

Crabtree Boy Healthiest in Entire County

Albany — Bobby Shumaker of Crabtree continues to be the healthiest 4-H club boy in Linn county. It was revealed Tuesday when he was named for the honor a second year. Because he won last year, Bobby will not receive a 4-H summer school scholarship but will represent Linn county in the state health contest at the state fair Bobby is 14, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Shumaker.

LeVon Kelly, 12, of the Devaney school district was judged the healthiest 4-H club girl in the county and will receive a summer school scholarship and go to the state contest. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tim Kelly.

Geraldine Graves of Sweet Home scored second among the girls; Barbara Jean Parker of Dever third; Doris Merton of Seilo, fourth, and Doris Garrett of Brownsville, fifth.

George Trager of Brownsville was second in the boys' division; Bob Hume, Brownsville, third; Harold Wamsley, Albany, fourth; Maurice Kelly, Seilo, fifth.

Rev. Short Transferred — Albany — Rev. M. M. Short, pastor of the Albany Church of the Nazarene for the past three years, is to go to Coquille to take charge of a church being organized there. He will be succeeded here by Rev. Willis L. Hanson from Alesia. The transfer will be effective Sunday May 25.

Damage Action Falls — Albany — A verdict for the defendant was returned Monday afternoon by a circuit court jury in the damage suit of J. Otis Farwell, administrator of the estate of DeLores Nadine Farwell vs. William Freerksen. Farwell asked $10,000 damages for the death of his daughter when hit by a car driven by Freerksen on the Pacific highway near Halsay, April 26, 1940.

Carruthers Hosts For Recent Guests — Bethel — Guests at the Joseph Carruthers home were Mrs. Clifford Abel of San Francisco and her aunt, Mrs. W. E. Doph of Everett, Wash; Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Stone of Eugene and Walter Carruthers of Pacific college at Forest Grove.

Mrs. Abel as a young girl lived near to Mr. and Mrs. Carruthers in Alberta, Canada. She is the wife of First Lieutenant Clifford Abel of the division of artillery at Fort Lewis. As there was no accommodation for the officers there, Mrs. Abel went north and kept house for her husband in an apartment 11 miles from camp.

Walter Carruthers, a student in the department of mechanical engineering at Pacific college, is leaving next week for Wrangell, Alaska, which was his home for many years. He is earning the money to pay his way through college by returning to Wrangell and working during the summer vacations as a machinist in one of the salmon canneries there. He is leaving for the north early in order to have the machinery properly repaired and inspected before the output of the cannery where he is employed is 237 cans of salmon per minute, this requiring 3000 salmon per hour.

Graduation Day Feast by Pentecost

Mt. Angel — Pontifica, high mass of Pentecost Sunday, sung by the Rt. Rev. Abbot Thomas Meier, will be the baccalaureate mass of the 1941 college seniors of Mt. Angel college.
