Wolverton Friends Will Call Sunday

Monmouth — O. A. Wolverton, well known Monmouth and Polk county citizen, will observe the 80th anniversary of his birth, Saturday, May 10. The event will be celebrated with open house at the attractive East Jackson street residence of Mr. and Mrs. Wolverton.

Receiving with Wolverton will be Mrs. Wolverton and his two daughters, Mrs. D. J. Bolter of Monmouth and Mrs. C. M. Daniels of Portland. Calling hours are from 2:30 to 4:30 in the afternoon and 7:30 to 10 o'clock in the evening. Wolverton's many local friends as well as the many out-of-town are invited to call.

Wolverton, a native Oregonian, was born on a farm near Suver and came to Monmouth to live in 1902. He has spent his many years in or near Monmouth. For several years he served as postmaster of Monmouth.

Storage Money Long Delayed Has Premium

Independence — W. T. Hoffman of Independence, who formerly operated a warehouse at Parker, received a letter from Ed Wieth, local farmer, this week enclosing a check for $23.27.

The letter states that in 1927 Wieth stored 200 sacks of grain in Hoffman's warehouse at Parker and in disposing of his old account book he could find no record of ever paying the storage which amounted to $10. He sent his check for the $10 plus 6 per cent interest compounded for 13 years and eight months which amounted to $23.27.

Hoffman accepted the check although he was not aware of the storage money due him.

Seven Pupils Will Graduate

Central Howell—Sunday evening, May 11, Rev. Unruh of Immanuel Mennonite church at Pratum will preach the baccalaureate sermon for the graduates here. Graduation exercises will be held at the schoolhouse the evening of May 15.
