Montana Man Weds Miss Amelia Dreher

Dayton—Miss Amelia Dreher, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Dreher of Dayton, became the bride of Arthur E. Buckley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene W. Buckley of Bozeman, Mont., at St. James Catholic church in McMinnville Wednesday morning, May 7.

Only relatives and close friends attended. Their home will be near Bozeman.

Mrs. Bozeman is a graduate of Dayton high school.

Mill City Club At Sause Home

Mill City—Members of the Mill City bridge club were guests of Mrs. Henry Sause at her home in Lebanon for a 12 o'clock luncheon and afternoon of contract Thursday.

Mrs. Sause was formerly a member of the group here.

Prizes for high score went to Mrs. Charles Porter, first, and Mrs. A. A. Holthouse, second. Consolation went to Mrs. R. L. Faust, the floating prize for most games going to Mrs. W. L. Quinn.

Attending from here were Mrs. Charles Porter, Mrs. T. W. Allen, Mrs. C. M. Cline, Mrs. A. A. Holthouse, Mrs. Carl Kelly, Mrs. C. E. Mason, Mrs. R. L. Faust, Mrs. R. F. Sauter and Mrs. W. L. Quinn. Additional guests were Mrs. E. V. Collins of LeComb and Mrs. Warden of Lebanon.

South America is Theme for Dance

Mt. Angel—The South American influence will prevail over the spring prom to be held by Mt. Angel normal and college students May 23. Decorations in the Latin manner will transform the local auditorium into a Spanish patio. Mock adobe, palm trees, cactus bushes and reed furniture, will carry out the theme. The fiesta touch will be added with a ceiling of brilliant hued balloons. Jeanne Anderson, senior from Woodburn, heads the decoration committee as advisor. Mary Grace Richard of Portland is chairman.

Jimmie Whitmore's Portland dance band has been engaged for the prom.

Seniors of Mt. Angel academy and Mt. Angel prep will be special guests of the collegians at the major spring social event. Members of the 1940 graduating classes of Mt. Angel college and Mt. Angel normal and college are also being invited to attend.

Under a new policy adopted by Gale Storm of St. Helens, student body president, upper classmen have been appointed to serve as advisors to the prom committees. All chairmen are either sophomores or freshmen.

Independence—Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Amsberry were hosts for a dessert supper bridge party at their home on Monmouth street. Prizes for the evening of contract were won by Mr. and Mrs. Theron Hoover. Invited guests included Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Addison, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Charbonneau, Mrs. Thelma Tallent, Marvin Davidson, Mr. and Mrs. Hoover and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Kletzing.

Interesting Filet Crocheted Squares

By Haronca Planton

The two filet crocheted squares shown above—both classical in design—will be an inspiration to the woman who likes to create interesting home touches. Some suggestions—with size 30 cotton the pieces measure 13½ inches square, just the right size for pillow runners or desired lengths. Joined together they can be made into tablecloths or other things or you can picture a more elegant pattern envelope contains 2 filet-crochet diagrams of easy-to-see dot-in-square method; also full directions. Silverton Club Has Fine Session

Silverton—The last meeting of the year for the Silverton Woman's club, under the presidency of Mrs. George Jaeschke, was an outstanding success in the 1 o'clock luncheon, program, installation of officers, reports of the year and announcements of important club events of the important, yesterday afternoon, at Smith creek federal recreational area with Mrs. Harry Buckley, general chairman, of plans. More than 75 members and special guests were present.

Two Silverton women came in for surprise honors. In Mrs. F. Glenn McDonald presenting medals to Mrs. George Hubs as being a local club member for the longest term of consecutive years, and to Mrs. H. B. Latham as being a leader in civic betterment service. Mrs. Sam Ames, late member of the club, was accorded memorial honors for term of service. This ceremonial was through the federated pioneer club program under national plans.

Mrs. Ernest Byberg, program chairman, introduced Mrs. John Jordan who gave in story form the book, "O, Service of Love," by O'Henry.

With the weather ideal, the formal installation of officers was held in the "Little Chapel in the Woods," near the lodge with Mrs. Jaeschke in charge of ceremonies. Mrs. Ralph Larson will serve the club as president for the coming year; Mrs. A. B. Wiesner as vice-president; Mrs. S. Severance as secretary; Mrs. Ernest Byberg as treasurer. Old fashioned nose-gay corsages were presented each newly inducted officer by Mrs. Ken Hewitt, retiring treasurer. Mrs. A. J. Titus, past president, on behalf of Mrs. Jonas Byberg, junior past president, gave Mrs. Jaeschke a gift of silver. Mrs. Severance led "God Bless America," in song.

The luncheon tables were decorated by Mrs. A. J. Titus and Mrs.

Ken Hewitt in keeping with the rustic interior of the dining lodge with platter arrangement of wild flowers in pastel orchid and lavender color mingled with maiden-hair ferns. On the table were copies of books donated the city library displayed through the courtesy of Mrs. H. B. Latham, president of the library board since its inauguration more than 20 years ago. Mrs. Latham read a list of books.

Harry Buckley, federal project supervisor of the recreational area, was the featured speaker of the afternoon, explaining the set-up of the area, its purpose, extent, which is 4,000 acres of scenic grandeur, and the building and landscaping plans with the surprising revelation that this area is the only one in Oregon and one of two on the Pacific coast, the other in Mendocino county, Calif.

Assisting with the luncheon were Mrs. Buckley, Mrs. Charles Hoyt, Mrs. Helmer Brokke, Mrs. Clark Bachman, Mrs. Leonard Hudson and Mrs. A. J. Titus and Mrs. John Wilson.

Distinguished guests of the Marion County Federation, accompanied from Stayton club by Mrs. V. R. Thel, Mrs. Gilbert Schachstick and Mrs. Eugene Spantol; past presidents of the Silver Cliff club were Mrs. Elmer Hubbard and her daughter, Mrs. W. F. Krenz; guests of Mrs. George Hubs were Dorothy Mae Hubs of Albany, Alice Stamey Leatherwood of Tacoma and Margaret Jamie Hubs of San Francisco; local women guests, Mrs. Irene Morley-Franke, Mrs. Clarence Reed, Mrs. Clare Helmke, Mrs. J. J. Oeder, Mrs. C. Van Cleave, Mrs. Christian Peterson, Mrs. Alice Grace, Mrs. Ad Tokstad, Mrs. Marion Green, Mrs. Silas Olson and Mrs. C. W. Keen.

Coming events for the summer are the annual Ames tea as a garden affair at the home of Laura Ames-Allen to be Friday afternoon, May 23; the triennial state convention at Corvallis in June, and the baby portrait show.

Mrs. Ken Hewitt gave the report of the Marion County Federation meeting at Salem, and Mrs. Ralph Larson told of the third district meeting in Forest Grove as an officer instructive program. Mrs. Jaeschke named Mrs. Harry Buckley, Mrs. A. J. Titus, Mrs. Ernest Starr and Mrs. Ralph Larson to select to summer recreational camps for one week each during the summer. Support was pledged the Parent-Teacher community canning gardens for the benefit of the one-hot-dish school lunches.

Silverton—Mrs. Zanta Hutton was accompanied to Corvallis Saturday by Mrs. J. Whitlock and Mrs. George Bowman.

Mrs. Hutton and Mrs. Bowman were guests at the Mothers-Daughters banquet at the Benton hotel being honored by their daughters, Miss Elma Hutton and the Bowman twins, June and Jean Bowman, from Snell hall. Mrs. Whitlock and her daughter, Miss Betty Whitlock, attended a like affair at Memorial Union Hall.

Silver Tea Is Planned by Club

Silverton—The Women's club will hold its annual silver tea at the home of Mrs. Laura Ames Allen with general chairman in charge of the affair, Mrs. H. B. Latham.

Lackner-Wolton Vows Are Read

Selo—May first was the date of the marriage of Miss Genevieve Martha Volton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard E. Volton, and Mrs. A. J. Lackner, both of Jordan. The ceremony was solemnized at a nuptial high mass at 9 o'clock in Our Lady of Lourdes church.

The bride wore a white satin gown enhanced with a lace yoke and fashioned with court train. Her veil was edged with lace and held in place with orange blossoms. A gold locket was her only ornament and she carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses, sweet peas and lilacs-of-the-valley.

Miss Elaine Volton, sister of the bride, was the honor attendant. She wore aqua chiffon over taffeta with a matching hat and a bouquet of deep pink sweet peas.

Fred Lackner was his brother's best man.

A wedding dinner followed at the home of the bride's parents for the two immediate families, Agnes Enders and Patricia Terhaar of Salem and Anna Thomas of Jordan officiated. In the evening a wedding dance was held at Jordan, following a honeymoon at the Oregon beaches the couple will live in the Jordan community.

Guests at the wedding were Rev. Ludwig, Mr. and Mrs. Anton J. Lackner, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Lackner, Mr. and Mrs. Bernard E. Volton, Frank Lackner, Hattie Lackner, Mike Lackner, Hank Restler, Leo Volton, and Slain Volton of Jordan.
