

Partial Earnings Reports Sought

In an effort to reduce the number of inaccurate claims, the state unemployment compensation commission soon will request employer cooperation in confirming reports of workers' partial earnings. Administrator Silas Gaiser announced today.

Wages of regular workers earning less than $15 or their weekly benefit amount, or those working less than full-time for a covered employer will be included in the new reports. Under the procedure, which is expected to be ready for introduction next month, the employer will be notified weekly of possible benefit rights.

Existing pay roll practices will be used wherever possible to verify workers' earnings. The procedure will conform to the requirements of the social security board.

"These earnings reports will be asked only for those working regularly with some one employer," explained Mr. Gaiser. "Where a worker does odd jobs with several concerns, he is not considered a regular employee."

"By employer verification of earnings and employer participation in actual filing of claims, the commission hopes to reduce adjustments to a minimum."

$109,000,000 Cut Called Good Start

Washington, May 21 (AP)—Democratic members of the house ways and means committee today hailed President Roosevelt's proposed cut of $109,000,000 for relief as a "good start," but called on him to extend economy to other non-defense expenditures.

The committee considering a proposed $3,500,000,000 tax program had urged that the White House take the initiative in paring down expenses not essential to defense.

The house deficiency appropriations subcommittee starts hearings on the 1942 relief appropriation today. Mr. Roosevelt, in a message to congress yesterday, proposed revisions in his earlier estimates and reduced the $995,000,000 requested in January to $886,000,000.

Chairman Robert L. Doughton, D., N.C., of the ways and means committee, said, "That's a start. I hope it keeps up." The suggested economy "of itself wouldn't have any great weight on a $3,600,000,000 tax bill," he said, but might "have a good psychological effect."

France Beyond Armistice Terms

Washington, May 21 (AP)—The United States considers that France has gone beyond armistice terms with Germany, it was said in informed quarters today, by permitting German planes to use Syrian airfields to attack British forces in Iraq.

These sources said Secretary Hull made that observation to Gaston Henry-Haye, the French ambassador, when they conferred Tuesday on Franco-American relations.

The ambassador protested to the secretary of state against what he termed "an unfriendly gesture" by the United States in placing French vessels in American ports under protective surveillance.

Hull is reported to have called Henry-Haye's attention to the fact that all nations believe that a pro-Hitler element in the French government is now in supreme control. The burden has been placed on the French government, it was said, to correct that impression if it is wrong.

The Vichy government must make it clear in some satisfactory way that it is acting in good faith in the future in keeping within the terms of the armistice agreement, informed sources said, if the United States is to believe that France is impartial.

Washington, May 21 (AP)—The maritime commission Tuesday requested American newspapers, radio stations, press services and other sources of public information to effect a voluntary censorship on news of movements of U. S. merchant ships which are aiding the democracies.

Admiral Emory S. Land, commission chairman, said in a letter prepared for dispatch to editors:

"The maritime commission requests that, effective immediately, no publicity be given to the following subjects unless announced or authorized by the maritime commission:

- "1. Actual or intended movements of any vessels used to aid Britain or other democracies. This will particularly apply at this time to sailings to the Red sea and China (including Rangoon) and feeder service.
- "2. Names of lines or characteristics of vessels being used to aid the democracies.

Buddy had left his parents' auto trailer in Burke's auto camp in West Salem, and the parents did not know he was gone until Wayne Parker, traffic officer, took him home. Priesen had taken the lad to the police station.

Bond Selling Campaign Lagging

Washington, May 21 (AP)—Representative Crawford (R., Mich.) charged Tuesday that the government's "save-for-defense" bond-selling campaign was lagging badly and he predicted that compulsory measures would be necessary for its success.

A member of the house banking committee, Crawford asserted flatly, that without some form of coercion, not even $750,000,000 of the bonds would be sold monthly, whereas the treasury program calls for a billion-a-month quota.

After the campaign opened May 1, Crawford told newsmen, the first ten days were "fairly good," but since then the sales had dropped off materially.

He based that statement on information he said came from a variety of financial sources.
