North Dakota Couple Married at Salem Home

At a beautiful, quiet ceremony performed Thursday morning at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Fagg, Miss Charlotte Elizabeth Severance of Stanley, N. Dak., became the bride of Goodwin Spencer Kvale, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Kvale of Minot, N. Dak. Rev. P. W. Eriksen read the impressive service before the fireplace, which was banked with delphinium, roses and sweetpeas. Preceding the ceremony, Mrs. Kvale, mother of the bridegroom, lighted the tall tapers.

The bride wore a gown of white brocade satin, made princess style with long train, a sweetheart neckline and a fitted bodice, trimmed with tiny satin buttons down the back. The long sleeves were gathered at the shoulders and extended into a point over the wrists. Her tulle veil fell from a coronet of orange blossoms and she carried a bouquet of American Beauty roses, tied with white satin.

Her only attendant, Mrs. Guy Fagg, wore aqua organza and carried an old-fashioned nosegay of sweetpeas, roses and delphinium. Mr. Fagg served the bridegroom as best man.

For her son's marriage Mrs. Kvale wore a navy sheer redingote, made with bracelet-length sleeves, and a corsage of roses and sweetpeas.

A wedding breakfast followed in the Rose room of the Hotel Argo. The table was centered with a bride's cake and decorated with summer flowers.

For traveling the bride chose a redingote ensemble of navy and white cable knit with white accessories. Her corsage was of gardenias.

The couple will live in Minot, where Mr. Kvale is with the City Service Oil company. Mrs. Kvale has been connected with the Federal Land Bank in Stanley.
