The collection consists of 32,500 eggs, 1,000 mounted birds and 1,200 bird skins not completely mounted. The collection also includes more than 100 mounted mammals. Western Union Strike Threatens

Seattle, May 21 (AP)—Western Union Telegraph company officials today conferred with a committee from the Commercial Telegraphers' union (AFL) in an effort to settle a dispute over a union shop and 40-hour week before a strike deadline tomorrow.

Arvid B. Wicklund, chairman of the union's negotiating committee, said "some progress" had been made in meetings Monday and yesterday, but that no major confessions had been made by the company. He said the strike would be called if no agreement is in sight after today's conference.

The strike would involve about 400 persons, including messengers, at all of the company's Seattle operations. The union claims 120 members but is bargaining for a total of 175 operators, Wicklund said.

The telegraphers were organized by the AFL union after the Association of Western Union Employees, a company union, was ordered dissolved last year. Negotiations for a contract began here February 4.

Urges America to Enter War Now

London, May 21 (AP)—The London News Chronicle appealed to the United States today to enter the war immediately, "not to save us from defeat but to help us to victory—quickly."

The newspaper said that without American fighting aid, Britain would require a long time—perhaps years—to beat the axis, "but if you come in and come in fighting, we can whip these savages back into their caves before the end of next year."

"We now feel the time has come for us to speak frankly to you and tell you that now we want more from you than arms, more than knitted comforts and bandages, more than words of sympathy. We, the British people, want you, the American people, in this war on our side—fighting."

Deliveries from the South American company, 2,500 miles from American gulf ports and closest source of foreign bauxite, will start January 1, Reynolds said.
