Silvertown—Judge Alf O. Nelson of the local justice court conceived an idea of "practical application" reform Saturday morning when a young man who had been released on his own recognizance appeared as requested, pleaded guilty of larceny of tools from Silver Falls employees, was given a sentence of 60 days in jail.

The sentence was suspended providing restitution of material was made, which was done, that he was to obey all laws for two years and that he pay a visit each month of the two years to the penitentiary and county jail, with plans made with the warden and sheriff to cooperate so the young man might see what is in store for him should he break parole. This was Lloyd Baker, who is paroled to Constable A. Amo. Peter Maurer, charged with larceny of a necklace, did not fare so well for he did not appear as agreed and a bench warrant was issued for him.

Bridge Discussion Interests Council Silvertown—At the special meeting of the city council Friday night, further discussions concerning the two "crippled" bridges over Silver Creek with definite action to be directed by the acting city manager, Elgin McCleary. The third and final readings of ordinances on trespassing on city property, traffic and pinball operation were passed.

Machine Hurdles From Highway

Silvertown—E. H. White, former local merchant and now of Bend, is wearing a "shiner," patched scalp wounds and other bruises about the body and face as a result of a 40-foot hurdle of his automobile down a steep bank on the Detroit highway Saturday afternoon on his way to Silvertown from central Oregon. The car with White still at the wheels, landed in the river which happened to be shallow enough for the safety of the driver. The car was badly damaged. White believes his injuries are not serious.

Past Masters Are Honored

Silvertown Hills—Mrs. Milton Knauf, lecturer, prepared and read a resume of the accomplishments of the local grange since its organization more than ten years ago Friday night when the past masters, all living, were honored and Guy Sanders, Master of the Silvertown Grange, a special guest.

Seated at the special table were Mr. and Mrs. Walter Parrish, Mr. and Mrs. L. O. Hadley, Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Murray, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Loe, Mr. and Mrs. George Benson, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Hadley, Alfred Loe and Ira Loran. Mrs. Knauf announced program selections including group singing of patriotic songs, accordion solos by Grace Winkler and Marna Muesig, tumbling act by Oranee Winkler and readings by Harold Loran and Lyle Murray.

Mrs. Stuegl was given credit for table and room decorations in a scheme of flowers of grange colors. During the business of the evening it was announced that the matinee project would be deferred until after the strawberry fair and harvest. Mullen Heads Rotarians Albany—Floyd Mullen, Linn county agent, Friday, was selected by the Albany Rotary club board of directors as club president for the 1941-1942 term, starting July 1. Dural Burgraf was named vice-president and Walter Smith and Ben Gerig were reelected secretary and treasurer, respectively. The Albany club resolved in favor of passage of the Homer Angell bill in congress providing for the acquisition of areas a fourth of a mile wide on either side of every major federal aid highway passing through forested areas to be reserved from cutting and preserved for scenic purposes. Wallace Eakin is the retiring president.

Church Youth Leaders Meet

Silvertown—Bill Hobbs of Albany, Willamette university freshman, was re-elected president of the Methodist Youth Conference of the Salem district at Saturday afternoon's meeting during the three-day session at the Silvertown church, of which Rev. Edward Terry is pastor: Dr. J. Edgar Purdy, president of the Salem district, was installation guest at the final meeting of the conference Sunday afternoon.
