COMPLETE FEMINE HYGIENE DEMANDS. MUCH has been written about feminine hygiene. But too often women overlook hygiene in the REAL sense of the word—underarm cleanliness and sweetness. You cannot be attractive with underarms moist, stained and smelly. Use Arid, the new cream deodorant. 1. Arid does not rot dresses, does not irritate skin. 2. No waiting to dry. Can be used right after shaving. 3. Instantly checks perspiration 1 to 5 days. Removes odor from perspiration, keeps armpits dry. 4. Arid is a pure, white, greaseless, stainless vanishing cream. 5. Awarded Approval Seal of American Institute of Laundering as harmless to fabric. Women use more Arid than any other deodorant. Try a 10¢, 39¢ or 59¢ jar today at any store which sells toilet goods.

A. A. U. W. Session Interests

Miss Florence Sweet of Pendleton was elected at Saturday's final business meeting of the state American Association of University Women as secretary of the state branch, succeeding Miss Mabel Morton of La Grande, whose term has expired. Miss Sweet is librarian at the Pendleton high school and is an organizer and former president of the association's Pendleton branch.

The terms of Miss Beryl Holt of Salem, the state president, and of Mrs. W. H. Thomas of Portland, vice-president, do not expire this year.

Saturday's program included, in addition to the forum on legislation, reports of branch activities by 20 of the state's 21 branches; a luncheon at Waverly Country club, at which Mrs. Silwing P. C. Au, wife of the Chinese consul, spoke, and a panel discussion on "A. A. U. W.'s Program for American Security," presented by members of the Portland branch.

A recommendation to the national convention of the American Association of University Women that the association's legislative activity be confined hereafter to the field of education was approved Saturday by delegates attending the annual convention of the organization's Oregon state division, which closed in Portland that evening.

The national meeting will be held in Cincinnati in early May, when action will be taken on a lengthy list of proposed program items that cover social and industrial problems as well as those of education.

Myers Johnson Rites are Read

Miss Jean Johnson, daughter of Mrs. Hulda Johnson of Montesano, Wash., became the bride of Fred Myers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Myers of Salem, at a beautiful ceremony solemnized at 9 o'clock Sunday morning in the fireplace room of the First Presbyterian church. Rev. W. Irvin Williams officiated.

Miss Elizabeth O'Reilly played the wedding marches. The bride, given in marriage by Dr. B. F. Rambo of Montesano, wore a smart rose wool frock with a princess coat, kolinsky furs and a brown straw hat. Her corsage was of orchids.

Mrs. Donovan T. Kelley, the matron of honor, wore a slate blue wool ensemble with beige accessories and a corsage of gardenias. Donald Manning was best man and John Catrall served as usher.

Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was held at Ullman's. Later the couple left for a honeymoon in southern California. Upon their return they will make their home in Salem.

The bride attended Willamette university. Mr. Myers attended Oregon State college and is connected with the traffic division of the Oregon State highway department.
